Darma Jati and Aji Darma, wayang purwa play versified, in the introduction called simply: Pandawa tale. Exorcising influence against Batara Kala in case of ontang-anting (only child), etc., is ascribed to it. Tale of the struggle of the brothers Darma Jati, Salimu Jati and Aji Darma, already victors of the Korawas, with the Pandawas. Binia (Kusuma Yuda) is poisoned. Darma Jati's attemps to win Arjuna's wives Sembadra and Srikandi fail; on the contrary Arjuna, in the shape of Srikandi, penetrates into Darma Jati's zenana. With Kresna's assistance Arjuna finally vanquishes the three brothers. Anoman and also Arjuna's *panakawan*s Semar and Blado are mentioned. Javanese-Madurese idiom and spelling; clumsy style. Cat. Juynboll II, p. 73-74 has a Dutch summary. Or. 10.867B contains a list of initial lines of cantos by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, p. 250.

Or. 4968
Collection of Batak, Malay and Javanese letters.
Four letters concerning a matter of real estate in the cultivation area of Sumatra's East Coast.
(1) 1 f. Malay, in Batak script. Letter from Tuan Maria Pane in Buntu Pane in Asahan to Mr. A. Kamerlingh Onnes, who has asked him for a parcel of ground. Writer answers that he has first to ask for permission from the Sultan of Asahan. Dated 17 Zulhijah 1307 (August 4, 1890).
(2) 1 folded leaf. Malay in Latin script, and Batak. Statement given and signed by A. Kamerlingh Onnes, saying that 'Toewan Pagarbesei Dehahim' in Tandjong Marihat in Tanah Djawa (Simalungun) has given him the exclusive right of exploration in his area. Dated Kisaran, April 2, 1897. Under this is written in Batak a statement by the Batak chief: 'On ma surat ni Tuwan Dohadim tanda ibana mangaku pardjandjian dohot tuwan Unus bolas ditonggor aha hasijoini di kanan mudik Silo Tuha ulang diganggu tuwan Unus. Salatam (read: salamat) hata ni surat.' ('This is a letter of Tuwan Dohadim in which he acknowledges that he has an agreement with Mr. <Kamerlingh> Onnes giving the lattrer the right to exploration everywhere he wants on the right bank of the river Silo Tuha. There should not made any hindrance to Mr. <Kamerlingh> Onnes. So be it.' Tuwan is a Simalungun-Batak title of nobility (formerly Tuhan, but here already Tuwan as influenced by Malay, in which Tuhan is only used for God). Tuwan Pagarbosi is probably the apanage title of the chief in question. The kampong Tandjung Manhat does not occur anymore in the printed Kampong List of 1933 in Tanah Djawa. Maybe the village had to yield for the establishment of an enterprise.
(3) A Javanese letter signed (in Arabic script) by Shaykh Muhammad Zamjam, about the recruitment of kuli's.
(4) A letter in Malay, in Arabic script, from (?) Datuk Setia Perkasa, dated 1306/1889, to Mr. A. Kamerlingh Onnes. The seal print and the name seem to the end in Pane. The letter is about a question of sale of real estate.
See T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 193 (No. 429). See Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici (1977), pp. 232-233.
Provenance: Gift from Mr. A. Kamerlingh Onnes, received on March 2, 1898. Note that the second initial of the previous owner ('J') is based on a misreading by Voorhoeve, and hence by Iskandar, of the registration in the 'Journaal', p. 90.

(??), one slate of wax, 31 x 41.5 cm, kept in the tin box in which it was sent to the last owner. The slate is now broken into 4 pieces.
Wax tablet with the print of an unidentified inscription from the area above Padang ('Padangse Bovenlanden', Sumatra). The script is like Batak script, very angular and must be quite old. It is in no way similar to any of the specimens published by J.G. de Casparis, Indonesian palaeography. A history of writing in Indonesia from the beginnings to c. A.D. 1500. Leiden 1975 [8093 D 20].

Added is a letter in Dutch by the first owner in which details about the making of the print are given. The here following information is derived from that letter.
Provenance: Received in July 1901 from the estate of P.A. van der Lith (1844-1901).
Earlier provenance: Sent to Professor van der Lith on November 19, 1889, by Mr. de Rooij, a civil servant in charge of the section Poear Datar, part of the 50 kota's in the area above Padang. He had the print made from an inscription in stone, found near Koeboe Penjabrangan situated on the border of laras Kapoernan IX, an area which is thinly populated by Minangkabau Malay.

Or. 4980 - Or. 4990
Collection of Balinese (Or. 4980b, c, Or. 4981, Or. 4982, Or. 4984b, c, d, Or. 4986 and Or. 4987), Javanese (Or. 4980a, Or. 4983, Or. 4984 a, b, c, Or. 4985, Or. 4986, Or. 4988a, b, Or.

4989) and Sanskrit (Or. 4990) manuscripts which were received in May 1903 as a present from J.H.C. Kern (1833-1917). Several of these bear labels with the text ‘Bali. Septbr. Octbr. Novbr. 1868’ and are provided with a number, possibly given to them by Kern, or another previous owner:

No. 1	Or. 4980 c
No. 3	Or. 4984 c
No. 4	Or. 4984 a
No. 5	Or. 4988 a
No. 6	Or. 4982
No. 7	Or. 4983
No. 8	Or. 4984 b
No. 9	Or. 4980 a
No. 10	Or. 4981
No. 11	Or. 4980 b
No. 12	Or. 4985
No. 13	Or. 4988 b
No. 14	Or. 4984 d

Or. 4986 and Or. 4988 do not bear such labels with numbers. In many instances the references by H.H. Juynboll in his catalogues have gone wrong. Often erroneous class-marks have been given. In the following this has been corrected, with an autopsy of the manuscripts. The following references reflect the true state of the manuscripts, as they were found in their boxes.

Or. 4980 a

Javanese, palmleaf, 22 ff., embat-embatan, Balinese script, drawings.
Arjuna Wiwaha kakawin, fragments, with drawings of demons etc. on the left side of the pages. Cat. Juynboll I, p. 117.
On a label, pasted on a leaf of the MS, is written: ‘No. 9. Bali. Septbr. Octbr. Novbr. 1868’. Pigeaud II, p. 251, considers Or. 4980 as a Javanese text, and describes it summarily as follows: ‘Arjuna Wiwaha kakawin, fragments, with drawings of demons etc. on the left side of the pages.’ This is in fact only a description of Or. 4980 a.

Sanskrit, paper, 112 pp.
Copy made by J.H.C. Kern (1833-1917) in 1869 of the Samgîtâdarpana by Dâmodara, son of Laksmidharabhatta, a manuscript in the possession of 'Mr. Fétis in Brussels', with whom possibly E.L.F. Fétis (1812-1909) is meant. That manuscript was a copy of a manuscript dated samvat 1704 (1697 AD) (Note by M.J. de Goeje, May 15, 1903, added to the MS). Mr. Fétis' manuscript is now in the Bibliothèque Nationale de France, Paris. A microfiche of that MS is in the Leiden library: D 280. The first and second adhyâya are published by A.A. Bake, Bijdrage tot de kennis der Voor-Indische muziek. Paris 1930.

Second Millies collection, consisting of copperplate, palmleaves, bambu strips, manuscripts and papers from the estate of Prof. H.C. Millies (1810-1868), professor of Oriental languages in Utrecht University, and before that employed by the Dutch Bible Society in the Dutch East-Indies. See for succinct biographical details Encyclopædie van Nederlandsch-Indië (2e druk), II, pp. 729-730, and the references there. Also: P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici, p. 234. His library had been auctioned off shortly after his death. See the catalogue: Catalogue de la bibliothèque délaissée par feu M. le Dr. H.C Millies. Vente 7 mai 1870 (Utrecht, Beijers, 1870, 262 pp.) [UBL: 752 E 16, partly annotated with prices], which is, with its 4361 titles and 68 objects, a witness of Millies' wide and varied interests. In the auction catalogue there are some manuscript materials mixed with the majority of the printed books. Several of these were purchased by the Library of Leiden University and were then registered as Or. 1930-1943, 1959 ('Journaal', p. 43). At the end of the auction catalogue there are three pages with objects from Borneo, which were also sold. The present collection of manuscripts was purchased in 1905 from Mrs. J.C.W. de Boer-Roorda van Eysinga ('Journaal', pp. 91-92).

Or. 4997

Sheaf with documents, and with specimens of different scripts of the world.
Nos. 1-3 have a Chinese connection:
Miscellaneous texts on the Taiping rebellion and the Christian religion.
(1) Local edict announcing the freedom to preach the Christian religion in Shaoxing prefecture (Sjao king foe) dated 8/28 Daoguang (October 1848). Lithographic Chinese text (59 x 68 cm) printed in black and red. A red seal reads 'Shaoxing Fu yin ...' (seal of Shaoxing Fu). Note in Dutch: 'Naar het oorspronkelijk op steen get. Leiden, Junij, 1850 J H' (Lithograph after the original, June 1850, J. Hoffmann); autographed dedication reads: Print No. 26, given to Millies by J.J. Hoffmann on 4 July 1850. Hoffmann received the original edict from K. Gützlaff. Hoffmann's Dutch translation was published in Staatscourant No. 131 of 5 June 1850. See also MS Leiden University Library BPL 1782 (12 1, J). A manuscript copy by Hoffmann is in BPL 2186 (R 4). Four other lithographic copies are in the Sinological Institute (Archiefkast 3D and Schlegel 1883, No. 141 (Sinol. 1982.3) in the Van Gulik Room).
(2) Letters containing information on Chinese insurgents. Contains copies of an advertisement (A), Taiping documents (B-D), and a government document (E).
- A. 'Zhisheng Xieji bianzhen' (Distinguishing the real mark of Zhisheng's Xie firm); printed text (1 f.; 20.5 x 19.8 cm) in an envelope (14 x 7 cm; with text 'Zhisheng company' warning about forgeries which imitate the company's products.

- B. ‘Guangxi Yong’an Man gaoshi’ (Proclamation of Yong’an County in Guangxi); manuscript text (1 f.; 24.4 x 48 cm) by the prince of Jingguo to Hong Xiuquan, Yang Xiuqing and others.
- C. ‘Hong Xiuquan laili’ (Background of Hong Xiuquan), a short manuscript biography (1 f.; 27.2 x 40.2 cm) of Hong Xiuquan; on the reverse side is a description of the beliefs of the Taiping insurgents and campaigns in Guangdong and Guangxi written by a follower of Hong Xiuquan.
- D. Manuscript proclamation (xiaoyu)(1 f., 27.1 x 40 cm) to the population from a secret society (Hongmen), ordering them not to be afraid of the insurgents and to report crimes, dated 16/5/1 Sitong of Da Ming in Shilong Zhen.
- E. Manuscript government edict (1 f.; 23 x 33.2 cm), with some corrections, on the battles near Nanjing and the formation of local troops dated 18/5/3 Xianfeng (9 May 1853).
(3) ‘Gao mushi chuan Fuyinshu you gan’ (Feelings after the Reverend Gao’s preaching of the Gospel), by Chen Lingxi. Manuscript Christian tract (1 f.; 27.7 x 35.4 cm). Gao Huaiyi is the Chinese name of Rudolph Kröne, who arrived in Hong Kong in 1850 and remained in China until 1860; he died in 1864 (Alexander Wylie, Memorials of Christian missionaries to the Chinese, giving a list of their publications, and obituary notes of the deceased. Shanghai (reprint) 1967, pp. 206-207). Written on the reverse side are the words: ‘Tak Ka aan Pak thau Kang’ (?).
(4) One sheet of paper, 40 x 16.5 cm, Arabic. Letter from Muhammad Fadil Pasha, governor of Upper Egypt (with his seal and signature), to the nazir of Esna, dated 20.?.1275 (1858-1859) permitting Prisse d’Avennes (1807-1897) to conduct excavations. The letter was given to Millies in Utrecht in 1861 by the painter who had accompanied E. Prisse d’Avennes on his journey, Willem de Famars Testas (1834-1896). This information was drawn from a note in French written on the back of the letter and from a note added to the letter.
(5) Two sheets of paper, 28 x 19.5 and 34 x 44 cm. Watercolour of an Egyptian statue (by de Famars Testas?), unsigned, marked ‘2/3’ (?), and inexpert pen drawing of the hieroglyph text on that same statue.
(6) Specimens of exotic scripts taken from pages of one of the three Alba Amicorum of Ernst Brinck (1581-1649), the First Secretary of the Dutch Legation in Constantinople. Several copies on transparant paper, others on ordinary paper. According to a note on the sheaf (by Millies?), the original used to be in the possession of J. Willmet (1750-1835), and had gone in Millies’ lifetime to F.A. van Rappard, author of the privately published work Ernst Brink, eerste secretaris van het Nederlandsche gezantschap te Konstantinopel, later burgemeester van Harderwijk, meerendeels naar onuitgegeven bronnen geschetst. Utrecht [1868]. Nowadays the three volumes of Brinck Alba are preserved in the Royal Library in The Hague (vol. 1: class-mark 133 M 86; vol. 2: class-mark 133 M 87; vol. 3: class-mark 135 K 4). A microfilm of volume 3 (135 K 4) is kept in the Legatum Warnerianum (film A 1212). Additional information kindly supplied by Mr. K. Thomassen, The Royal Library, The Hague.
(7) Sheaf containg leaves with specimens of exotic scripts, parly copied by Millies (?) from the collection compiled by the Bamberg historian and librarian H.J. Jaeck (1777-1847), entitled Viele Alphabete und ganze Schrift-Müster vom VIII bis zum XVI Jahrh. aus den Hss. der öffentl. Bibliothek zu Bamberg (Leipzig, 1833-1835. 4 volumes), and both other published sources and manuscripts. Scripts shown are: Longobardian, Mongolian, comparative table of Mongolian and the semitic scripts, Indian scripts including Devanagri, Sabian, Old-Talian scripts, Russian, Icelandic, Coptic, Malabarese, Cuneiform, Old semitic scripts, Estrangelo, a print specimen with some Chinese characters, a print specimen of a short Batak text, Kufi script, with a transparant copy of a MS page, with transliteration exercises, Pali.

See for a reference to the Coptic material Kruit & Witkam, List (Leiden 2000), p. 12.
It would seem that the specimens were collected by Millies in order to serve as study material, for his students or for himself.
The description of Nos. 1, 2 and 3 has been derived from Koos Kuiper, Catalogue of Chinese and Sino-Western manuscripts in the Central Library of Leiden University. Leiden 2005, pp. 6, 8-9, with a reproduction of Or. 4997 (2 D) on p. 9.

PREFACE

The arrangement of the present volume of the Inventories of Oriental manuscripts in Leiden University Library does not differ in any specific way from the volumes which have been published earlier (vols. 5, 12, 13, 14, 20, 22 and 25). For the sake of brevity I refer to my prefaces in those volumes. A few essentials my be repeated here.

Not all manuscripts mentioned in the present volume were viewed by autopsy. The sheer number of manuscripts makes this impossible. At a later stage this may be achieved, but trying to achieve this at the present stage of inventorizing would seriously hamper the progress of the present project. When a manuscript was not inspected this can be seen from a simple typographical device. Whenever the indication of the shelf-mark is put between round brackets, I have not, or not extensively or sufficiently, inspected the manuscript, and its entry in the inventory is based mostly or entirely on secondary sources, be they published or not. These have, of course, always been indicated. When the shelf-mark is put between square brackets and preceded by an asterisk, this means that I have had the manuscript in my hands, at least once but probably more often, and that the description contains elements that can only be seen in the original manuscript. Such autopsy does not mean that I am, automatically, the author of all information given under that particular class-mark.

The basic elements for each entry of the present inventory are: 1. class-mark, 2. language(s), 3. details of physical description, 4. survey of the contents, 5. provenance, 6. location on the shelf. Depending on the nature of the material, exceptions and divergences are made from this strict arrangement. The collective provenance of a series of manuscripts may be concentrated into a short text, preceding that series, without being repeated under each class-mark.

I end with an important note. Although the inventories which I am publishing here contain descriptions of public and private collections, which will no doubt profit of the existence of electronic versions of my work, none of my inventories has ever been made at the express insistence or by the specific demand of these institutions. The idea to compile such inventories, the invention of their structure, the acquisition of the necessary information from a multitude of primary and secondary sources, the way of publishing, all this is my idea and my work alone. It is therefore my sole property and I assert the moral right of the authorship of form and content of these inventories, with reference, of course, to what I have said elsewhere about the method of compilation.

OF THE LIBRARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF LEIDEN

VOLUME 6

MANUSCRIPTS OR. 5001 – OR. 6000
REGISTERED IN LEIDEN UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
IN THE PERIOD BETWEEN MAY 1905 AND MAY 1917

Continuation of the Second Millies collection (Or. 4996-Or. 5011), consisting of copperplate, palmleaves, bambu strips, manuscripts and papers from the estate of Prof. H.C. Millies (1810-1868), professor of Oriental languages in Utrecht University, and before that employed by the Dutch Bible Society in the Dutch East-Indies. See for succinct biographical details Encyclopædie van Nederlandsch-Indië (2e druk), II, pp. 729-730, and the references there. Also: P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici, p. 234. His library had been auctioned off shortly after his death. See the catalogue: Catalogue de la bibliothèque délaissée par feu M. le Dr. H.C Millies. Vente 7 mai 1870 (Utrecht, Beijers, 1870, 262 pp.) [UBL: 752 E 16, partly annotated with prices], which is, with its 4361 titles and 68 objects, a witness of Millies' wide and varied interests. In the auction catalogue there are some manuscript materials mixed with the majority of the printed books. Several of these were purchased by the Library of Leiden University and were then registered as Or. 1930-1943, 1959 ('Journaal', p. 43). At the end of the auction catalogue there are three pages with objects from Borneo, which were also sold. The present collection of manuscripts was purchased in 1905 from Mrs. J.C.W. de Boer-Roorda van Eysinga ('Journaal', pp. 91-92).

Or. 5001
Javanese, paper, 16 pp.
Several shorter Javanese texts in Arabic script, with schematical drawings. Somewhat damaged paper, 16 pp. According to a note in Dutch on the cover, the MS would originate from Bonjol from a Padri environment (the Padri wars lasted from 1833 till 1837). Notes on Muslim prayers and religious exercises. See Pigeaud II, p. 252, where transliteration of the beginning.

See Pigeaud II, p. 254.
Or. 12.692, below, is a transcript made from texts Nos. 6-11 in the present manuscript, which was prepared within the framework of C. Hooykaas' Balinese manuscript project.
¶ This manuscript was returned by the gouvernment of The Netherlands to Indonesia. On February 27, 1970, it was officially transferred by the University librarian, Mr. J.R. de Groot, to the Dutch Ministry of Education. The manuscript was returned to Indonesia during the official visit of Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard to Indonesia in the course of 1970. The fate of the original manuscript was widely speculated upon, when it was lost from sight shortly afterwards. However, in the summer of 1991 I was able to see and recognize the manuscript as part of the Javanese manuscript collection in the Perpustakaan Nasional, the National Library, in Jakarta. At that time it was unrestrictedly available for scholarly research.
In Leiden the manuscript can be consulted in the form of photographic prints on paper, and in microfilm.

Cat. Juynboll III, p. 189, describes the present manuscript and has, for Nos. 4 and 5, a reference to Or. 5441 (4), below. In Juynboll's catalogue this is treated on p. 190. This must, however, be a mistake and Juynboll must have confused the class-marks, as he has done on several other occasions. The actual manuscript Or. 5441 has been described in cat. Juynboll II, p. 138, and in Pigeaud II, p. 320. It is not clear which class-mark is meant instead of the spurious Or. 5441.

Or. 5443
Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 76 pp., copied by H.C. Millies.
(1) pp. 1-74. The introductory part of Book II and fasl 12 and 13, of the Bustan al-Salatin by Nur al-Din al-Raniri (Nuru'd-din ar-Raniri, d. 1658), as copied by H.C. Millies (1810-1868) from a copy by H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894) of MS London, R.A.S. Raffles Malay 42, with in the margins the variant readings of MS London R.A.S. Raffles Malay 8 (see M.C. Ricklefs & P. Voorhoeve (1977), pp. 134, 138). Van der Tuuk's own copy has not come in the Leiden collection. Or. 3260 d, above contains excerpts in Dutch by van der Tuuk of MS London, R.A.S. Malay 42, but not the Malay text. Millies's handwriting can be identified with the help of a letter by him in the Western Department of the Leiden Library (Ltk. 1795 III (3)).
Pp. 1-5. Introductory part.
Pp. 5-22. Fasal 12, on the history of Malaka and Pahang.
Pp. 22-74 contain Fasal 13, on the history of Aceh. That text has been edited from the present manuscript by T. Iskandar as: Nuru'd-din ar-Raniri, Bustanu's-salatin. Bab II, fasal 13. Kuala Lumpur 1966 [S 5882:12, (in 4930)]. Iskandar's edititorial work is in fact not much more than a transliteration of Millies' copying and van der Tuuk's collation and text-critical work. He could easily have based his edition directly on the two London manuscripts.

P. Voorhoeve (1899-1996) has begun with writing (blue ink) variant readings from MS KBG 420 Mal. in the margins of pp. 1-2, probably from the microfilm of that MS in Leiden (A 59a).
An electronic version of the text as in the present MS can be consulted through the Malay Concordance Project, as Bustan al-Salatin of Al-Raniri in the critical edition prepared by Siti Hawa Haji Salleh:
http://online.anu.edu.au/asianstudies/ahcen/proudfoot/MCP/BS_bib.html [link not valid anymore]
¶ In his edition of 1966 (p. 14) and again in his Catalogue of 1999 (p. 196, No. 435), Iskandar states that the MS was copied by H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894). This is incorrect, as is immediately clear when one opens the manuscript. Instead of the wild handwriting of van der Tuuk we find here a very neatly written manuscript. One should e.g. compare Or. 2260 d, above, which contains excerpts in Dutch in the handwriting of van der Tuuk about the same passages taken from the very same MS London R.A.S. Raffles Malay 42. That handwriting is entirely different. G.K. Niemann (1823-1905) writes in his Bloemlezing uit Maleische geschriften (The Hague 1870-1871) I, p. 55; II, p. 20 [858 E 34-35], that he has used the two London manuscripts for the few stories which he has included in his anthology (I, pp. 262-270). He had had in mind (I, p. 56) to publish the history of Malaka, Pahang and Aceh later on, as he did in Bloemlezing II, pp. 117-137 (text) and II, pp. 20-28 (notes and criticism. The fact that Niemann had obtained this MS after Millies' demise in 1868 evidently enabled him to do that. But Niemann did not copy it, as is stated by M.C. Ricklefs and P. Voorhoeve, Indonesian manuscripts in Great Britain. A catalogue of manuscripts in Indonesian languages in British public collections. Oxford 1977, p. 138.
The unnecessary confusion in this matter may have been caused by a manuscript note on the fly-leaf at the end of the volume. It is in the hand of H.C. Millies (1810-1868) and reads: 'Copij van het afschrift en de collatie door Dr. H.N. van der Tuuk genomen der Hss. van de Bostan-as-Salatin, te London aanwezig bij de Royal Asiatic Society.' To this was added by G.K. Niemann: 'Mij geschonken door Mevrouw de wed. Millies.' This only means that Millies had copied a copy which van der Tuuk had made while in London, and that Niemann owned Millies' copy before it came in the Leiden library.
Another fragment of the Bustan al-Salatin was critically edited by Russel Jones from the two manuscripts in London and other ones: Bustanu's-salatin. Bab IV, fasal 1. A critical edition and translation of the first part of Fasal 1, which deals with Ibrahim ibn Adham). Kuala Lumpur 1974 [8098 E 5 / 8102 D 11]. On p. 2 he praises Iskandar's text-critical work in the 1966 edition.
(2) pp. 75-76. Copy by H.C. Millies, probably of a copy by H.N. van der Tuuk, of a copy of a pass issued by Sultan Jauhar Alam Shah of Aceh on Monday 27 Safar 1220, concerning a captured ship 'Allum Shah'. The ship's captain Lippiat is mentioned in the document (p. 75, last line). H.C. Millies copied this text from the document in the collection of the R.A.S. in London which is registered as Johnston collection 69 A (information kindly supplied by Annabel Teh-Gallop, British Library, London). He has also copied the heading of the first copy, which was apparently written by the ship's captain, who also may have copied the text of the original document: 'A true copy from the original pass from the King of Achin for the grab ship Allum Shah. J.D. Lippiat'. To this Millies/van der Tuuk have added: 'Waarbij eene Malabaarsche Vertaling. Boven aan de pas staat: Great Seal of Achin en in een kring het volgende:' There follows the text of the seal. The Malabarese translation is not included here. The present wherabouts of the original document are not known.

'Makassaarsche Vertaling des Korans' Makassarese translation of the Qur'an. The fragment contains the translation of sura 1 –sura 2:28, written on the right pages. On the left pages is a literal translation of the Makassarese text into Dutch (ff. 1b-10a). Some explanatory notes in the margins. Ff. 11-12 blank.
¶ On f. 10b Matthes has written:
'Uit het voorafgaande gedeelte der Mak. vert. vd Koran, zal het reeds overvloedig kunnen blijken, dat dit werk minder den naam van vertaling danwel van omschrijving verdient.
Voorts is het ook niet te ontkennen, dat de stijl op sommige plaatsen aan groote duisterheid lijdt welke voor den Makr. nog vermeerderd wordt door het noodeloos gebruik van vele Arabische woorden, wier ware kracht en juiste beteekenis zelfs zijn kundigste priesters hem ter naauwernood kunnen verklaren.
Om deze redenen zou het zeker niet raadzaam zijn om zich, bij eene vertolking der HS. deze Mak. vert. des Korans tot v.b. te stellen; ofschoon dezelve anders welligt, bij het overbrengen van enkele woorden en phrases eenige dienst zou kunnen doen.

On pp. 188-195 we find the well-known Ayat Lima-Welas, the 15 verses of the Qur'an., with Javanese commentary (sarah, Sharh), about the merit of their recitation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 466-467, which contains the best description of the contents of the present manuscript
- Pigeaud II, p. 321, has the following description: Notes, mainly chapters of Muslim law (fiqh) referring to the salat and to marriage and divorce, and prayers (do'a) suitable for various occasions and good for many ends, mostly in Arabic with Javanese glosses. At the end some Javanese didactic poems in tembang macapat. One lengthy Malay passage and some Sundanese notes. Probably of West-Javanese origin, perhaps Purwakarta. The Sattariya tarika is mentioned several times.
- T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 198 (No. 441) distinguishes on pp. 310-330 a treatise on Qur'an recitation, Tagwid, apparently in Malay.

Javanese, Dutch, paper, 233 items of different sizes, Javanese script for the Javanese documents..
Letters, Javanese, sent by Javanese princes and gentlemen to Dutch governors and other officials mostly in Surakarta and Yogyakarta, dated about 1820-1830, originals, many provided with seals. Sometimes official Dutch translations have been added. Roorda's facsimile edition of Javanese letters is based on this collection.

The original documents have been bound together, often provided with a Dutch translation (by Winter). On the spine a label reads: ‘Uitgegevene Javaansche brieven, enz.’. The title-page reads: ‘Handschriften van het grootste gedeelte der uitgegevene Javaansche brieven enz. benevens de translaten daarvan, voor zoo ver die bestaan’. On each document there is a note in pencil about the use that has been made of it, such as having been included in the lithographed facsimile edition, having been edited somewhere, etc.

Arabic, French, paper, 203 ff., autograph.
Dictionnaire détaillé des noms de vêtements chez les Arabes [by R.P.A. Dozy]. The neat copy by R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883) of this first major work by him. This may have been the copy which Dozy sent to the predecessor of the Royal Academy of Arts and Sciences in Amsterdam, in answer to its question, formulated in the Academy's session of December 16, 1841, to compile such a dictionary. Dozy won the prize. Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.
¶ Dozy's own interleaved copy of the printed edition (Dictionnaire détaillé des noms des vêtements chez les Arabes. Ouvrage couronné et publié par la Troisième Classe de l'Institut Royal des Pays-Bas. Amsterdam 1845) is kept in the Leiden Library as OOSHSS B 35. It contains all the notes and additions which Dozy made since 1845.

Or. 5585 a-f
Study materials from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). Some of the materials which are registered under this class-mark may originate from the estate of R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). His handwriting can be seen, and several letters are directed to him. Other materials come apparently from P.J. Veth (1814-1895). The materials are preserved in 6 portfolios (Or. 5585 a – Or. 5585 f). Or. 5585 e – f contain the archive of De Goeje's project of the edition of Tabari.
(Ar. 2478 a-f)

Or. 5585 a
Sheaf with study notes, lecture notes and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). The sheaf has (not yet) been ordened and arranged, but a few major parts may be discerned, and these contain materials in Dutch, Latin, Arabic and Hebrew. At the end several letters of scholarly content.
1. Hebrew, Dutch. Small exercise book. With notes on and quotations from Deuteronomium 33. Most pages blank.
2. Arabic, Dutch. Lexicographical notes. Mostly crossed out, as having served their purpose. Many blank pages.
3. Arabic, lithograph. Two coloured maps (Tabaristan, Khurasan), after MS Gotha Ar. 1521, probably taken from the edition of Istakhri's work by J.H. Möller, Liber climatum. Gotha 1839 [847 B 14].
4. Arabic. Exercise book with notes on Arabic prosody.
To this is added a large amount of loose papers and gatherings, containing lecture notes, apparently taken by M.J. de Goeje during lectures with his professors, study notes, etc. In some notes reference is made to (Prof. Dr. Antonie) Rutgers (1805-1884), whose manuscripts are registered in Leiden as Or. 3040 - Or. 3050, and with whom de Goeje may have studied. There is also a 'Schets van geschiedenis der Arabische letterkunde'. Also a vast pile of copies, with collations, from parts of Arabic manuscripts.
Also lithograph copies of a page from a Batak manuscript, as copied by H.C. Millies (1810-1868). Also notes on Dutch literature (about works bij Hooft, Vondel, etc.). Also an undated photoprint from a page of Or. 289, sent to M.J. de Goeje by P.J. Kaiser, who was a technician and acquaintance of de Goeje. And notes and extracts on the subjects of 'Modern Persian literature', 'Modern Arabic and Persian Literature. Historical Introduction', Mandeville, Malay language and literature, Islam, Christianity among the Arabs, Apologetics against Islam, Academies of the Arabs.

* Letters, at the end of the sheaf, which are not, necessarily all directed to de Goeje. Some may have been sent to R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883):
- A leaf with scholarly notes, signed by J. Barth (1851-1914).
- H.L. Fleischer (1801-1888): 3 letters addressed to R.P.A. Dozy, dated Leipzig, October 11, 1882; October 26, 1882; November 14, 1882.
- St. Guyard (1846-1884): Letter to De Goeje, dated Paris, May 17, 1883.
- Th. Nöldeke (1836-1930): 1 envelope with learned notes, not dated.
- V. Rosen (1849-1908): 1 letter with enclosures, dated <Petersburg>, December 10/22, 1881.
- Letter from ?, directed to R.P.A. Dozy, dated Leiden, January 11, 1882.
- Letter from ?, to M.J. de Goeje, dated ?, November 30, 1882
(Ar. 2478 a)

Or. 5585 b
Sheaf with study notes, lecture notes and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). The materials in this sheaf do not seem to originate from M.J. de Goeje himself, but rather or mostly from P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Most are in Dutch, a few in Latin.
(1) Alphabetically arranged vocabulary of Arabic words, taken from Western sources. The lemmas are written on slips and were then pasted in a writing book. They may have been written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Some lemmas can be found in R.P.A. Dozy, Supplément aux dictionnaires Arabes (Leiden 1881), but many cannot.
(2) 'Adversarium'. Notebook with Latin lemma's, alphabetically arranged, with notes and references, from Arabic and other sources. First lemma is Arma, weaponry, translated as Alat al-Harb, with a number of Arabic terms and words which fall under this heading, with explanation and references to their text of origin. Many pages left blank. Apparently made by a student of intermediate level, possibly dating from the first half of the 19th century. Possibly in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895).
(3) Exercise book with the the title 'Aanteekeningen op de Plaatsen van 't Nieuwe Testament die voornamelijk de dwalingen der Roomsche Kerk bestrijden. Vrij naar het Fransch van F. Bungener'. However, this title refers to notes which have been removed. What remains of blank pages in the booklet is now used for lexicographical notes (Arabic-Dutch), some of which seem to have a connection with R.P.A. Dozy, Supplément aux dictionnaires Arabes (Leiden 1881).
(4) Handwritten copy by M.J. de Goeje of his article 'Al-Beladhori's Ansab al-aschraf', in ZDMG 38 (1884), pp. 382-406.
(5) Pencil drawing for a frontispice of a Dutch Koran translation, showing a nich, draped with curtains, containing an open copy of the Koran, lying on a sword, on a cushion. It is not clear for which edition the drawing was made. Not signed.

(6) 'Iets uit mijn adelborstenleven', by W.R. Adema, dedicated to P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Memoirs of an adpirant naval officer ('adelborst'), in Dutch. With reminiscences of trips in the Mediterranean.
(7) 'Toespraak tot Opening der Vergadering van bestuurders der Algemeen Doopsgezinde Societeit, gehouden den 24sten Maart 1849'. Speech in Dutch, a funerary oration apparently for the theologian Rinse Koopmans (1770-1826), although his demise was much earlier than the date of the speech. See also the printed edition of the funerary orations for Koopmans by Samuel Muller and Jeronimo de Vries, Hulde aan Rinse Koopmans (Amsterdam 1827), in which occasion the present text seems to be fitting. The text is followed by 'Toespraak tot opening der Dubbele Vergadering van de Algemeene Doopsgezinde Societeit, gehouden den 23sten Mei 1849'. Both speeches are concluded by a prayer. Two quires. Possibly written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895).
(8) Inaugural oration (in Latin), by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) held in 1841 (date not mentioned?), when he had been appointed Professor of Oriental languages in the Atheneum of Franeker, where he stayed from 1841-1842. Veth's autograph copy. See on Veth's stay in Franeker now also P. van der Velde, Een Indische liefde (Amsterdam 2000), pp. 77-89.
(9) A theological essay (6 pp.) by P.J. Veth (1814-1895), in Dutch, on matters pertaining to giving a good example, with reference to texts in the New Testament. Veth's autograph, signed by him.
(10) 'No. I. Leerrede over de behartiging onzer geestelijke belangen als het ééne noodige.' Theological oration in Dutch, taking Lucas 10:42a as point of departure. Apparently in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895), and if this is correct, he is probably also the author. Not dated.
(11) 'No. II. De Kennis der Liefde Gods jegens ons, de bron van liefderijke gezindheden omtrent God en den naasten'. Theological oration in Dutch, taking 1 John 4:8 as point of departure. Apparently in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895), and if this is correct, he is probably also the author. Not dated.
(12) 'Verhuizen'. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895), about changing places. Possibly held when he left Breda (1841) or Franeker (1843). Veth's autograph.
(13) 37 pp. and inserts. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) about Christian mission and the East Indian archipelago, held for the Nederlandsch Zendelinggenootschap in ? (town not mentioned). Not dated, but apparently held at a rather advanced age, as he refers to the many years that he has given lectures. Veth's autograph.
(14) 25 pp. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) about the Netherlands and the East-Indies, held before the Dordrecht section of the 'Maatschappij tot Nut van den Javaan'. Veth's autograph.
(15) 24 pp. Speech (or article?) in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) on the introduction of western education in the Dutch East-Indies, held within a political context, with reference to the budget discussions in the Dutch parliament. Veth's autograph.
(16) 4 folded sheets. German text 'Einleitung in die Bücher der Chronik, Esra and Nechemja'. Possibly in disorder and incomplete. Possibly written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895).

(Ar. 2478 b)

Or. 5585 c
Sheaf with study notes, copies from manuscripts and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909), and pertaining to his work. European languages, and quotations in Arabic script.
(1) Sheaf with loose leaves. Notes by M.J. de Goeje about aspects of the history of silk, in French. This includes 'La soie chez les Arabes', 'Annotations sur le 1r chap. du II vol. De M. Pariset' and 'Observations sur le 2e chapitre de l'ouvrage de M. Pariset'. These notes M.J. de Goeje made for Ernest Pariset (1826-1912) and served as information for the latter when he was working in 1863 and 1864 on the 1st and 2nd chapters of the 2nd volume of his book Histoire de la Soie (Paris 1862-1865 [339 E 31-32]). Pariset recalls his large indebtness to De Goeje in vol. 2, p. 113, note 1. The sheaf also contains correspondence between de Goeje and Pariset. It appears that R.P.A. Dozy had referred his learned pupil De Goeje to Pariset, when the latter had asked for assistance. De Goeje's letters and notes are the drafts (now kept here, together with his notes), the neat copies of which he must have sent to Pariset. Pariset's letters to the Goeje are, of course, the originals. These are seven and dated Lyon, 5 février 1863, 28 février 1863, 15 avril 1863, 30 mai 1863, 20 juin 1863, 20 juillet 1863 (on letter-head of his father-in-law C.M. Teillard, a silk manufacturer in Lyon), 5 avril 1864.
(2) Exercise book with reading and study notes by M.J. de Goeje. These include a great variety of subjects, from old-Semitic religious studies to Arabic geographers and historians. Several come from De Goeje's reading of the Kitab al-Aghani (by Abu al-Farag al-Isfahani), but numerous other sources are mentioned.
(3) Envelope with notes and correspondence concerning M.J. de Goeje's edition of Diwan poetae Abu-'l-Walid Moslim ibno-'l-Walid al-Ançari cognomine Cario-'l-Ghawani (Leiden 1875 [O.L.G. 61:6521]). See also De Goeje's acknowledgments on p. viii of his preface. That edition was made by De Goeje on the basis of unique MS Leiden Or. 888, above. The sheaf includes a copy, by V. Rosen (1849-1908) of Muslim b. al-Walid's biography from the Kitab al-Aghani (taken from MS Gotha 532). There are letters by:
- W. Ahlwardt (1828-1909), with notes, two letters, dated Greifswald, 9 Juli 1873 and 2 August 1873
- William Wright (1830-1889), dated Cambridge 8 May 1875.
- Jos. Arendt, dated München, 20 Juni 1873.
(4) One sheaf containing materials concerning M.J. de Goeje, Mémoires d'histoire et de géographie Orientales. I: Memoire sur les Carmathes du Bahrain. Leiden 1862. The sheaf contains:
(a) 'Quelques particularités sur les Karmathes du Bahreïn'. In De Goeje's hand. One sheaf, with text in French.
(b) 'De Karmathen van Bahreïn'. In De Goeje's hand. Two exercise books with text in Dutch, with lengthy quotations for Annexes, from Ibn Hawqal, MS Leiden Or. 314, above, with reference to the Oxford and Paris manuscripts.
(c) Page proof of the Mémoire of 1862, with De Goeje's corrections.

(5) Exercise book with reading and study notes in Dutch, by M.J. de Goeje. Mostly on Arab geographers.
(6) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje, in French and German, about the Tabari edition? Also a postcard from J. Barth (1851-1914) on a detail of textual criticism. Part of the exercise book seems to be an apparatus criticus.
(7) Exercise book with notes (Dutch) and quotations (in Arabic) by M.J. de Goeje. The biography of al-Hallag, from the work by Ibn Miskawayh under 309 AH, copied from the manuscript of Ch. Schéfer (1820-1898), followed by notes on al-Shafi`i, taken from Kitab al-Muqaffa by al-Maqrizi (MS Leiden Or. 1366, above), followed by notes on al-Shafi`i, taken from the work by al-Khatib al-Baghdadi, taken from MS London, BM, Add. 23,319. Also notes, taken from MS London BM Add. 23,321, a work by Ibn al-Khatib, also from Ibn al-Kalbi (Add. 23,297). And several more extracts from manuscripts. At the end of the booklet a reference to a book published in 1896.
(8) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje (starting from both sides). Dutch translation of a passage in Yaqut I, pp. 609 and ff. Further lexicographical notes, lists of Arabic words taken from European travelogues (Botte, Palgrave, Wellsted).
(9) Exercise book with an index on Arabic historical works, probably not made by M.J. de Goeje, but rather by R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). Arranged by the letters of the alphabet.
(10) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje on the Anonyme Arabische Chronik, edited by W. Ahlwardt (Greifswald 1883 [O.L.G. 64:1493]). Followed by notes on Kitab Ansab al-Ashraf by al-Baladhuri, in the manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer. Followed by notes, and an extract, taken from the Tabaqat by Ibn Sa`d, MS Gotha 411. Followed by notes made from Kitab al-Wuzara by Hilal al-Sabi in the edition by H.F. Amedroz (Leiden 1908 [OLG 64:5282]).
(11) Exercise book with notes and emendations by M.J. de Goeje on several books: Die Mufaddaliyat (ed. H. Thorbecke, Leipzig 1885), Sibawaihi's Buch über die Grammatik [...] übersetzt und erklärt [...]von Gustav Jahn. (Berlin 1894-1900 [O.L.G. 52:5427-5429]), Wilhelm Heyd, Geschichte des Levantehandels im Mittelalter (Stuttgart 1879), Caetani II (= L. Caetani, Annali dell'Islam (Milano 1905-1926). The exercise book must, therefore, be from 1908 or 1909.
(12) Exercise book with copy by M.J. de Goeje from the MS text of an (unidentified) Arab chronicle, here going from 282 AH – 301 AH (not al-Tabari's Annales). Text on 15 pp.
(13) Exercise book with extracts and quotations in Dutch and Arabic by M.J. de Goeje from historical texts in manuscript: Kitab al-`Uyun wal-Hada'iq (MS Berlin, Wetz. II 342, vol. 4), followed by excerpts from MS Leiden Or. 2613 (1), above, being Kitab Ta'wil al-Zakat by Ga`far b. Mansur al-Yaman(i?) (middle 4th cent. AH), GAL S I, 324, followed by excerpts from a manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer, containing a text by Ibn al-Gawzi, followed by excerpts from the work by al-Hamadhani, in the Paris manuscript. At the end a note about the Fatimids, from Dastur al-Munaggimin, in a manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer. Followed by notes on al-Mukhtar fi Kashf al-Asrar wa-Hatk al-Astar, by `Abd al-Rahman b. `Umar al-Gawbari (c. 620/1223), GAL G I, 497, as in Or. 191 and Or. 2743, above. Also: a considerable number of inserts, with notes of text-critical relevance.
(14) Exercise book with notes in Dutch and extracts in Arabic by M.J. de Goeje on Th. Nöldeke, Delectus veterum carminum arabicorum (Berlin 1890), with a proof copy of De Goeje's review of this work in ZDMG 44, pp. 706-710. Followed by notes about the edition and translation by C. Brockelmann, Die Gedichte des Lebid (Leiden 1891), P. Schwarz, Der Diwan des Umar ibn Abi Rebi'a (Leipzig 1901-1909), and I. Goldziher, Der Diwan des Garwal b. Aus Al-Hutej'a (Leipzig 1893), Georg Jacob, Studien in arabischen Dichtern (Berlin 1893-1897), the Diwan of Ibn Muqarrabi, in MS Brill 28 (Houtsma's Catalogue, p. 141), A. von Kremer, History of Muhammad's Campaigns (Calcutta 1856), Th. Nöldeke, Fünf Moallaqat (Wien 1899-1902), and an article by F. Schulthess (1868-1922) published in ZDMG 54, pp. 523 ff. Added are a letter by Th. Nöldeke (1836-1930) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Strassburg 25 January 1891, and a letter by Georg Jacob (1862-1937) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Berlin, 24 April 1891.

(Ar. 2478 c)

Or. 5585 d
Sheaf with study notes, copies from manuscripts and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909), and pertaining to his work. European languages, and quotations in Arabic script.
(1) 'Strafrecht der Arabieren'. Text in Dutch of a lecture or article by (?) M.J. de Goeje.
(2) Notes concerning Or. 303b, above, being al-Filaha al-Nabatiyya by Muhammad b. \`Ali Ibn Wahshiyya (3rd/9th cent.), GAL G I, 242. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 83. Loose leaves.
(3) Notes and emendations by M.J. de Goeje, on Ibn Sa\`d, Tabaqat. Loose slips of paper, folded.
(4) Lecture or reading notes by M.J. de Goeje. They are apparently relevant to, or based on the work by F. Max Müller, Chips from a German workshop (London 1868-...), which contains I: Essays on the science of religion, and II: Essays on mythology, traditions and customs, III: Essays on literature, biography and antiquities, IV: Essays chiefly on the science of language. Loose papers of different sizes, marked A-L, and others. Also notes on the book by Palgrave, with whom W.G. Palgrave (1826-1888) may be meant.
(5) Textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje. All referring to an unidentified work on geography.
(6) Textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje, with reference to manuscripts:
- Paris, Arabe 582 (Hay'at Ashkal al-Ard ...);
- Berlin, Spr. 1 (Balkhi/Istakhri text).
- And textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje of Ibn Hawqal, Kitab al-masalik wa-al-mamalik, preceded by a draft Latin translation of the introductory paragraphs. M.J. de Goeje's edition was published in Leiden 1873 (BGA 2). De Goeje used for his edition of Ibn Hawqal's work three manuscripts, and his collations must concern these manuscripts:
L = MS Leiden, University Library, Or. 314 (Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 347). Without maps, copied in Istanbul in 926 AH.
B = MS Oxford, Bodleian Library, Hunt. 538 (Cat. Uri, p. 209, No. 963).
P = MS Paris, Bibliothèque Nationale, Arabe 2214 (Cat. De Slane, pp. 389-390).
- Textual criticism on Ibn Gubayr's Rihla, with relevance to the edition by William Wright (Leiden 1852), which is based on MS Leiden Or. 320 (1), above; and similar notes on al-Bayan al-Mughrib by Ibn al-\`Idhari (end of 7th cent. AH), GAL G II, 337, with relevance to MS Leiden Or. 67, above.

(7) Sheaf with loose leaves containing notes and abstracts by M.J. de Goeje from several texts, all in relevance to his editorial work on the Bibliotheca Geographorum Arabicorum. Also from al-Wafi bil-Wafayat by al-Safadi (biography of al-Balkhi), and several other texts. The sheaf also contains letters:
- M. Amari (1806-1889) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Florence, October 4, 1861.
- Ed. Sachau (1845-1930) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Wien, 6. März 1870; 14. März 1870.
- A. von Kremer (?) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Wabern bei Bern, May 8, 1861.
(8) Sheaf, with loose leaves, containing notes, indexes and textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje, mostly in connection with geographical texts.
(9) Sheaf with Berberica. An index of names of Berber tribes, taken by M.J. de Goeje from Ibn Khaldun, Histoire des Berbères (by de Slane, Algiers 1852-1856). Also a facsimile, not drawn by de Goeje, of a Berber inscription found in Constantine, according to the reading of Mr. Costa. Also a comparative table with the Maghribi and Berber alphabets, in the same hand as the facsimile of the inscription. Notes on the question whether or not Berber is a semitic language.
(10) Collations by M.J. de Goeje, in connection with his work on BGA 1 and BGA 4. This concerns, with mention of de Goeje's sigla:
O = MS London, India Office 1026. A Persian translation. See catalogue Ethé, I, col. 364-365 (No. 707). Collation from this MS also given by de Goeje in his lists in BGA, vol. 4. After the completion of the edition in BGA vol. 1, de Goeje found it necessary to collate his text with other manuscripts. He gives his collations in volume 4 of the BGA (from p. 381 onwards). He describes his procedure on p. iv of the introduction. One of these is:
F = MS Oxford, Bodleian Library, Ous. 373. A Persian translation. Purchased in 1812 by William Ousely in Shiraz. See catalogue Sachau & Ethé, cols. 397-399 (No. 396.
(11) Notes by M.J. de Goeje, taken from a 'cahier' of C.A.C. Barbier de Meynard in Paris, containing text copied from a copy made by A. Sprenger (1813-1893) of a MS in Berlin and collated with a MS in Istanbul. The text contains the chapters on Persia and Khuzistan. It is not clear from which text they originate.
(12) Disparate sheets and leaves, with notes of textual criticism, mostly by M.J. de Goeje, but also by others. One sheet seems to have been written by an older scholar, possibly R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). All come from this portfolio.

Or. 5588 - Or. 5590
Manuscripts from the estate of Dr. S.J. Warren (1847-1910) of Rotterdam. Presented to the Library by his widow on February 11, 1910. Sijbrandus Johannes Warren was, as one can gather from the books published by him and which are in the Leiden catalogue, a classical scholar, who was at some time attached to the Erasmian Gymnasium in Rotterdam. Apart from his publications on classical subjects, mainly on Greek, he has a few works on indological subjects. His Leiden Ph.D. thesis was about Jainism: Over de godsdienstige en wijsgerige begrippen der Jaina's (Zwolle 1875). His published works do not seem to have any bearing on the three manuscripts from his collection which came to the Leiden library after his demise.

Or. 5591 - Or. 5739
The Banten collection of Islamic manuscripts. On pp. 99-101 of the Inventory of the Oriental Manuscript Collection, the so-called 'Journaal', the 'Banten collection' is mentioned. This collection comprises manuscripts Or. 5591 - Or. 5739. A short description and provenance is given in the Inventory as follows: '149 manuscripts originating from an indigenous shaykh in Banten, who was under suspicion of heretical convictions. Received on 28 July 1906 from Prof. Dr. C. Snouck Hurgronje.' Or. 7935 j, below, also comes from this collection.

Snouck Hurgronje had found these manuscripts in or around 1890 in Serang, where they had been deposited after having been confiscated and where they had been stored already for quite a while when he found them. This becomes clear from a letter (now in the Snouck Hurgronje Archive, Or. 8952, below), by C. Snouck Hurgronje to M.J. de Goeje, dated The Hague July 11, 1906, which reads as follows:

'Den Haag, Laurens Reaelstr. 2
Hooggeachte vriend,
Eindelijk heb ik de boeken enz., die ik uit Indië meebracht, kunnen uitpakken. Daaronder bevindt zich eene verzameling, deels Arab. deels Jav. hss. (in Arab. schrift) die vele jaren geleden te Serang (Banten) in bewaring werden genomen en die ik vóór 16 jaren van daar meenam naar Batavia. De meeste, zoo niet alle, zijn van godsdienstigen aard en werden in beslag genomen bij een voornaam Inlander, dien men van antigouvernementeele agitatie verdacht.
Toen ik ze te Serang aantrof, hadden zij daar reeds jaren lang geheel verwaarloosd gelegen, zoodat sporen van vocht, insecten enz. in ruime mate te constateeren vielen. Daarbij komt nog, dat de inkt, waarmee sommige geschreven zijn, vitrioolhoudend was en allengs door het papier heen gevreten heeft.
Nadat ik destijds de collectie vluchtig onderzocht had, vooral om te zien of daarin iets te vinden was van actueel belang voor de Bantensche toestanden, bleef zij bij mij zo goed als onbenut. Het komt mij voor, dat zij het best bij de Leidsche handschriftenverzameling in te lijven waren, althans voor zoover zij nog voor bewaring in aanmerking komen. Dit zal eerst bij gezette schifting kunnen blijken.
Denkt U er ook zoo over, dan zal ik ze in eene kist aan het door U op te geven adres verzenden, met vriendelijk verzoek de kist zelve voorloopig voor mij in bewaring te willen doen houden totdat ik er nader over zal kunnen beschikken, en de manuscripten te nemen voor hetgeen zij zijn. Misschien is er wel een enkel tusschen geraakt, dat niet uit Banten afkomstig is, maar de tijd ontbreekt mij thans om dit behoorlijk na te gaan.

De ministerieele missive heb ik in dank van U terug ontvangen.
Uw
C. Snouck Hurgronje'

¶ The collection manuscripts have been roughly arranged into three groups, according to the main language: 1. Javanese (Or. 5591-5621), 2. Malay (Or. 5622-5655, with numerous Javanese texts, however), 3. Arabic (Or. 5656-5738). The last manuscript mentioned in the 'Journaal', Or. 5739, is a text in Dakhini, with some Persian, from Pondichéry, India. It is not certain that Or. 5739 was ever part of the Banten collection, and it may have become mixed up with it at some stage, as Snouck Hurgronje in his above-mentioned letter holds possible. However, Or. 5739 shows a degree of fragility that is not unlike that state of the manuscripts in the Banten collection. The following contains a short-list of the entire Banten collection with all bibliographical references.

Or. 5591
Convolute manuscript, in Javanese, 46 pp.:
(1) pp. 1-27. Jayabaya. Javanese. See: Juynboll II, p. 114 (where wrongly given the class-mark Cod. 5355). Pigeaud II, p. 326.
(2) pp. 27-39. Shajarah, genealogy of Javanese kings. Romanized copy of this is Or. 10.679 and also BCB 161. Pigeaud II, pp. 326, 658.
(3) pp. 39-46. Chronology. Pigeaud II, p. 326.
(in Mal. 1147)

Or. 5658
Composite volume with texts in Arabic and Persian, dating: ca. 1700 (by Voorhoeve).
(1) ff. 1-118r: Collection of mystical poetry from Banten. Text in Arabic and Persian, with musical references. Extensive survey of the contents, with comparison to other, similar, manuscripts, in Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 456-457: 'Collections of mystical poetry, and poems in praise of the Prophet and saints. apparently used as textbooks for performances of dhikr. One MS has the Malay title Surat dikir, i.e. book of dhikr, and another: Dikir Besar, i.e. dhikr for the month of Dhu al-Higga. The poetry is closely related to that which is found in some rhymed Mawlid texts, and in the collections described under the titles Dhikr Rifa`i, and Ratib Rifa`i. The MSS described here may also have been used by members of the Rifa`iyya order, though there seems also to be some connection with the Qadiriyya. and there is some remote resemblance to the Dhikr Qadiri described by Ahlwardt, Cat. Berlin, No. 8256. Most of the poems are in Arabic, but some are in Persian and a few in Urdu, Tamil, Malay, and an unidentified (probably Indian) language. The contents of the various copies are not the same, but many poems are found in several copies, sometimes in the same order. All the poems are anonymous, and mostly introduced by the words qala rahmatu'llahi `alaihi, sometimes by the name of the melody. Three copies have an introduction, in which blessings are invoked from the shaykhs: `Abd al-Hadi al-Sudi (d. 932/1525; GAL, G II, 407), `Abd al-Qadir al-Gilani (d. 561/1167; GAL, G I, 435), `Abd Allah al Qadim Ba `Abbad, and Abu Bakr b. `Abd Allah al-`Aydarus (d. 909/1503; GAL, G II, 181). Some of al-Sudi's poems are included in the collections, but he is not the author of all or even most of the verses. L. Massignon has pointed out (in his 'Répertoire', in al-Andalus XIV p. 44 et sqq. and in Mélanges William Marçais p. 264 et sqq.) that some of the poems are by `Ali b. `Abdallah al-Shustari (d. 668/1269, GAL G I, 274). For the names of the melodies cf. E.I. s.v. Musiki, Ahlw. No. 8256 and the MS. of 'Cantica ramadhanica' described by Fleischer, Cat. Leipzig no. CCCXVII. All the copies were written in Indonesia, except perhaps MS Jakarta, KBG 70 Arab., which may have been imported into Indonesia from India.

The present MS is a copy from Banten; the second part of the MS contains the Malay Sharaf al-Anam (q. v.). Text in Arabic and Persian, with the introduction. A poem by al-Sudi (an-Nur as-Safir p. 180, first poem) on f. 38r. Many names of melodies: Nagham sigah, chahargah, panggah, `Iraq, Husayni, etc. Neatly written with black and red borderlines; well preserved.'.

Or. 5690
Arabic and Javanese. Convolute volume with texts on mystical theology. Treebark paper (dluang), ??? ff.
(1) ff. 1-33: A mukhtasar of Bidayat al-Hidaya by al-Ghazzali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 422. The beginning is missing. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 51.
(2) ff. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. ??
(3) ff. 33v-72r: Abbreviation, the first part only, of Asrar al-Salat wal-Tahara, taken from the Ihya `Ulum al-Din by al-Ghazali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 422. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 125, with an extensive discussion on the identification of this abbreviation.
(4) ff. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. ??
(5) ff. 59v-71r: Anonymous treatise on the Way to God, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.
(6) ff. 71v-78v. Kitab al-Ma`lumat, also called al-Ma`lum, al-Sutur, Fath al-Ghuyub and Miftah al-Ghuyub. Anonymous mystical treatise: Risala Mukhtasara fi Bidayat Qawa`id al-Sufiyya. This is the work from which the citation in the margin of Gawhar al-Daqa'iq, edited by C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, pp. 249 ff., has been taken. Beginning (after the basmala): al-Hamdu lillahi alladhi zahara bi Kashf Suturihi wa-batana bi-Sadid Zuhurihi, wal-Salat wal-Salam `ala Rasulihi Muhammadin Miftahi Umurihi wa-àla Alihi wa-Ashabihi Ahli Hamdihi wa-Shukurihi. I`lam anna al-Ma`lumat àla Thalathat Aqsam al-Wagib wal-`Adam al-Mumkin wal-`Adam al-Mahd ... See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 180-181. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese notes (?).
(7) ff. 79-86r: Anonymous treatise, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.
(8) ff. 86v-91v. Bayan al-Sirr. Anonymous mystical tract, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 48.
(9) ff. 91v-96v: Risala fil-Turuq (= al-Usul al-`Ashara), by Nagm al-Din Ahmad b. `Umar al-Kubra (d. 618/1221), GAL G I, 440. With interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 305.
(10) ff. 96v-103v: al-Tuhfa al-Mursala ila Ruh al-Nabi, by Muhammad b. Fadl Allah al-Burhanpuri (d. 1029/1620), GAL G II, 418. With interlinear glosses in Javanese. See for a poetical version Or. 5594 (4), above. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 380.
(10a) ff. 103v-104v: Some sayings of al-imam al-Safari against the rawafid. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 454.
(11) ff. 104v-113r: Daqa'iq a al-Haqa'iq. Anonymous tract on the creation, death and eschatology. The same text as MS Calcutta, Catalogue Ivanow-Hidayat Husain, No. 814. According to Brockelmann, GAL S I, 923, a copy in the Asafiyya Library in Hyderabad mentions Fakhr al-Din al-Razi as the author, and the same attribution is found in a printed text with Urdu translation (Calcutta, n.d., but after 1847 [845 D 1], and probably a reprint of the edition Calcutta 1846, mentioned by J.F. Blumhardt, Catalogue of Hindustani books IOL, p. 257). Nur al-Din al-Raniri mentions this work together with al-Durra al-Fakhira as written by al-Ghazzali (see P. Voorhoeve, 'Three old Achehnese Manuscripts', in BSOAS 14 (1952), pp. 335-345, esp. p. 342. It is identical with Ahwal al-Qiyama, edited by M. Wolff (Muhammedanische Eschatologie. Nach der Leipziger und der Dresdner Handschrift zum ersten Male arabisch und deutsch mit Anmerkungen hrsg. von M. Wolff. Leipzig 1872 [844 D 22]). Concerning the titles under which it is known and the various authors to which it is ascribed, see GAL S I, 346 (but the statement that al-Taftazani is quoted in it is erroneous), and G. Levi della Vida, Elenco ... Vat., No. 242. Voorhoeve did not find any manuscript in the catalogues which was older than 866 AH (Berlin, Ahlwardt 2780). In the IOL manuscript and in the Calcutta edition, the part found in Wolff's edition, p. 73, line 5 – p. 104, line 4, is missing. In the two Leiden copies from Java (the present MS and Or. 7164 (6), below), the lacuna at the same place is even larger. The present copy is evoid of interlinear notes. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 57.

(12) ff. 113r-114r. Anonymous commentary on sura 41:53 (al-Maglis al-A`la). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 176.
(13) ff. 114v-117r: Anonymous treatise on `ishq - `ashiq - ma`shuq. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.
(14) ff. 117v-118r: K. Magnun Allah. Anonymous treatise on Fana', Salat Da'im and mystical frenzy. Another copy is in London, IOL, Loth 1047 (III). The last part only. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 178-179.
(15a) ff. 118v-119v: Notes on shahada and questions about Iblis. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 453.
(15b) ff. 119r-v: Inzal al-Ruh. A short treatise about the origin of Ruh by an author who in some copies is called `Abd al-Da`if, but in other copies more correctly `Abduhu al-Da`if or `Abd Allah al-Da`if. MS London, IOL, No. 2446, ff. 201v-205r, contains a Javanese translation of the text. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 131.
(16) ff. 120r-141v. Ma`din al-Ma`lum wa-Muzil al-Humum. Anonymous, probably an abridgment of `Aga'ib al-Malakut by Muhammad b. `Abd al-Malik (or `Abdallah) al-Kisa'i (5/11th cent.), GAL G I, 350. With glosses in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 3, 174.
(17) ff. 141v-142v: Quotations on the subject of the difference between Nubuwwa and Risala, from Kitab al-Mafatih, which is not Kitab Mafatih al-Ghayb by Ibn al-`Arabi but Kitab Mafatih al-Ghayb by Fakhr al-Din al-Razi (d. 606/1209), GAL G I, 507. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 175.
(18) ff. 142v-145v: `Arsh al-Muwahhidin. Anonymous tract about salat. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 23.
(19) ff. 145v-147v: Short exposition on faith. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 453.
¶ Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 319, gives for Or. 5690 (8): Fath al-Rahman bi-Sharh Risalat al-Wali Raslan, commentary by Zakariya' b. Muhammad al-Ansari (d. 926/1520), on Risalat al-Tawhid by Raslan b. Ya`qub b. `Abd al-Rahman al-Ga`bari al-Dimashqi (d. c. 695/1296), GAL G I, 452. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 319. Or. 5714
Arabic with some Malay and Javanese, European paper, 184 ff.
Commentary by Sa`d al-Din Mas`ud b. `Umar al-Taftazani (d. 792/1390) on al-`Aqa'id by Nagm al-Din `Umar b. Muhammad al-Nasafi (d. 537/1142), GAL G I, 427. Complete, but badly damaged, with some notes in Malay and Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 17, where an attempt to date the MS to ca. 1600 AD on the basis of a watermark.

¶ In 1954 two leaves from a Malay work on Tarasul were found in the present volume and separately registered. These are now Or. 8537, below.
Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

Or. 5716
Arabic and Javanese, Sundanese??, paper, 78 double pp.
(1) ff. 1v-43v: Fusus al-Hikam, by Muhyi al-Din Ibn al-`Arabi (d. 638/1240), GAL G I, 442. Complete text of a somewhat shorter version. With interlinear translation in Javanese. Heavily damaged and almost illegible by corrosion of the ink. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 86.
(1a) On p. 48 verso: Genealogy of the Banten sultan Haggi Abul-Nasr al-Qahhar. See Pigeaud II, p. 336.
(2) pp. 51-76: al-Muntaha, which is a Javanese version of a Malay treatise (by the same name?) by Hamza Fansuri. See Pigeaud II, p. 336. Other information gives this number as the Javanese translation of a work by al-Raniri, namely the Tibyan, and it was used by P. Voorhoeve in his apparatus criticus (MS J) for his Twee Maleise geschriften van Nuruddin ar-Raniri, Leiden 1955, p. 25. See also Or. 7291 (6), below.

Mawlid (or Mawlud) Sharaf al-Anam. Anonymous, but sometimes (however, not in the Leiden MSS) ascribed to all Bukhari, cf. GAL S II, 1000, No. 42. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 207-208.

(Ar. 2528)

Or. 5719
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, with Malay and Javanese. A 17th cent. manuscript.
(1) ff. 1v-25r. al-Mufid. An anonymous commentary on Umm al-Barahin by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250. Erroneously identified by Brockelmann as the commentary by al-Tilimsani. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 387-388, where the incipit, and also references to other manuscripts of this text in Jakarta and London are given. See also the remark at Or. 10.885, below.
(2) ff. 25v-76v: Commentary by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250, on his own Umm al-Barahin. With Malay and Javanese notes on the fly-leaves. At the end quotations from Sharh al-Hikam, Rawd al-`Arifin and other works. Dated 1080 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 387.
Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).
(Ar. 2529)

Or. 5720
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Javanese, Sundanese??, European paper, 221 ff., paper covers.
(1) ff. 1a-27a. al-Miftah fi Sharh Ma`rifat al-Islam, anonymous commentary on Bab Ma`rifat al-Islam wal-Iman, which is anonymous theological tract, very common in Indonesia. Title on f. 27r. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 195, where also references to MSS in Jakarta and Paris, BNF, mal.pol. 35 (which latter MS has an author: Ahmad b. Shaykh al-Islam). In the beginning, the paper is heavily damaged with considerable loss of text. Matn written in red ink. At the end an owner's note in Javanese.
(2) ff. 27v-58v. Ta`liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas'ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342. Titles on f. 27v. Matn in red ink. The text ending on f. 54b continues on f. 57b.
(2a) ff. 55r-57r. Collection of shorter religious texts and fragments in Javanese. Also notes on the Islamic lunar calendar, all written in several different hands. This section not mentioned in Pigeaud III, p. 336.
(3) ff. 59r-61v. Complete copy of Sharh Kalimatay al-Shahada, commentary on Risalat Kalimatay al-Shahada. This is the title given by Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement to the catalogue of the Arabic manuscripts preserved in the Museum of the Batavia Society of Arts and Sciences. Batavia, etc., 1913, Nos. 223-225, to a small anonymous tract on the meaning of the two terms of the Islamic confession of faith. With glosses in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 315-316. Matn written in red ink.
(4) ff. 62r-80r. Disconnected parts of al-Muharrar by al-Rafi`i (d. 623/1226), GAL G I, 393. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 225.
(4a) ff. 80v-81r. Notes, in Arabic, on matters on Tahara, ritual purity. Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.
(5) ff. 81v-185r. Disconnected parts of al-Muharrar by al-Rafi`i (d. 623/1226), GAL G I, 393. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 225. At the end (ff. 184v-185r) an Arabic du`a with Javanese heading (Punika dua nabi), apparently taken from a work entitled Riyad al-Salihin. With this latter text may be meant the work by Galal al-Din al-Suyuti (d. 911/1505), GAL G II, 143-158, S II, 178-198. See also No. 11, below.

(6) ff. 185v-204r. Arkan al-Nikah by Husayn b. Ahmad al-Mahfani, GAL S II, 628. Complete Arabic text, followed by some short notes. Dated 1141 AH (?). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 23.
(7) ff. 204v-205v: Asrar al-Qafi'i li-Ahl al-Rafi`i, by Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Shatiri Ba `Alawi al-Hadrami al-Shafi`i al-Ash`ari (author on f. 204v). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 28.
(8) ff. 206v-210r: Some eulogies from Dala'il al-Khayrat by al-Gazuli (d. 870/1465), GAL G II, 252. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 56. Here presented as a separate bibliographical entity, title on f. 210r.
(8a) ff. 210v-211r. A note, in Arabic, about the Adhan for the Friday prayer. Apparently taken from a work entitled Tagziyat al-`Ulum.
(9) ff. 211v-218r: The introductory chapter of Dala'il al-Khayrat by al-Gazuli (d. 870/1465), GAL G II, 252. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 56. Title on f. 211r. At the end (f. 218r) is the Sifat al-Rawda, with continuous text and without illustration.
(10) ff. 218v-221v: Prayers in Javanese interspersed with Arabic. Punika Syarh dua ... See Pigeaud II, p. 336.
(11) f. 221v. Bab al-Tawba, apparently also (see No. 5, above) taken from the work Riyad al-Salihin. Abrupt end.
See Edi S. Ekadjati, Naskah Sunda. Inventarisasi dan Pencatatan. Bandung 1988, pp. 235-236.
(Ar. 2530)

Or. 5720a
Arabic and Javanese (or Malay?) , paper, 8 ff., naskh script.
Prayer, Du`a'. Mainly in Arabic, but here and there words in an Indonesian language can be discerned. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 67. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).
[* in Ar. 2530]

Or. 5720b
Arabic, Malay, paper, 1 f., naskh script.
One leaf containing a fragment of an mystical Qasida in Arabic, in the basit metre, rhyming in ta', with interlinear word for word translation in Malay (old orthography, with three dots under some d's). In all, nine distichs are given. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 460. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

Or. 5721
Collective volume with texts in Arabic,
(1) ff. ?-?. al-Mufid. An anonymous commentary on Umm al-Barahin by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250. Erroneously identified by Brockelmann as the commentary by al-Tilimsani. Copy from Java. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 387-388, where the incipit, and also references to other manuscripts of this text in Jakarta and London are given.

(2) ff. ?-?. Commentary by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250, on his own Umm al-Barahin. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 387.
(Ar. 2531)

Or. 5722
Arabic.
(1) ff. ?-?: Ta`liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas'ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342.
(2) ff. 6v-23r: Targhib al-A`mal fi Bayan Kayfiyyat al-Salat. Anonymous mystical treatise. All MSS in Leiden come from Indonesia, and so does MS Berlin, Schöm. XI, 1, Ahlwardt 3550. The beginning is similar to that of `Arsh al-Muwahhidin. A nearly complete copy. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 369.
(Ar. 2532)

Collective volume with texts in Acehnese, Malay and Arabic.
- ff. 12v-13r. Du`a' tulak bala. See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (1994), pp. 212, 263. It is not altogether certain that this MS was originally part of the Banten collection. It may somehow have become mixed up with the Banten collection after that had been seized, and was then offered to the Leiden library by C. Snouck Hurgronje. See also Voorhoeve's discussion on the provenance of Or. 5635, above.
- 33 ff. Hizb al-Bahr, commonly ascribed to Abu al-Hasan b. `Abdallah al-Shadhili (d. 656/1258), GAL G I, 449. However, in this MS it is stated that the author is not the Sufi shaykh who died in Mukha but his namesake who died in Sham. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 117.
- With other pieces in Arabic and Acehnese for recitation, and notes in Malay, from al-Shaykh `Abdallah b. `Ali al-Makki, dated 1268 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 117.
(3) pp. ?-?: Du`a'. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 67.
Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).
(Ar. 2533)

Or. 5724
Arabic (and Persian?, with Malay notes?), paper, 54 ff.
A fragment of an abridged recension of Dikir Besar, on Dhikr. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 458, where remarks about the relationship with another version. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

Arabic. European paper, 23 ff.
Mukhtasar fi `Ilm al-Nahw, or Taqwim al-Lisan. Anonymous. 19th. Cent.?. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 228.

(Ar. 2535)

Or. 5726
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Javanese, Sundanese??, European paper, 80 ff., 19th cent. (No. 3).
(1) ff. 2v-8v. Bayan al-Alif. Anonymous mystical tract. See also, H. Kraemer, Een Javaansche primbon, p. 79, note 2 (probably referring to a Javanese translation of this text). The Arabic text with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43.
(2) ff. 8v-12v: Bab Sakarat al-Mawt. Anonymous, Arabic. With interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 325.
(3) ff. 12v-18v: Bayan al-Ruh. Anonymous, Arabic, with Javanese interlinear translation. Beginning: wa-in su'ilta kayfa Sifat al-Ruh... See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 47.
(4) ff. 18v-27v: Bab fi Bayan Haqiqat al-Salat wal-Shahada wal-Sakarat. Anonymous. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 45.
(5) ff. 27v-32v: Bab Ma`rifat al-Din min al-Din al-Ghayr, anonymous collection of mystical sayings. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 194.
(6) ff. 32v-41v. Kitab Bayan Allah fi Ma`rifat Bayan min Kull Bayan, by Yusuf b. Muhammad Makkiyya, or at least ascribed to an author of that name. It is a tract on pantheistic mysticism, for the most part consisting of statements by God, the Prophet Muhammad and teachers of mysticism, one of them the author himself. See also C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, p. 397, note 37, who by mistake has cut the title in two and speaks of two tracts. The Malay poem Tuan di Mekah in C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, op. cit., p. 385 is not by the present author but probably by Hamza Fansuri. The present tract is clearly of Indonesian origin as all the manuscripts come from Indonesia and the Arabic is unidiomatic. Another MS is in London, India Office, Loth 1046, VIII. With interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43-44.
(7) ff. 41v-44v: On the synod of the Javanese saints in Giri Kadaton. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(8) ff. 45r-50r: Schematic figures. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(9) ff. 50v-52r: On gusti-kawula mystic relations. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(10) f. 52v: List of Sri Puwahacis. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(11) ff. 54-59r: Schematic tables, theology. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(12) ff. 59-61r: On the seven *martabat*s. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(13) ff. 61r-64r: Qulub al-`Arifin, a tract on mysticism. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
(14) ff. 65r-68v. Fragments of a Javanese translation of Fragments only of Kitab al-Haraka, a work which is now lost, by Shams al-Din b. (Abi) `Abdallah al-Samatra'i (d. 1039/1630), see C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu'l-Din van Pasai. Leiden 1945. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 108-109.

(15) ff. 65-80: Parts of various treatises on theology, in disorder. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.

(1) ff. ?-?: Ta`liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas'ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342.
(2) ff. 8v-12v: (4) ff. 34v-38v: Bab Sakarat al-Mawt. Anonymous. European paper, with (?) interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 325.
(3) ff. ??-?? Bahgat al-`Ulum, anonymous commentary on Bayan `Aqidat al-Usul, or: Masa'il, by Abu al-Layth Muhammad b. Abi Nasr b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi, who seems to be identical with Abu al-Layth Nasr b. Muhammad b. Ahmad b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi (4th cent.), GAL G I, 196. This catechism, one of the most popular religious textbooks in Indonesia, is mentioned twice by Brockelmann under different titles (Nos. 6 and 7). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 44-45 (the reference to this MS corrected in the interleaved copy (opposite p. 45) of the Handlist, kept in the Legatum Warnerianum).
(4) ff. ??-??. al-Miftah fi Sharh Ma`rifat al-Islam, anonymous commentary on Bab Ma`rifat al-Islam wal-Iman, which is anonymous theological tract, very common in Indonesia.. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 195, where also references to MSS in Jakarta and Paris, BNF, mal.pol. 35 (which latter MS has an author: Ahmad b. Shaykh al-Islam.

Arabic, with Javanese, Malay and Sundanese. Fragments.
Pigeaud II, pp. 337-338, describes the contents: Fragments of Arabic, Malay and Javanese treatises on mysticism, theology, fiqh, with some Arabic charms ... and two Sundanese notes.
(a) Malay. Syair.
(b) Javanese. Fragments on mysticism.
(c1) Javanese (?).
(c2) ff. 4v-14r. Kitab al-Ma`lumat, also called al-Ma`lum, al-Sutur, Fath al-Ghuyub and Miftah al-Ghuyub. Anonymous mystical treatise: Risala Mukhtasara fi Bidayat Qawa`id al-Sufiyya. This is the work from which the citation in the margin of Gawhar al-Daqa'iq, edited by C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, pp. 249 ff., has been taken. Beginning (after the basmala): *al-Hamdu lillahi alladhi zahara bi Kashf Suturihi wa-batana bi-Sadid Zuhurihi, wal-Salat wal-Salam `ala Rasulihi Muhammadin Miftahi Umurihi wa-àla Alihi wa-Ashabihi Ahli Hamdihi wa-Shukurihi. (d) ff. 32. Collection of mystical poetry. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 458.
(e) ff. 3. Fragment, the end only, of Kitab Bayan Allah fi Ma`rifat Bayan min Kull Bayan, by Yusuf b. Muhammad Makkiyya, or at least ascribed to an author of that name. It is a tract on pantheistic mysticism, for the most part consisting of statements by God, the Prophet Muhammad and teachers of mysticism, one of them the author himself. See also C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, p. 397, note 37, who by mistake has cut the title in two and speaks of two tracts. The Malay poem Tuan di Mekah in C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, op. cit., p. 385 is not by the present author but probably by Hamza Fansuri. The present tract is clearly of Indonesian origin as all the manuscripts come from Indonesia and the Arabic is unidiomatic. Another MS is in London, India Office, Loth 1046, VIII. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43-44.
(f) ff. 8. Fragment of a mystical work in the style of Ahmad al-Qushashi and Ibrahim al-Kurani. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 466. With reference to Voorhoeve's Handlist, pp. 466-467, Iskander identifies this text as a mystical treatise, abouth dhikr, by `Abd al-Rauf b. `Ali al-Gawi.

(g) Malay. 6 ff. Several fragments: Isim Allah. Isim Nabi. Haqiqat Sembahyang. The beginning only of Asrar al-Insan fi Ma`rifat al-Ruh wal-Rahman, by Nur al-Din al-Raniri.
(h) Malay. 17 ff. Sifat duapuluh (beginning missing). Ma`na dua kalima syahadat yang terlebih baik diamalkan.
(i) Javanese.
(j) Javanese, Arabic.
(k) Malay. 1 f. Membedil.
(l) This fragment was transferred to Or. 5658, above, where it belonged.
(m) Makay. `Aqida. A fragment only.
(n) Arabic. ff. 7. Various fragments from works on fiqh. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 448.
(o) Arabic, Javanese.
(p) Malay, 6 + 2 ff. Kitab Kanz al-`Arifin, about the letters in the names of God and the Prophet Muhammad, and in the shahada. Followed by Sifat duapuluh.
(q) ff. 8. Fragment, the first part only of a collection of mystical sayings. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 465.
(r) ff. ?-?: `Azima. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 34.
(s) Sundanese.
(t) Sundanese.

Dakhini (Dakni), and Persian. European paper, in safina style, kept in a (too large) red textile sack, ff., ?? script, text in 2 columns.
(1) Panchi bâcâ by Wagdi (= Wagh al-Din). Dakhini (Dakni) translation of the Persian Mantiq al-Tayr by Farid al-Din `Attar (d. after 586/1190). The headings for the episodes are in Persian, written in red ink. Copied in Pondichéry 1207 (1792). Colophon in Persian: copied on 5 Rabi` I 1207 by Mirza Ni`mat Allah Beg, son of Muhammad Baqir, on Monday, at daybreak in the town of Phulichary in the house of Patan Mistri Farsangi. According to an English description of the text (loosely added to the MS), the translator would be Wajahuddin. See also Garcin de Tassy, Histoire de la littérature hindoue, III, p. 278. His manuscript also comes from Pondichéry.
(2) Shorter poetical texts, (also in Dakhini?).
According to P. Voorhoeve, 'Indonesische handschriften' (1952), p. 212, this MS may have been mixed-up with the Banten collection, and may have come from another source. Snouck Hurgronje may have purchased it in Batavia, and it is even not absolutely certain that the manuscript ever belonged to Snouck Hurgronje.

Or. 5789 a
Collective volume with texts in Javanese, paper, 50 pp., Javanese script.
(1) pp. 1-42. Tale of Aji Saka, in verse. He is the grandson of begawan Kures, of Medinah, who settled in Mesir. Aji Saka is given supernatural power by the dragon Antaboga. He meets bhatara Guru, together they go to see Muhammad in Arab. Muhammad's four sekabat Abu-Bakar, Usman, Umar and Ali are described (p. 14) respectively as a singing santri dul, as a mendicant preacher, as bestowing gifts and as a warrior in the prang sabil (holy war). Aji Saka follows the four sekabat, as they are ordered by Muhammad to visit the well Jamjam (Zamzam) to find out why its water is stinking. On the way Aji Saka meets Iblis Juja-Makjuja who gives him supernatural power and knowledge and so makes him a servant of Satan. Returning to Muhammad he is told that he is Muhammad's antipode (timbangan). He is given the name Aji Saka, and instruction in chronology and divination (naptu, naqt, numerical values of days: p. 24-30). Aji Saka is sent away and ordered to go to Java, with many instructions and prophecies. Abu Bakar will come to Java (Japara, Mantingan, central North Coast) to introduce the santri dul practices (dikir, singing, dancing). Aji Saka chooses one servant (sekabat) out of two. His name is Ana (the beginning of the Javanese alphabet). The other one, Alip, is Muhammad's servant. Ana and Alip kill each other because of Aji Saka's knife (parrot), and disappear. Aji Saka and Muhammad, looking for their servants, meet again. They find on the place of the combat under a tree, called Ajir by Muhammad, two leaves, one with the 30 Arabic letters and the other with the 20 Javanese ones written on them. Aji Saka flies over the ocean to Java: list of the Javanese *mangsa*s (months) and constellations (lintang, astronomy, p. 38), and a list of birds. He arrives in Java in the year 1 (konir wuk datanpa jalu) and settles in the Kendeng hills (North Coast), as King of Medang Kamulan. Transcription of a text written in Arabic script, bad spelling. Origin: Central North Coast, 19th century, based on old popular traditions. See also Or. 5790, below.

(2) pp. 42-43. Sangkala, years, with reference to mountains of Central and East Java, in verse.
(3) pp. 43-49. Tale of Ratu Baka, in verse. The king orders his two young servants Sir and Wenda to pull out a waringin tree each and to plant them, one on mount Lawu and the other on mount Merapi, to enclose on both sides the Royal residences of Surakarta and Mataram. Moreover Sir is ordered to dam the Surakarta river (Bengawan). Incomplete. Origin: Central Java.
(4) p. 49. Note, in verse, on the *naptu*s (numeral values) of months and days, for divination.

Or. 5801 - Or. 5816
Arabic, Persian, Turkish and Armenian manuscripts, purchased in July 1913 from Mr. Kramp. There are two interesting earlier provenances discernable for this collection.
- Muchlinsky: Or. 5801, Or. 5802, Or. 5804, Or. 5805. He may be the Antoni Muchlinsky, who wrote an etymological dictionary of words of Turkish origin that entered the Polish language (Petersburg 1858 [8008 E 8]). See on another manuscript originating from him M.J. de Goeje in the preface (p. viii) to BGA 7 (1892), on al-Ya`qubi's Kitab al-Buldan and on the Library in Munich.
- A.I. Silvestre de Sacy (1758-1838): Or. 5807, Or. 5808, Or. 5809. The manuscripts of Silvestre de Sacy have also been in the possession of a certain 'Le Ch. Ferrão de Castelbranco. 70. Avenue des Champs-Elysées'.
- The Munshi of William Moorcroft (d. 1825) is represented with two copies of his travelogue from Attock to Bukhara and back: Or. 5811, Or. 5812. These may have been his own copies.

Or. 5801
Persian, with some Turkish, paper, 93 ff., naskh script, dated Monday in end Gumada I 1020, copied by Dilawar b. Inhan Beg Bakuradalni (?), in Bilghrad (Belgrade, colophon on f. 93b, with copyist verse in Persian), full-leather Islamic binding, flap loose, with blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallions).
Baharistan by `Abd al-Rahman Gami (d. 891 AH).
- On ff. 1a-3a notes, quotations, etc. Also lines by Hafiz, and on ff. 2b-3a an owner's mark in Turkish by Tufengi Yamaghi Yahya Mir, dated 1217 AH, and some Turkish poetry written by this owner.
Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: '105. Muchlinsky. 111'. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: 'Baharistan Gami. Le Beharistan de Djamy. man. persan', and another number: '69.
[* Ar. 2557]

Or. 5802
Persian, paper, 141 ff., nasta`liq script, leather Islamic binding, now covered with green silk, leather doublure.
Bustan, by Sa`di Shirazi (d. 691/1292).
- On f. 1a a recipe.

Earlier provenance: A label on the front cover says: ‘93. Muchlinsky. 111’. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: ‘Bustan-i Sa`di. Le Boustan de Sa’adi. M. per., and another number: ‘14’.
[* Ar. 2558]

Or. 5803
Arabic, Persian, with some Turkish, paper, 97 ff., naskh script, half-leather Islamic binding, pasted boards, text on spine illegible.
Nisab-i Sibyan. Arabic-Persian dictionary, metrically composed, by Abu Nasr al-Farahi (8/14th cent.), GAL G II, 193. With Turkish glosses. Not in Voorhoeve’s Handlist.
- On f. 97a a text in Turkish, in diwani script.
[* Ar. 2559]

Or. 5804
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, Turkish and Persian, paper, 76 ff. (no ff. 46-61), nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding, with blind tooled ornamentation (borders). The Arabic texts in the volume are not in Voorhoeve’s Handlist.
(1) ff. 1b-2a. Shorter notes. Also a medical recipe in Turkish.
(2) ff. 2b-10a. Arabic. Istinzal al-Nasr bil-Tawassul bi-Ahl Badr, urguza ascribed to Ahmad b. al-Husayn al-Mutanabbi (d. 354/965), GAL G I, 86; GAS II, 484-497, where there is no mention of this text. The names of the Badriyyun are distinguished by red overlining. The present poem is in fact an easy-going Urguza containing the names of the participants in the battle of Badr, which were collected here for the magical properties. It is hardly possible to assume that al-Mutanabbi would be the author.
(3) ff. 11b-14a. Arabic. al-Qasida al-Mudariyya fi al-Salat `ala Khayr al-Bariyya by Muhammad b. Sa`id al-Busiri (d. 694/1294), GAL G I, 267.
(4) ff. 15b-18b. Turkish. Qasida of religious content, rhyming in –an. Unidentified.
(5) ff. 19b-.42b. Amthal. Collection of Arabic proverbs, alphabetically arranged, with extensive commentary in Turkish for each proverb or saying.
(6) f. 43a. A loose leaf, added to the volume. Lines of Turkish poetry by Ishaq Efendi.
(7) ff. 44b-45b, 62a (no ff. 46-61 in the volume). Lines of poetry, in Turkish and Persian. Also: Mufradat-i Baqi Efendi (ff. 45b-62a).
(8) f. 69b. A note in Arabic on calligraphy and the famous calligraphers.
(9) ff. 70b-71a. Turkish. Collection of poetical lines, brought together in connection with powerful names. Unidentified.
(10) ff. 71b-73b. Copies of poetical and prose correspondence. A chronogram by Samih Efendi for Qa’immaqam Sulayman Pasha (f. 71b), with date 1188 AH. Also mention of 1168 AH and 1157 AH (f. 72b). One letter signed by Gangdar (?) Ahmad `Abd al-Baqi `Arif, al-Qadi bi-Misr.
(11) f. 74b. Poem in Arabic by As`ad Efendi for Khalid Efendi.
(12) f. 75b. Lines of Turkish poetry.
(13) f. 76b. Persian poetry, by Nahifi.

Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: ‘60. Muchlinsky. 111’. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: ‘Magmu`a-yi Qasa’id. Recueil de poèmes turcs’, and another number: ‘198’.
[* Ar. 2560]

Or. 5805
Collective volume with texts in Turkish, with some Arabic and Persian, paper, 110 ff., naskh script, illumined double openings on ff. 2b-3a, 16b-17a, full-leather Islamic binding with blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallion). Table of contents for the volume on f. 2a, but only titles 1 and 2 of this table are present in the volume. The other titles are: 3. Futuwwatnama (also in the lower edge), 4. Hawra Sharhi (possibly a commentary on al-Hawra’ fi Sharh al-Zawra’, commentary by Muhammad b. As`ad al-Dawwani (d. 907/1501), GAL G II, 218, on his own al-Zawra’, or Risalat al-Zawra’), 5. Rasukhi Ghazaliyyatin Sharhi.
(1) ff. 2b-16a. Hazrat `Umar Faruqin Abu Shahma (?) Mansaba-si (?), possibly followed by other shorter texts. Mystical treatise, possibly lacunous (between ff. 11-12) and in disorder (also several blank pages). On ff. 10a-11 is the Arabic text of Khutbat Adam, the Sermon of Adam, which is not in Voorhoeve’s Handlist.
(2) ff. 16b-110a. Garida-yi Mathnawi. Selected lines taken from the Persian Mathnawi-yi Ma`nawi by Galal al-Din Rumi (d. 672/1273), with commentary in Turkish. Detailed table of contents on f. 1b, giving the themes treated in this selection, beginning with Kitman al-Sirr.
Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: ‘38. Muchlinsky. 111’. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: ‘Magmu`a-yi Khawass. Traité mystique’, and another number: ‘88.

The third volume only of the Iqbalnama-yi Gahangiri, composed in 1029/1620 by Muhammad Sharif, known as Mu`tamadkhan (d. 1049/1639). Identified with MS London, IOL 247 (catalogue Ethé cols. 121-122, No. 314, who mentions editions Calcutta 1865 and Lucknow 1286 AH). Text possibly incomplete at the end.
Earlier provenance: Owner’s mark by George A. Rigby, Novr. 18th, 1809 (fly-leaf at end).
[* Ar. 2562]

Or. 5807
Turkish, paper, 1 + 127 ff., naskh script, oldest owner’s mark is dated 1144 AH (front leaf), full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornament (medallion), rebacked. On the spine: ‘Des Origines des Choses. MS. Turc.’ Also on the spine a label with ‘392’.

Kitab-i Awwaliyyat (Kitab-i Evveleiat), a Turkish compilation of the genre Awa'il books. Alphabetically arranged. As translator or Turkish compiler is mentioned on f. 1a: Duqakin-zada (?). The text is preceded by a table of contents, with reference to the folio numbers. At the end (f. 125a) the Arabic sources are given, Awa'il Shibli, Awa'il Suyuti, etc. Prints of an elaborately designed waqf seal.
- On f. 125b are Qur'anic statistics, the number of sura's (114), the number of ayat (6666), the number of words (77409), the number of letters (235531), with a break down for each letter of the Arabic alphabet.
Earlier provenance: In the front cover is two paste-ins with owners'names:
- 'M. Silvestre de Sacy No. 333'. He is, of course, the famous French orientalist A.I. Silvestre de Sacy (1758-1838). The Leiden library had already a few manuscripts originating from his library (Or. 1603-Or. 1605, above).
- 'Le Ch. Ferrão de Castelbranco. 70. Avenue des Champs-Elysées'.
- Also inside the front cover a cutting from an antiquarian's catalogue or an auction catalogue, with No. 333. It does not come from Bibliothèque de M. le Baron Silvestre de Sacy. Paris 1842-1847, 3 vols. [2672 F 12-14 / Hotz 1902].

Persian, paper, 183 ff., shekaste script, some figures (pedigrees), full-leather European binding, with label on spine: 'Journey to Bokhara'. Drawings (map, pedigrees).
The neat copy of Ahwal-i Safar-i Bukhara, by Hafiz Fadil Khan, a secretary employed in the castle of Attock (east of Peshawar). Bukhara is mentioned in the title probably because it is the most western point in the journey. The present work describes a journey from Attock to Kashmir, Mast, Yarkand, Kashghar, Yakhgalan (residence of the king of China), then from Kashghar to Quqan (Khokand) in Ferghana, then further to Samarqand, Bukhara, from there to Balkh, Khalm, Kabul, Peshawar and back to Attock. The journey lasted from 27 Ragab 1227, 5 October 1812 AD till the end of Dhu al-Higga 1228, 16 December 1813 AD (f. 1b). The work is arranged in a schematical way, but without the gadwala of the draft copy. The columns indicate: 1. Nam-i Manzil (name of the locality); 2. Taraf (orientation); 3. Masafat (distance); 4. Ahwal (situation). Only the latter category allows for more elaborate descriptions and accounts. When these descriptions transcend the page, there are pages which are not provided with columns, but which contain text only. On f. 183a the end, with description of the castle of Atag. Or. 5812, below, is what seems to be the draft copy of the text, and the present text is a page-by-page copy of the draft.
- f. 23a. The date 26 October 1812 is mentioned.
- f. 47a. Map of a building or compound.

Or. 5812
Persian, paper, 184 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding with gilded ornaments (borders, fields), some figures (pedigrees, maps).
On the fly-leaf at the end is written in pencil: 'Route book and observations of Hafiz Fazil Khan, who accompanied Moorcroft 1812-1813'. With the later is meant the traveller William Moorcroft (d. 1825). The dating of the journey to 1812-1813 is a bit of a chronological problem, as Moorcroft only seems to have travelled in 1811-1812 and from 1819 till his death in 1825 [DNB 38, pp. 337-338].
The draft copy of Ahwal-i Safar-i Bukhara, by Hafiz Fadil Khan, a secretary employed in the castle of Attock (east of Peshawar). Bukhara is mentioned in the title probably because it is the most western point in the journey. The present work describes a journey from Atag to Kashmir, Mast, Yarkand, Kashghar, Yakhgalan (residence of the king of China), then from Kashghar to Quqan (Khokand) in Ferghana, then to Samarqand, Bukhara, then to Balkh, Khalm, Kabul, Peshawar and back to Attock. The journey lasted from 27 Ragab 1227, 5 October 1812 till the end of Dhu al-Higga 1228, 16 December 1813 (f. 1b). The work is arranged as a table with columns (with gadwala). These indicate: 1. Nam-i Manzil (name of the locality); 2. Taraf (orientation); 3. Masafat (distance); 4. Ahwal (situation). Only the latter category allows for more elaborate descriptions and accounts. When these descriptions transcend the page, there are pages which are not provided with columns, but which contain text only. On f. 183a the end, with description of the castle of Attock. Or. 5811, above, is what seems to be the neat copy of the text.
- f. 94b. Drawing of Bukhara.

Or. 5829
Mandailing and Angkola Batak popular stories in the van Ophuijsen collection (these are contained in Or. 5829, Or. 5831, Or. 5846 – Or. 5893, Or. 6038 and Or. 6041).
Two school reading books, each consisting of three parts. The first almost exclusively contains versions of real Batak stories, whereas the second only contain a few of these.
A. Djagar Simartampoewa, by Baginda Radja, a teacher in Goenoeng Baringin.
(A - 1st part):
I. Corresponds with OVB 24C.
II. Three types which have been employed under the condition that they do scratch themselves, each devise a story which must enable them to scratch themselves.
III. As in OVB 20 QRS.
IV. As in OVB 197C.
V. As in OVB 39 A.
VI. As in OVB 62.
VII. About a stupid man who first comes into the civilised world (more or less as the Simalungun story of the Sinumbah Pardagangan. See Codices Batacici, p. 306, Aanhangsel 7).
VIII. As in OVB 28.
IX. As in OVB 66 (horse thief).
X. More or less as in OVB 202. A man always brings much food to his home coming from a feast, but somehow he always loses it.
(A – 2nd part):
I. A girl marries a donkey who is dressed up like a haji. When she finds out the fraud after three years she has him clubbed dead.
II. As in OVB 60, but the end is different: the poison of the cactus tree is in the young sprouts. They let the poison drip on another branch, and that is how the tree becomes rotten and is blown down by a storm.
III. As in OVB 192 (but the story is op European origin: the thief steals the horst of the king by getting the guards drunk with a sopi).
IV. As in OVB 155.
V. A haroeting-fish, whose water is likely to dry up, prevents a snake and a monkey from drinking it by giving them beautiful names, and he prevents an old woman from catching him by giving her a medicine that will make her a virgin again. She is hit by lightning and the thunderstorm fills the lake with water. See also OVB 53.
VI. As in OVB 33.
VII. As in OVB 190 B.
VIII. A story about thieves who steal a tiger instead of a goat.
IX. Si Toemboek is forced to give back eyes and legs which his animals are supposed to have destroyed. He offers to give these when the one-eyed and one-legged persons give theirs for comparison.
X. As in OVB 186/187.
(A – 3rd part):

I. A man imagines how he will exchange 'tijferhouten' (pieces of wood, for tapping wine from palm trees) against chicken, the chicken against goats, the goats against cows, and the cows against a horse. He kills his son who maltreats the imaginary horse.
II. Two spupid men fix their belts to the horns of a sleeping stag as a sign of the right of property, then they start to quarrel about it. The stag wakes up and walks away with the belts.
III. As in OVB 198 D.
IV. As in OVB 194.
V. As in OVB 29 B, 38 D, 20 A.
VI. As in OVB 191; he takes the boat with chicken from the boatsmen and then abducts in it three girls.
VII. A rich man simulates to have died in order to test his heirs, and is almost beaten to death by them.
VIII. As in OVB 21 A (midget deer and bear), 20 HI.
IX. As in OVB 142 G.
X. As in OVB 20 O, 39 B2.
B. Roedang Parsaoelijan, by Soetan Endar Bongsoe, a head teacher in te Goenoeng-Baringin. He also wrote Or. 5846 – Or. 5849, below. Mostly phantasized stories or stories translated from other reading books. An excerpt is in Or. Or.12.475, below.
A few deserve separate mention:
Volume IB.
IV, as Djagar Simartampoewa 3,I.
VI. Oera-oera, as in OVB 39 D (man and turtle).
X. As in Djagar Simartampoewa 2,II, the final part only.
Volume IIA.
11 lessons, not folk stories. Even the midget deer stories Nos. X and XI are made up.
Volume IIB.
V. Ama ni Pandir, as in OVB 197 GF.
VI. As in Djagar Simartampoewa 2, X.
VII, As in Djagar Simartampoewa 3, IV.
VIII. Si Parmiskin, has to catch fish that bites with its tail (meaning: he has to bring the fish alive, hanging by its tail). Further as in OVB 188 F. He has to make the sea dry and promises to do so if his uncle closes the rivers.
X. De story about payment for the smelling of food, rhymed.
The language of these reading books is typically Mandailing Batak, with many anorganic h's and the like. In the handwriting of Baginda Radja the letters a and o can hardly be distinguished from one another.

Or. 5912
Collective volume with texts in Minangkabau Malay, paper, 25 ff., Latin script, copied by Kamilloedin galar Soetan Malenggang at Singkarak, dated 12 August 1892, exercise book 'No. 57'.
(1) ff. 1a-7b. Chabar Nasoha, Kaba Nasoha. The story of Nasoha, a Jewish evildoer who, accompanied by his wife, retires to a cave without taking any food with him to ask God's forgiveness. At first they live on the fruits of the forest, which eventually run out. Looking for food Nasoha finds a she-goat in kid. After the kid is born Nasoha and his wife live on the goat's milk. Their livestock increases and at last they become rich. God sends Gabriel to test Nasoha's faith. Gabriel comes to Nasoha in the shape of a young man, claims that he is the owner of the goat found by Nasoha, and reclaims everything, even what Nasoha has consumed. After Nasoha has complied with his demands Gabriel gives him back everything.
(2) ff. 8a-21b. Kaba Pakih Soetan, the story of Pakih Soetan, a prince who surpasses his teacher. Feeling offended the teacher sets the ruler against his sun. Pakih Soetan leaves the palace and on his way comes across a tiger which teaches him the art of fighting and a snake which gives him a wishing-ring. He arrives in a country where he goes to a place of worship where people are reciting the Qur'an. A palace-maiden hears Pakih Soetan reciting and tells princess Noeroel Alam of his beautiful voice. Every day Pakih Soetan is summoned to the palace. The princess refuses to marry her fiancé radjo Ange' Garang. Enraged her father beheads her. Repentant the ruler wants her to be revived and promises that she will be given in marriage to anyone who is able to revive her, but nobody proves capable of this. By divination it is known that Pakih Soetan is the one who has the power to do that. He is summoned to the palace, revives

Noeroel Alam and marries her. Meanwhile back in his own country, radjo Ange' Garang hears of the marriage of Noeroel Alam and Pakih Soetan, goes to war and is defeated by Pakih Soetan. Together with his wife, Pakih Soetan goes to see his parents. On his way he is chosen by a white elephant to become ruler of a kingless country. Back home Pakih Soetan finds his country reverted into a jungle, the palace has changed into stone. Through the magic of the ring everything reverts to its original form. He finds his parents again as traders in the market.
(3) ff. 22a-25a. Kaba Sija' Oleh. The story of a poor young man who lives with his mother and whose livelihood is fishing for prawns. One day he catches a burak bird stealing his prawns. He brings it home and it appears that the burak's droppings are pure gold. Sija' Oleh becomes rich and is invited by the ruler to stay in the palace to entertain the prince with his burak. One day the burak pecks at the pomegranate of the prince who begins to cry. Sija' Oleh asks the burak to fly the prince and him to the forest to find some fruits. On their way the prince discerns a palace and asks to be brought there. The palace is the residence of princess Satangkai Boenga, called so because she is as light as the stem of a flower. Every day the prince wants to be brought to the princess. The ruler finds out that the princess is growing heavier all the time and captures the prince. As he is going to be executed the burak saves him. Now the ruler asks the princess to choose her own husband. She finds the prince clad in old and dirty clothes and chooses him. They marry and the prince becomes the ruler of both countries.

PREFACE

The arrangement of the present volume of the Inventories of Oriental manuscripts in Leiden University Library does not differ in any specific way from the volumes which have been published earlier (vols. 5, 6, 12, 13, 14, 20, 22 and 25). For the sake of brevity I refer to my prefaces in those volumes. A few essentials my be repeated here.

Not all manuscripts mentioned in the present volume were viewed by autopsy. The sheer number of manuscripts makes this impossible. At a later stage this may be achieved, but trying to achieve this at the present stage of inventorizing would seriously hamper the progress of the present project. When a manuscript was not inspected this can be seen from a simple typographical device. Whenever the indication of the shelf-mark is put between round brackets, I have not, or not extensively or sufficiently, inspected the manuscript, and its entry in the inventory is based mostly or entirely on secondary sources, be they published or not. These have, of course, always been indicated. When the shelf-mark is put between square brackets and preceded by an asterisk, this means that I have had the manuscript in my hands, at least once but probably more often, and that the description contains elements that can only be seen in the original manuscript. Such autopsy does not mean that I am, automatically, the author of all information given under that particular class-mark.

The basic elements for each entry of the present inventory are: 1. class-mark, 2. language(s), 3. details of physical description, 4. survey of the contents, 5. provenance, 6. location on the shelf. Depending on the nature of the material, exceptions and divergences are made from this strict arrangement. The collective provenance of a series of manuscripts may be concentrated into a short text, preceding that series, without being repeated under each class-mark.

When Dr. P. Voorhoeve in 1946 took over responsibility for the Oriental collections in the Leiden Library he found a great number of as yet unregistered manuscripts in the office of his predecessor, Dr. C. van Arendonk. The latter had not been able to cope with the enormous influx of manuscripts, and more in particular the materials in the Snouck Hurgronje bequest, which entered the Library in 1936. Working away this back log had a high priority for Voorhoeve, but that meant that not all manuscripts were registered in an orderly or in an exact chronological way.

I end with an important note. Although the inventories which I am publishing here contain descriptions of public and private collections, which will no doubt profit of the existence of electronic versions of my work, none of my inventories has ever been made at the express insistence or by the specific demand of these institutions. The idea to compile such inventories, the invention of their structure, the acquisition of the necessary information from a multitude of primary and secondary sources, the way of publishing, all this is my idea and my work alone. It is therefore my sole property and I assert the moral right of the authorship of form and content of these inventories, with reference, of course, to what I have said elsewhere about the method of compilation.

INVENTORY OF THE ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPTS
OF THE LIBRARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF LEIDEN

VOLUME 7

MANUSCRIPTS OR. 6001 – OR. 7000
IN THE PERIOD BETWEEN MAY 1917 AND 1946

Continuation of the C.A. van Ophuijsen Collection (Or. 5823 - Or. 6121)
Collection of, mostly Malay, Minangkabau and Batak manuscripts, brought together by Professor C.A. van Ophuijsen (1854-1917). Presented to the library by his widow in May 1917. See on C.A. van Ophuijsen's life and work C. Snouck Hurgronje, 'Levensbericht van C.A. van Ophuijsen', in Verspreide geschriften 6 (1927), pp. 421-434 (reprinted from Levensberichten van de Maatschappij der Nederlandsche Letterkunde te Leiden 1916-1917, Leiden 1917, pp. 87 ff.). Or. 6901, below, is most probably also from his collection. See for the collection of MSS of his father, J.A.W. van Ophuijsen, Or. 12.123 - Or. 12.282, below.

Adat perempuan beranak di Matua. The text, ff. 1v-11r, deals with ceremonies in Matua, from pregnancy to the ceremonial bathing of the baby. It is a sequel to the text in Or. 6007, below. It is divided into:
- 1. Adat perampoean hamil didalam negeri Matoea
- 2. Dari hal memboeboerkan perampoean hamil'
- 3. Dari hal perampoean bersalin
- 4. Dari hal membawa anak toeroen mandi.

See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 266, No. 682, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6005. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, p. 270 (No. 612), was used for the present description.
¶ See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 266, No. 680, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6006. This should be to Or. 6007, below.
(in Mal. 1197)

Or. 6007
Malay, paper, 2 exercise books, Latin script, same hand as Or. 6006, above.
Adat bertoenangan dan kawin di Matoea. Customs of betrothal and marriage in Matua.
A. 20 ff. Containing:
- 1. Adat bertoenangan dalam negeri Matoea',
- 2. Dari hal jang diadatkan oleh laki[2] kapada toenangannja dan mertoeanja
- 3. Dari hal jang diadatkan oleh anak gadis kapada mertoeanja'
- 4. Dari adat berkawin dalam negeri Matoea
- 5. Dari hal kawin pakak.

B. 20 ff. The text, ff. 1v-8v, contains the continuation of A. This text forms a prelude to Or. 6006, above, Adat perempoean beranak di Matua.
See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 266, No. 680, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6006. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, p. 270 (No. 613), was used for the present description.
¶ See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 265, No. 677, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6007. This should be to Or. 6008, below.
(in Mal. 1197)

Or. 6008
Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 44 pp., Latin script, exercise book.
Atoeran 'adat dan 'adat- 'adat orang laki-laki isteri. On marriage customs.
(1) pp. 1-17. Atoeran 'adat laki-isteri, dealing with marriage ceremonies, the etiquette of marriage proposals, and the arrangement of the festivities.
(2) pp. 18-44. Atoeran 'adat kawin, a text on marriage customs, subdivided into fasal:
- 1. Pada menjatakan 'adat jang tijada patoet di kamni orang di dalam negeri atau di dalam soekoe
- 2. Pada menjatakan 'adat kawin di dalam soekoe;
- 3. Pada menjatakan 'adat orang laki-laki isteri di atas roemahnja;
- 4. Pada menjatakan 'adat moela-moela berkawin;
- 5. Pada menjatakan 'adat melataq tanda namanja;
- 6. Pada menjatakan 'adat akan berkawin namanja.

The text ends abruptly, and it may be assumed that there is a continuation in another of van Ophuijsen's exercise books (?).See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 265, No. 677, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6007. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 270-271 (No. 614), was used for the present description.
¶ See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 210, No. 520, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6008. This should be to Or. 6009 – Or. 6017, below.
(in Mal. 1197)

Or. 6009 - Or. 6017
Minangkabau stories in local dialects. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 210, No. 520, where the entire collection is erroneously referred to as Or. 6008. There is a relationship between the different numbers. It would seem that the idea behind these collections is that they are basically the same 42 stories, but in different dialects.

Minangkabau Malay, paper, 44 pp., Latin script, dated December 20, 1894, copied by St. Malintang, teacher at Paya Kumbuh, exercise book.

Tambo radja² Mandailing Besar dan Batang Natal. The text, ff. 1r-11v, contains the following story: Soelthan Iskandar Dzoelkarnain, son of Radja Roehoem, marries Putri Lindoeng Boelan (a boenian-princess) at Boekit Si Goentang-goentang and begets a son (Si-Barowar). The abandoned child is found by Soetan Poeloengan, who later wants to murder him. His foster-mother flies with him to the village of Namora Sati where Si-Barowar becomes radja, with the title of Soetan Aroe. The country is named Panjaboengan. His son Toewan Nataras has a son, Toewan Moeksa. Toewan Moeksa begets two sons. The youngest, Baginda Mangaradja Enda, succeeds his father. At first his son Mangaradja Sijan and later on another son, Soetan Koemala, become radja of Kota Siantar. From this radja descend the kepala² koerija of Kota Siantar, Goenoeng Toewa, Pidoli Boekit, Goenoeng Baringin, Maga, Moewara Sama and Moewara Perlampoengan. As after the death of his father Mangaradja Sijan is not able to rule, the people request his brother, Mangaradja Somorong, to become radja of Panjaboengan. Mangaradja Somorong becomes radja of Panjaboengan Djaeloe and Mangaradja Sijan of Panjaboengan Tonga. Not described in Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921). Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 280-281 (No. 631), was used for the present description.

Or. 6051
Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 119 ff., dated dated 2 Dzulka'edah 1229 (16 October 1814), copied by Cahayaraja, as owner is mentioned Sultan Khalifatullah of Muko-Muko, on f. 1r is a note in Latin script: Mokko-Mokko 1 (11 ?) Mei 1883. Jang poenja ini kitab ... Patri Rekna aj ... Istri Regent Mokko^2 jaitoe Sultan Takdir Khalifatullah ... (the later owner).
¶ Or. 5976, above, would be a copy of this MS.
(1) ff. 1v-31v. Syair Muko-muko, at the end called Syair Puteri Banialam. Composed by Raden Anom Zainal Abidin also named Raden Prabu Anom Kusuma(h) Yuda(h). The text begins with the wedding of Raden Anom Zainal Abidin, grandson of Pangeran Raja Tuha and the Sultan of Madura, with a daughter of the ruler of Muko-muko. Then follows the history of Muko-muko starting with the reign of Tuanku Gondam Syah, who was succeeded by Tuanku Pesisir Barat; his son Tuanku Muda tries to take over power but with the aid of the British from Bangkahulu he has to flee to Jambi where he dies. Sultan Pesisir Barat is succeeded by his son Sultan Khalifatullah Inayat Syah. The story ends with a long account of the death of this ruler's daughter, Puteri Banialam, and the ceremonies thereafter which forms the biggest part of the text. The ruler regrets that he did not pay attention to her dream. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 82, No. 190 (I), where the MS is said to have belonged to the wife of the regent of Moko-moko, and where a quotation from the beginning is given. A complete text of the Syair has been published by J. Kathirithamby-Wells and Muhammad Yusoff Hashim, The Syair Mukomuko. Some historical aspects of a nineteenth century Sumatran court chronicle, in MBRAS Monograph No. 13, Kuala Lumpur 1985.

(2) ff. 32r-34v. Hukum Muko-muko, divided into 1. Hukum menteri yang sembilan and 2. Hukum perwatin Teremang. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 82, No. 190 (I).
(3) ff. 34r-v. Syair Datuk Danau Surang, a syair about his betrayal of the ruler of Muko-muko and the Company.
(4) ff. 36r-41v. Syair orang kematian anak, written by Cahayaraja. It contains the same text as in Or. 12.163, below (but see Iskandar's quite different description of that text in Catalogue p. 626, No. 1273!). The syair is dedicated to the ruler of Muko-muko as consolation for the death of his beloved daughter Puteri Banialam. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 100, No. 229 (II), where the final two lines with the colophon are quoted.
(5) ff. 42r-79r. Syair mimpi. About dreams of members of the court of Muko-muko, containing 35 dreams (ff. 70r-78v blank). The text ends with the dream of Puteri Bungsu (Puteri Banialam) on 19 Syawal 1226 (6 November 1811). See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 80, No. 187 (where II should be III), where the text is characterised as a history of the court of Muko-muko in the shape of a collection of dreams of members of that court.
(6) ff. 79v-81r. Tawarikh Muko-muko. Some chronicles, i.e. of the birth of a daughter of Raden Anom Kusuma Yuda on 9 December 1811. On f. 81r is a fragment of a syair saying it was written by Cahayaraja. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 80, No. 187
(7) ff. 81v-113r. Kisah Anbia. With additions from the Seribu Masail. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 80, No. 187.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 286-287 (No. 641), was used for the present description.

Or. 6071
Collective volume with texts in Malay and Minangkabau, paper, 268 pp. (20 blank pp. between pp. 160-162, and 20 between pp. 217-218, are not numbered), Arabic script, exercise book.
(1) pp. 1-160. Hikayat Bahram Syah. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 25, No. 58 (A).
(2) pp. 183-217. Kaba Sutan Bagindo. Minangkabau. The story of Sutan Bagindo who dreams of a stag with golden antlers, etc. While trying to catch it he finds a wife from heaven. He brings her home but later on neglects her. She finds the clothes which enable her to fly and flees back to heaven. After all kinds of ordeals he finds her again in heaven. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 209, No. 518, where there is an erroneous reference to Or. 6069 B. Van Ronkel quotes the beginning. See also Or. 5941 A, above.
(3) pp. 219-268. Kaba Mamak Hetong. Minangkabau. Also called Kaba Mamak Si Hetong, the story of Mamak Si Hetong whose sister was insulted by Kasumbo Hampai, a rich and beautiful girl. As revenge he charms her with flute and violin and, while following him entranced, she falls into a ravine. Brought home she commits suicide. Arriving home Si Hetong exhumes her body and she revives because of his prayers. They marry and beget a son. This is the version of the text which has been prepared for publication by C.A. van Ophuijsen for a lithographic edition (Chabar Mama si Hetong. Eene Minangkabausche vertelling. Leiden 1892 [897 D 49 - 897 D 49* - 2544 C 31]).

and was reprinted under the same title in 1893 (by Firma Trap, Leiden [897 D 50]). See also C. Snouck Hurgronje, 'De Chabar Mama' Si Hetong', in TBG 38 (1895), pp. 444-56. Or. 6074 Collective volume with texts in Minangkabau and Malay, paper, 225 ff., Arabic script, several hands, exercise book.
(1) ff. 2r-41v. Kaba Sarek Muliek. Minangkabau. Dated 31 October 1898, copied at Muara Labuh. Written down after the telling by an old man who was formerly a professional story-teller. Notes with the letter P in margin by C.A. van Ophuijsen, probably for his study of pantun). See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 208, No. 514 (A).
(2) ff. 57r-100r. Kaba Sarek Muliek. Minangkabau. Told at Sungai Pagu. Notes with the letter P in margin by C.A. van Ophuijsen. Contains the story of Sarek Muliek, daughter of Tuanku Rajo Tuwo and Lindueng Bulan ofTanjueng Bungo. Rajo Tuwo does not appear at the gelanggang because he has no proper clothes. Sarek Muliek makes attempts to weave some for him, but owing to the lack of materials, from cotton to spare-parts for the loom, these have to be acquired first with great difficulty. When the clothes are ready Rajo Tuwo goes to the gelanggang. Rajo Maninjun, now the important man at the gelanggang, is impressed by Rajo Tuwo's clothes. He is informed of the weaver's name and at his instigation, people now go to Tanjueng Bungo, so that the gelanggang is emptied. Dayang Danilu, the owner of the gelanggang, is ashamed and sets Rajo Angek Garang against Sarek Muliek. She is expelled by him and roams the seas, waiting for her infant brother to grow up. When Magek Kaju Buang is grown up he is taught all the skills a well-educated man should know by his father and roams the seas in search of his sister. He dies and is revived by Puti Taruih Mato whom he marries. Together they continue his peregrinations, attacking the ships they come across, until in one of the attacks Magek Kaju Buang is caught by Sarek Muliek. Magek Kaju Buang reveals his identity and together they return to Tanjueng Bungo and defeat Rajo Magek Garang. In this text are more pantun than in the previously described text. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 208, No. 515 (B).

(3) ff. 107r-145v. Kaba nan Tunggajan nan Gandariah. Minangkabau. The same story as Kaba nan Tungga. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 203, No. 501 (C).
(4) ff. 146r-222. Kitab fa'al. Dated 9 Safar 1297 (21 January 1880), copied by Yahya Ismail and Si Rancak at Maninjau. The text contains:

Or. 6075
Collective volume with texts in Minangkabau Malay, paper, 492 pp., Latin script, exercise book.
Kaba Malin Deman.
(1) pp. 1-212. Kaba Malin Deman. Transliteration of MS Jakarta von de Wall (Bataviaasch Genootschap) 209 by C.A. van Ophuijsen, with notes. At the end is stated: Inilah kitab setan dan ibiis nan tjilaka; namanja Chabar Malim Demon.
(2) pp. 225-492. Kaba Malin Deman, another version of the kaba, written in another hand. The text begins in the middle of the story and ends abruptly. Probably the original from which this MS has been copied was incomplete.

See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 192, No. 476. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 299 (No. 663), was used for the present description.

Salam taalim tuan hambo, Kaba bamulai tantang itu,
Kaba urang hambo kabakan, Kok duto urang hambo tak tahu,
Kapa lulito dari tangah, Unggeh sipompong pacah mato,
Kaba barito hambo danga, Bohong urang hambo tak sarto, ...
See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 203, No. 499. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 299 (No. 664), was used for the present description.
(Mal. 1227)

Or. 6077
Collective volume with texts in Malay and Minangkabau, paper, 290 ff., Latin script, each title in a different hand, exercise book.
(1) ff. 1v-124v. Hikayat Bakhtiar, 4 stories:
- 1. ff. lv-42v. Hikayat Raja Benua Yaman
- 2. ff. 43v-59v. Hikayat Anak Raja Mengasihani Katak
- 3. ff. 60v-64v. Hikayat Seorang Raja yang halim
- 4. ff. 65v-124v. Hikayat Siti Hasanah. See also J. Brandes, 'De Inhoud van de Groote Hikayat Baktiyar', in TBG 41 (1899). These are the same stories as were published by H.N. van der Tuuk in his Maleisch Leesboek voor Eerstbeginnenden, Zevende Stukje (1868), taken from MS London, Royal Asiatic Society, Raffles Malay 63. See also the introduction by Van der Tuuk. Van Ronkel calls this text Hikayat Bayan Budiman. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), pp. 25-26, No. 60 (A);
(2) ff. 125v-152r. Gombang Sari Dewa. A Minangkabau kaba about a prince, Gombang Sari Dewa, who falls in love with a commoner girl he has never seen. In the story a bird, Si Burung Nuri, plays a part. The unfinished story was told in Barus and Singkel (menoeroet bagaimana jang ladzim di tjerita-tjeritakan orang di negeri Baroes dan Singkil). At the end is a list of dialect words with Minangkabau meanings. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 209, No. 516 (B), with quotation of the opening lines.
(3) ff. 153v-176r. Tjeritera Sjech Makboel. Malay, copied at Fort van der Capellen, dated 11 May 1903. Published by C.A. van Ophuijsen, in Maleisch leesboek (Leiden 1912 [1433 E 33 - 880 F 20 - 900 F 41]), as story No. 53, pp. 191-220. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 26, No. 61 (C).

(4) ff. 181v-204v. Kitaboe 'l- nikah (Sjair Hoekoem Nikah), with lacunae. Not the same text as Syair Hukum Nikah by Raja Alt Haji. It is the story of a prince who falls in love with the voice of a woman. Copied and transcribed from a printed text (Lingga 1308/1890-1891). See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 26, No. 61 (C).
(5) ff. 205v-207v. Tjerita puteri dan suara lelaki. The story of a princess who falls in love with the voice of a young man. Many lacunae because of illegible places in the original. At the end is mentioned: Tertjetak pada pertjetakan Keradjaan Lingga 1308. So it is apparently a copy or transcription of a printed edition, and probably originating from the same source as the previously described text. Not described by Ph.S. van Ronkel, in Supplement-Catalogus (1921).
(7) ff. 213r-217v. Njanji risau; Njanji rabab, saloeng danpoepoet. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 242, No. 621 (E).
(8) ff. 217r-222r. Sjair Soenoer. The author is Syaikh Daud Sunur, the same as the text edited by A. Snackey (Sair soenoer ditoeroenkan dari A B C Melajoe-Arab dan diterangkan. Betawi 1888 [897 F 127]), with two additional lines. See also T. Iskandar, Kesusasteraan klasik Melayu sepanjang abad. Jakarta 1996, pp. 448-52. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 102, No. 234 (D) [maar let op: van Ronkel noemt hier geheel andere tekst: Syair Haji!)]. See also No. 11, below.
(9) f. 222r. A fragment only of Sjair meramoe roemah, only the beginning, containing three stanzas.
(10) ff. 229v-256r. (Tjerita) Si Malantja, three Minangkabau picaresque stories. The third story is unfinished. Malay with many Minangkabau proverbs. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 26, No. 61 (C).
(11) ff. 257v-290v. Sjair Mekah Madinah or Syair Haji, Syair Rukun Haji, by Syaikh Daud Sunur. A complete text; divided into five chapters as in Or. 3337 (1), above. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 102, No. 234 (D).
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 299-301 (No. 665), was used for the present description.

Or. 6078
Collective volume with texts in Malay and Minanangkabau Malay, paper (different kinds), 130 ff., Arabic script, several hands.
(1) ff. 1v-35r. Risalat hukum kanun (Undang-undang Melaka). Dated Rabi'ul-awal 1270 (December 1853). Contains 44 fasal. A copy of MS Leiden Kl. 45. See Undang-Undang Melaka. A critical edition. The Hague 1976, p. 19. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), pp. 49-50, No. 124 (A).
(2) ff. 37r-53. Kaba Talipuek Layu. Minangkabau Malay, from Payakumbuh. The story of a girl who is in debt to a merchant and dies because her family wants to marry her off to somebody else, denying her debt. A version of this story (written by Datuk Paduko Alam of Payakumbuh) was printed in Bukittinggi under the title Hikayat Talipuek Layue nan Dandam (fifth printing in 1953). See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), pp. 209-210, No. 519 (B), where the beginning is quoted.

(3) ff. 57r-70v. Kaba Murai Batu. Minangkabau Malay. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 198, No. 488 (C).
(4) ff. 101r-110r. Hikayat Darmah Tahsiah, also called Hikayat Darma Tasiah. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 23, No. 52 (D).
(5) ff. 114r-129v. Pantun-pantun Tarusan. Minangkabau Malay. Recorded on 30 October 1892. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 242, No. 620 (E). Divided into 4 fasal, containing 119, 60, 12 and 54 pantun.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 301 (No. 666), was used for the present description.

Toba Batak, paper, 83 pp. with text on one side, a bound volume.
Pambahen ni halak Batak nadjolo laho padjongdjong bagasna, sinoerathon ni Arsenius Loembantobing di Lagoeboti-Toba, Bataklanden, Sum.W.K. A text about house building and the customs in connection with that, compiled by Arsenius Loembantobing, the author of several books published by Volkslectuur and Bataksch Instituut. The manuscript was probably sent to C.A. van Ophuijsen for a judgment when the latter was already professor in Leiden. As far as Voorhoeve is aware of it was never published. A biography of the author is given in the weekly Pangabahan of March 20, 1934, p. 7 (copy in Or. 12.605, below).
See Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici (1977), p. 220.

Or. 6082
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Malay, paper, 30 ff., bold calligraphic Arabic script (main text), exercise book.
(1) f. 1a. Niyat, in Malay.
(2) ff. 1b-16b. al-Sittun Mas'ala fil-Fiqh (title on f. 1a), a Mukhtasar according to the Shafi`ite school, usually ascribed to Abu (or Ibn) al-`Abbas Ahmad b. Muhammad al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. With interlinear Malay translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342. Not described in Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921). Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 302 (No. 669), was used for the present description. As title is given: Bayan ma la Budda minhu min al-Furud ... (f. 2b). This text does not contain the questions and answers (as the title would suggest), but gives a survey of the furud, the duties incumbent on the muslim.
(3) ff. 17a-25b. Masa'il. Arabic text with interlinear Malay translation. Questions and answers, with a separate basmala. As name of the author (f. 17a) is given: Abu Layth Muhammad b. Abi Nasr b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi. This seems to be in fact: Bayan `Aqidat al-Usul, or: Masa'il, by Abu al-Layth Muhammad b. Abi Nasr b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi, who seems to be identical with Abu al-Layth Nasr b. Muhammad b. Ahmad b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi (4th cent.), GAL G I, 196. This catechism, one of the most popular religious textbooks in Indonesia, is mentioned twice by Brockelmann under different titles (Nos. 6 and 7). This copy not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.
(4) f. 26a. Doa sembahyang. Malay text.
(5) ff. 26b-27a. Lafz niyat sembahyang. Arabic text with interlinear Malay translation. The niyya to be said for performing ritual prayer. Ff. 27b-30b blank.

Or. 6083
Collective volume with texts in Minangkabau and Malay, paper, 173 ff., Latin script, different hands.
(1) ff. 1v-26r. Chaba Gombang Oenggeh Bamban. Minangkabau. Also called Kaba (Gombang) Unggeh Bamban, written by Marzoeki gr. B.M., dated (of the first part ?) 7 December 1894, copied at Bonjol.
- 1. ff. 1v-17r. A summary of the story of Unggeh Bamban who, through the machinations of his teacher, falls into disgrace and is sent away by his parents. He also leaves home in search of Puti Taruih Mato. Ff. 18v-19r blank.
- 2. ff. 20v-26r. The continuation of No. 1, in another hand. Unggeh Bamban arrives at the gelanggang of Radjo Lembang Alam, while Poeti Sari Baganti (fiancee of Lembang Alam) falls in love with him. He kills Radjo Lembang Alam and marries Poeti Sari Baganti. There is a gap between Nos. 1 and 2. The end is missing. On f. 27v is a letter by Marzoeki gr. B.M. to (?) C.A. van Ophuijsen. Ff. 27r-29r blank.
(2) ff. 30v-44r. Hikajat Soetan Oenggas Bamban, summary in Malay of Kaba Unggeh Bamban. The story ends here with the descent of Puti Taruih Mato from heaven to marry Unggeh Bamban. The fiancee of Lembang Alam is here called Poeti Ambong Sari. Ff. 45v-49r blank.

(3) ff. 50v-86r. Hikajat Soetan Oenggas Bamban (= Kaba Gombang Unggeh Bamban). Minangkabau. A summary.
- 1. ff. 50v-62r: The beginning, ff. 63v-66r blank.
- 2. ff. 67v-86r: The continuation of the preceding.

(4) ff. 88v-172r. Kaba Gombang Unggeh Bamban. Minangkabau, elaborate text in rhythmic poetry. The end is missing.
See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 204, No. 504 (with slightly different numbering). Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 302-303 (No. 670), was used for the present description.

Collective volume with texts in Malay and Minangkabau, paper, 560 pp., Latin script, different hands, dated Baros 1902.
(1) pp. 1-180. Tjeritera Toewankoe Gombang Patoewanan (= Kaba Tuanku Gombang Patuanan). Minangkabau. The story of Tuanku Gombang Patuanan at Banda Mua who orders a bayan bird to find him a bride; after meeting many princesses the bayan bird comes to Puti Gondam Ganto Sari and delivers his message. The princess accedes to Tuanku Gombang's request. She sends him kamba bodi. When Bundo Kandueng finds out she gets angry and Tuanku (also called Dang Tuanku throughout the whole story) leaves home on a ship owned by Magek Tulela Sutan Mudo (brother of Gondam Ganto Sari). During the voyage Dang Tuanku sings pantun, extolling the name of Gondam Ganto Sari. Sutan Mudo feels insulted and when they reach the island of Baharam Dewa, jurumudi Malim Siamat leaves Dang Tuanku behind. In an old boat Dang Tuanku reaches Kualo Ai Batu. Inland he meets Puti Andam Dewi who had refused to marry Rajo Si Patoka. When Rajo Si Patoka learns about the relationship between Andam Dewi and Dang Tuanku he arrives to kill Dang Tuanku. Before his death Andam Dewi gets a glass box to hide in, but is abducted by Rajo Si Patoka. The bayan bird receives aie ubueng nyawo (life-protecting water) from Puti Jamjuma at Aie Batu to revive Dang Tuanku. He now learns that Andam Dewi has been abducted by Rajo Si Patoka. While rowing his boat he is swallowed by a fish which dies and is washed ashore in Rajo Si Patoka's country. Dang Tuanku is found in the stomach of the fish by Bundo Rubiah. At her place Andam Dewi and Dang Tuanku find each other at last. Dang Tuanku kills Rajo Si Patoka and brings Andam Dewi back to Kuala Aie Batu. He now asks her consent to go to Mecca to perform the haj. When he does not return she goes in search and finds him on the island of Baharam Dewa where he is married to Gondam Ganto Sari by whom he has a child. At the end Andam Dewi and Dang Tuanku are reunited again. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 207, No. 512 (A). Added in envelope: excerpt by T. Iskandar.
(2) pp. 189-284. Hikayat Raja Budak. At the end the date of completion, 8 Rajab 1269 (17 April 1853), has been deleted (is it the date the original MS was finished ?). See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 26, No. 62 (B).
(3) pp. 285-560. Kabar Si Taboeang. Minangkabau. Written down by Dja Parlagoetan, a teacher at Barus, on 2 September 1902, as told by his teacher Moehammad Seroleh.

Contains the story of Prince Si Tabuang, born to an unmarried girl Lindung Bulan, one of the three orphaned princesses. His mother tries to kill him in all kinds of ways, but he survives thanks to both his aunts. He possesses supernatural powers, can travel through the air, in the sea and in the earth. Besides he has power over wild animals. See Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 208, no. 513 (C).

Or. 6088
Minangkabau Malay, paper, 554 pp., Arabic script, dated 24 Ramadhan 1298 (20 August 1881).
Kaba Cindue Mato. A complete text; containing the most important Minangkabau epic, viz. the story of Cindue Mato, aide-de-camp of the young ruler of Minangkabau (Dang Tuanku), who with his horse Gumarang and the buffalo, Binuang, defeats robbers at Bukit Tambun Tulang. He abducts Puti Bungsu, daughter of Rajo Mudo of Sikelawi, who since her birth has been destined to be Dang Tuanku's consort but is now going to marry Imbang Jayo of Sungai Ngiang. Dang Tuanku marries Puti Bungsu and Cindue Mato marries Puti Lenggo Geni, daughter ofDatuek Bandaharo of Sungai Tarab. Therefore Imbang Jayo attacks Pagar Ruyueng but is defeated by Cindue Mato, who as a reward is installed as ruler of lnderapura. Now the invulnerable Tuanku Tiang Bungkuk, father of Imbang Jayo, attacks Pagar Ruyueng. Dang Tuanku, his mother and his consort Puti Bungsu sail to heaven by ship. Cindue Mato is captured, has to serve Tiang Bungkuk, but finds the secret weapon to kill him. Now Cindue Mato is installed as ruler of Minangkabau and his son Sutan Amirulah becomes ruler of Sikelawi. Cindue Mato and Basa Ampek Balai die. A prince and a princess from heaven (supposed to be children of Dang Tuanku and Cindue Mato) are brought down by an angel to Pagaruyueng to rule Minangkabau. The prince, Sutan Sari Dungi, marries a daughter of the sultan of Aceh but divorces her and returns to Minangkabau.

(1) p. 1. The last three lines only of an Arabic poem in praise of the Prophet Muhammad with Acehnese explanation. Since the other texts in the volume are by Ceh Muhamat Marahaban, it is probable that he also composed this work. See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (Leiden 1994), p. 206.
(2) pp. 1-4. Arabic. Hadith. About Gibril bringing instruction for amulet making to the Prophet Muhammad. Taken from a Sharh Mubarak (p. 4). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 443.
(3) pp. 4-5. Arabic and Malay. Fa'ida. Quoted from the Arabic work Nuzhat al-Magalis wa-Muntakhab al-Nafa'is by (as quoted from the MS:) al-Shaykh Abu Hurayra `Abd al-Rahman b. al-Shaykh `Abd al-Salam b. al-Rahman b. `Uthman b. Tayhan al-Safawi al-

Shafi`i, who is in fact `Abd al-Rahman b. `Abd al-Salam al-Saffuri al-Shafi`i (GAL G II, 178), and who wrote that work in 884/1479 in Mekka. Muhamat Marahaban is mentioned as the author of this literal imla' (p. 5, line 6).
(4) pp. 5-6. Acehnese (or Malay?) and Arabic. Prayer for the dead. Arabic with explanation.
(5) pp. 6-7. Kisah Abdolah Hadat. Ceh Muhamat Marahaban is mentioned as the writer (p. 7, line 7). He wrote the work in 1284 AH. See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (1994), p. 172.
(6) p. 7. List of Arabic words, referring to different kinds of believers (zahid, `abid, salik, etc.), with explanation in Malay of the meaning of these terms.
(7) pp. 7-24. Arabic. Masa'il. Questions, apparently extracted by Ceh Muhamat Marahaban from the Fatawi of Ibn Hagar (probably Ibn Hagar al-Haythami (d. 973/1565), GAL G II, 387), and from other works (al-Tuhfa, pp. 8, 9; al-Balqini, p. 13; Shaykh `Abd al-Qadir, p. 16; and others). Marahaban names himself at several instances (pp. 7, 10, 11). Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.
(8) pp. 24-25. Shorter notes, in several hands. Texts in Malay and Arabic, on subjects similar to those treated in the preceding part.
(9) pp. 26-28. Acehnese. Rateb text, exhorting the faithful to perform their ritual prayer (seumayang, sembahyang). See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (Leiden 1994), p. 198.

Arabic text (in red), with Malay paraphrase (memadai bagi barangsiapa yang menyayangi akan dia). Identified with Or. 6100, above, titles in Or. 6100, f. 4b. Compiled on 8 Rabi` II 1259 (1843) in Mekka (Or. 6100, ff. 3b, 26a).
See the erroneous reference by Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 158, No. 369, to a Kitab Fa'l, which is clearly a different text. In fact, Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921), p. 117, No. 280, describes the present volume as well, although the number is not mentioned there. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 307 (No. 685), was used for the present description.

Or. 6107

Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 11 ff., Arabic script, a manuscript from Aceh.
(1) ff. 1v-4r. Fa'al. Fasal pada menyetakan orang beritanya bahagia ... Divination by calculation of the numerical values of the letters of one's name, qualities of women, aphrodisiacs, etc. Preceded by a list of the numerical value of the letters of the Arabic alphabet.
(1a) ff. 4v-6v. Bab ini pada menyetakan ... Not deparately mentioned in Iskandars catalogue.
(1b) f. 7r. Adapun obat kuat zikr. Not deparately mentioned in Iskandars catalogue.
(1c) f. 7r. Bab ini azimat ..., with two squares. Not deparately mentioned in Iskandars catalogue.
(1d) f. 7v. List of the numerical value of the letters of the Arabic alphabet.
(2) ff. 8r-9r. Tarikat Syaikh Abdur-Rahman. Short text with reference to Syaikh Abdur-Rahman, Syaikh Abdus-Salam, Syaikh Abul-Qadir, etc. Ff. 9v-11a blank.
(3) f. 11v. Copy of a letter to a Teungku and Teungku Yusuf.
Iskandar mentions a text Ilmu ra 'sa, about how to get quicksilver into the body and how to get it out, but that must be a mix-up with another manuscript, as that text is simply not present in this MS.
Not described in Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921). Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 310-311 (No. 690), was used for the present description.

Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Malay, paper, 24 ff., Arabic script, cashbook, a manuscript from Aceh.
(1) ff. 1b-6a. Collection of niyya's, in Arabic, with Malay headings, e.g. on f. 1b: inilah lafz niyat mandi junub, inilah lafz niyat mengambil air sembahyang, etc. This is followed by other Arabic formulae, to be said at ritual occasions, sometimes provided with Malay instructions. Other such niyya's are on f. 7b.
(2) ff. 6a-b. Inilah qunut subh. Prayer in Arabic.
(3) f. 6b. Bermula tukun sembahyang ...
(4) ff. 7a-b. A poetical text in Malay, possibly from a text entitled Hikayat Akhbar al-Karim.
(5) ff. 7b-8b. Ritual prayer texts in Arabic, with Malay instructions.
(6) ff. 8b-10a. Ritual prayer texts in Arabic, with Malay instructions.
(7) f. 10a. Du`a', prayer, in Arabic. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 67.
(8) ff. 10b-11b. Quotation in Arabic, taken from a Kitab Gawahir by Syaikh Ajhuri, to be read on `Ashura day.
(9) ff. 11b-16a. Wird ba`d al-Salawat al-Maktubat, to be said after the prescribed ritual prayers. In Arabic.

(10) ff. 16a-17b. Fa'ida, in Malay, on the authority of Imam al-Haramayn, that is: al-Guwayni (d. 478/1085), GAL G I, 389, and al-Ghazzali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 420. Later on (f. 17a) mention is made of Tag <al-Din> al-Subki (d. 771/1370), GAL G II, 90, and other authorities.
(11) ff. 17b-18a. A note in Malay on niyya's, in order to achieve one's aims.
(12) ff. 18a-19a. A prayer to the Prophet Muhammad, in Arabic poetry.

(14) ff. 19b-21b. Iltiga'. A confession to the Prophet Muhammad, here available in 36 verses. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 128, where it is said that the present text is incomplete. Ff. 22a-24b blank.
See T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 311 (No. 691), where the contents of the present volume is merely described as 'Rukun sembahyang, a treatise about sembahyang, starting with the ritual ablution and ending with do'a', but the contents are different and far more complex. Only text No. 3 (half a page only) classifies as the treatise detected by Iskandar.

Kaba Incek Malin. The text contains the story of Incek Malin, son of the Datuek Tumanggung of Aceh. Maruhum Saripada of Aceh (also called Tuanku Sahi Alam or Mangkoto Alarn) receives a letter from Sultan Hijarat asking for kapue and garu. Nobody can read it (there are no more ulama and the mosques have fallen into decay) except Incek Malin. Being not able to find kapue and garu in Aceh, the sultan dispatches several nakodoh with their ships, i.e. Incek Malin accompanied by Nakodoh Leio, to Sultan Saidi Malim at Tiku Pariaman. There Incek Malin meets Dayang Saripodi, daughter of the ruler. They fall in love but alas, Incek Malin falls ill and dies while his ship sails back to Aceh. On the cover page the title is given in Roman characters: Chabar Intjeq-Malim. There are notes and jottings on the cover pages.

From Or. 6122 onwards: Acquisitions made during or immediately after the curatorship of Dr. Cornelis van Arendonk (d. 1946), who was in office as adjutor interpretis Legati Warnriani from 1918 till 1946. It is difficult to determine which manuscript was the last one acquired by van Arendonk or during his period of office, because on his retirement he left numerous handwritten materials unsorted and unregistered. The job to do that fell to Dr. P. Voorhoeve (1899-1997), who was in office as adjutor in the periode from 1946 till 1959.

Kitab al-Hathth `ala al-Tigara wal-Sina`a wal-`Amal wal-Inkar `ala man yadda`I al-Tawakkul wa-Tark al-`Amal wal-Hugga `alayhim fi dhalika. Min Masa'il Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, by Abu Bakr Muhammad (read: Ahmad) b. Muhammad b. Harun al-Khallal (d. 311/923), GAL S I, 311; S II, 1007. The Berlin MS, which has the same mistake in the author's name is probably another copy taken from the same original (in the library of Muhammad b. Husayn Nasif in Gidda). Probably a small part of al-Khallal's extensive collection of sayings of Ibn Hanbal (d. 241/855), GAL G I, 182, of which the British Library has the first volume, Kitab al-Gami` li-`Ulum (or al-Musnad min Masa'il) Ahmad Ibn Hanbal. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 109-110.

Sheaf with a considerable number of papers, in several South Sulawesi languages, and also in other languages. There are also notes, drafts and documents from J.C.G. Jonker (1857-1919) and others with relevance to language education on South-Sulawesi.
For the materials of Malay Interest, T. Iskandar (Catalogue, p. 320, No. 713) has distinguished the following two sheaves:
A. 10 ff. 'Verzameling van Sassaksche woorden gerangschikt volgens het Maleisch en Nederduitsch woordenboek van Roorda van Eijsinga' (Maleisch en Nederduitsch woordenboek, onder goedkeuring en begunstiging der Hooge Regering van Nederlandsch Indie vervaardigd en uitgegeven door P.P. Roorda van Eysinga. Batavia 1825 [859 C 11]). Malay-Sasak vocabulary, Latin script, written in two columns, going from letters A-W.
B. 6 ff. Ilmoe menjoerat bahasa Boegis dan Mangkasar dengan hoeroef Lontari, by Adoerrahim Intje Pamasé, completed on 31 July 1891 in Boeloekomba. The text is divided into the following sections: `ilmu al-kalam, perobahan soewara, hoeroef-hoeroef dan tanda-tanda, abjad, peratoeran menjoeurat jang patoetnja sahadja koeatoerkan dengan peringkasan, soeratan, chatimat.
Not described in Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement-Catalogus (1921).

The other materials still need sorting out. (?). There are also materials with relevance to the translation of the Malay fable into South-Sulawesi languages (see Or. 6141, above). See also P. Voorhoeve, 'Indonesische handschriften' (1952), p. 219.

Baron Sakender, in verse, incomplete, see edition and translation by A. B. Cohen Stuart, Geschiedenis van Baron Sakendher. Een Javaansch verhaal. Batavia 1850-1851 [860 E 14-15; 880 E 22 (with notes by J.C.G. Jonker); 8058 E 8], and Th.G.Th. Pigeaud, 'Alexander, Sakèndèr and Senapati', in Djawa, 7 (1927).
Added are two Dutch documents concerning the text, one dated Padang Pandjang 24 February 1871, and signed by a military commander named van Schendel, who mentions the interest in the tale shown by Javanese soldiers in the Netherlands East India army. Van Schendel had been asked about this, as there were, apparently, plans to publish the book in an edition specially made for the Dutch military. The other document gives a summary of the content of the work.
Or. 10.867, below, contains a list of initial lines of cantos by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, p. 345.

A copy of the printed Blanco woordenlijst uitgegeven op last der regeering van Ned.-Indië ten behoeve van taalvorschers in den Ned.-Indischen archipel (by K.F. Holle [1829-1896]), edition of Batavia 1894, filled with Sumbanese words. See P. Voorhoeve, ‘Indonesische handschriften’ (1952), p. 218.
Added is a note by Mrs. P.H. Jonker-Lapère, dated July 1920, in which she declares herself unable to determine the language which is given in the booklet. According to P. Voorhoeve (note in pencil on the first page) it is Sumba’nese. This is also clear from No. 370 on p. 20, where it is stated that the tiger is not an animal living on Sumba (hence there is no word for it). The same goes for Nos. 387, 388.

Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 10 ff., Arabic and Latin script.
(1) ff. 2r-6v. Sila-sila Daeng Mabella. In the pedigree in Roman characters at the back it is called sila-sila tambo. Arabic script. The text contains the genealogy of Daeng Mabella. It starts with Daeng Maropa who comes to Inderapura and marries a sister of the ruler. The son by this marriage, Daeng Mabella or Sutan Sellan, becomes a captain in the British East India Company and head of foreigners in Bencoolen. The opium monopoly is farmed out to him. In 1660 he goes to the Bugis country to recruit soldiers for the Company. His son (by a daughter of Datuk Bangkahulu), Daeng Makule, marries a daughter of Pangeran Mangkotaraja. The son by this marriage, Daeng Maropa, sails to Balambangan. The French attack Bangkahulu and Daeng Makule became their prisoner. When Daeng Maropa returns from Balambangan the French have left and he frees his father. Daeng Maropa dies in 1792. A second French attack takes place in 1793. Daeng Mabella, another son of Daeng Makule, subdues the Lebong people in 1797. In 1818 the Dutch take over Bencoolen. Daeng Mabella dies in 1832 (later addition ?). See also W., 'De familie Daing Mabella, volgens een Maleisch handschrift' in TNI 1874/II, pp. 115-121.

(2) ff. 9r-7v. Sila-sila Daeng Mabella. Latin script. Two pedigrees of Daeng Mabella on his mother's and his father's side. The pedigree on his mother's side was written by Radja Mas in Kampung Tembok on 15 August 1822.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 321-322, No. 715.

Or. 6206 - Or. 6227 (and Or. 8320, below)
Collection of Balinese manuscripts, presented to the Library by F.A. Liefrinck (1853-1927), received in April 1921. Descriptions of the contents of some of the manuscripts, written in Dutch and signed by Liefrinck, are enclosed, and these were used in the here following inventory. Several of the manuscripts here mentioned must be referred to Liefrinck's publications, De landsverordeningen der Balische vorsten van Lombok. Den Haag 1915. 2 vols. [99 D 1-2], and his Landsverordeningen van inlandsche vorsten op Bali. Den Haag 1917. [8196 B 19].

See for other manuscripts from Liefrinck Or. 6262-Or. 6263, below.

Or. 6206
Balinese, palmleaf, ?? ff., Balinese script, wooden boards, cord with yellow bead and Chinese coin.
Part of the land regulation of the rulers of Lombok, compiled by order of the last ruler. Liefrinck received this copy from Pedanda Made Sidemen in Cakra Negara (Lombok) in the latter years of the 19th century. The present manuscript was used (with Or. 6213, below) by F.A. Liefrinck in his book, De landsverordeningen der Balische vorsten van Lombok. The Hague 1915.
[* Lont. 735]

Balinese, palmleaf, ?? ff., Balinese script, wooden boards, cord with two bluw beads.
The most important part of the Balinese land regulation which was in force in Buleleng. Liefrinck received this copy in or around 1880 from a Balinese priest in Buleleng. The present manuscript was used by F.A. Liefrinck, together with other (loose) fragments in his book, Landsverordeningen van inlandsche vorsten op Bali. The Hague 1917. The date of compilation of the text is unknown.
[* Lont. 736]

Or. 6208
Balinese, Dutch, palmleaf, ?? ff., and paper, 16 ff., Balinese script, wooden boards, cord, illustrations.
Wariga. Astronomical calendar with at the end illustrations of the signs of the Zodiac. Acquired from Buleleng, in the 1880's, apparently without date of copying.
Added: 'Enige aanvullingen en verbeteringen bij een lontar-handschift van de Wariga in het bezit van den Heer F.A. Liefrinck. This part contains a copy in Javanese script, by a clerk, and additions and corrections on the text, written by J.L.A. Brandes (1857-1905) in Dutch.
Also added: A letter by J.L.A. Brandes to F.A. Liefrinck in Sukabumi, dated Kramat, 21 July 1890, by which the manuscript, which Brandes had borrowed, was returned to its owner.

Paswara. Collection 32 small bundles of fragments, all of different sizes and origins. All leaves contain regulations instituted by Balinese rulers in Lombok. They were used, together with Or. 6206, above, by F.A. Liefrinck in his book De landsverordeningen der Balische vorsten van Lombok. The Hague 1915. In the early days a complete collection of these texts must have been available in the Puri, but this was probably lost by fire during the war. The present fragments were found for Liefrinck from many different spots by the punggawa's, who often had kept copies for themselves. The fragments are from very diverse dates. Most of them contain a date of issue.

Javanese, Sasak, palm leaf, 188 ff. (132 double, 89 missing, 66 blank), Balinese script, copied in Tititoya, Gubuk Sunggil (f. 1b), kept in wooden boards with ornamental carving (floral design, originally gilt).
Hikayat Rasul. History, in verse, of the Prophet Muhammad and his descendants and successors, his daughter Fatima, his son-in-law Ali, who conquers Kasri (Basra?), his grand-sons Hasan (who is murdered) and Husen (who has a quarrel with Yasid). The end is abrupt. The idiom is Javanese, mixed with many Malay words (dengan, tampat). Probably the Javanese Hikayat Rasul is an adaptation of a Malay original. The Javanese spelling is bad. The script is Balinese, but, especially at the end, rather cramped, Lombok style. Or. 10.867-C, below, contains a list of of initial lines of cantos by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, p. 350.

Javanese, palmleaf, 106 ff., Balinese script, boards have wood-carvings.
Gajah Druma tale, belonging to the offshoots of the Menak Amir Hamza romance cycle (see Poerbatjaraka, Menak), in verse, of the elephant-headed King Gajah Druma and his daughter Drumawati, the dragon of the nether world Antaboga and his granddaughter Mertasutawan, and the tiger-headed King Duhnorikala and his daughter Imbarwati. In the course of time the three princesses became wives of Repatmaja, Amir Hamza's son. Hilir (al-Khidr) also plays a part in the tale. The manuscript is dated 1323 A.H. (1905 A.D.). It was written in Sela Parang (isle of Lombok). The script is Javanese-Balinese. The spelling is peculiar, especially with reference to the r ligated with an aksara. Copied and epitomized by Soegiarto, Or. 7225, below. See Pigeaud II, pp. 350-351, 423.

¶ Added is a letter (in envelope) in Dutch, by Mr. J. Vogelesang to C. Snouck Hurgronje, dated The Hague, 28 June 1921. The letter reads:
'Den Haag, 28 Juni 1921.
Hooggeachte Professor,
Bij dezen heb ik de eer Uwhooggel. een beschrijving te doen toekomen, van de wijze waarop de waktu teloe v/d Sembaloen vlakte hun gebeden verrichten, voorschriften t/o van de vasten, pitrah en huwelijk.
Ik publiceer ze ook in ons BB tijdschrift in een stuk over de Sasaks ter voorlichting van mijn collega's, maar ze lijken mij van zoveel belang, dat ik ze U direct toezend, temeer nu de redactie van vnd tijdschrift lang zit te overwegen over de opname van mijn stuk met het oog op de kosten van het afdrukken van eenige platen van de paradijsboomen, U welbekend.
Ik had het het U reeds eerder gezonden, als ik het niet juist ontdekt had. Toen ik het op Lombok ontving, was ik physiek en psychisch zoo op, dat ik het stuk overlezende de inhoud niet tot mij doordrong. Thans beter zijnde en het stuk inziende, zag ik ineens de belangrijkheid ervan.
Ter Uwer volledige inlichting, deel ik nog mede, dat het stuk afkomstig is van Raden Andji, districtshoofd van Pringgabaja, in welk district op een Rindjani-helling de hoogvlakte Sembaloen gelegen is. Een hoogvlakte geheel geisoleerd, aan weklke isolatie het te danken is dat de bevolking daar de w 3 nog ongeschonden bewaart en openlijk belijdt. Daar ik minime physiek er toe in staat was naar Sembaloen te gaan, heeft Raden Andji ind een Sasak naar de Sembaloen staat gezonden, die de gegevens heeft opgeteekend uit den mond van het hoofd (des-) van de sembaloen-vlakte.
Met de meeste hoogachting, verblijf ik Uwen dw JVogelesang.
P.S. Mijn excuses voor het stuk dat hierbij gaat, 't ziet er niet netjes meer uit, maar ik waag het niet te copieeren, omdat de hand van den Sasak duidelijker is dan de mijne.'

Javanese, palm leaf, 102 ff. (some counted twice), Javanese script, copied by Tirtadiwangsa of Tanggungan.
Babad Demak-Pajang. (Babad), in verse, of the kingdoms of Demak and Pajang, in Central Java, 16th century, beginning with the foundation of Bintara and ending in the Jipang troubles, parallel with the Surakarta Court History of Javanese kingdoms (the Great Babad).

The scribe, Tirtadiwangsa of Tanggungan, was an ignorant country man. The spelling is bad (prakta, wonteng, boteng, instead of prapta, wonten, boten, matri, pugawa instead of mantri, punggawa, etc.). The script is in the North Coast style, but irregular. The copy was made probable in the second half of the 19th century.

Original letter, with wax seal (damaged) dated Mulud (Rabi'ulawwal) 15, 1650 A.J. (1725 A.D.) of Susuhunan Amangkurat IV of Kartasura (Central Java) addressed to Mattheus de Haan, Governor-General of Batavia, 1725-1729, to offer congratulations on the occasion of the accession to office, mentioning several matters of some importance. The letter is beautifully written on glossy paper ornamented with small silver flowers. The leaves are joined so as to form one length of paper, 1.30 m long and 22 cm wide. The lines are 15,5 cm long. The letter was folded and kept in a gold-brocade cover, 5,5 x 24 cm, open at one of the short sides. See Pigeaud II, p. 351.

Javanese, palmleaf, 38 ff., Javanese script.
Incomplete copy (beginning and end are missing) of Kuda Pangriman, in verse (mixed tengahan metres, kadiri, pangkur, sritanjung, demung). The hero, a raden mantri of the Majapahit (or Kahuripan) King, is ordered by Tetet Semal, the King's servant, to find some magic medicine (oil) for his use. He marries two nymphs, Nilottama and Supraba, who procure the oil for him (from a wound made in his own breast). Having killed Nilottama's father, a yaksa, Kuda Pangriman returns with his two wives to Majapahit and offers the oil to the King and Tetet Semal. The King, desiring to possess the two nymphs, tries to kill Kuda Pangriman, by giving him difficult tasks to fulfill. In the end the King and Tetet Semal, trying to ascend to heaven in the same way as Kuda Pangriman, are killed by the breaking of a bamboo bridge over a ravine. Kuda Pangriman becomes King. According to KBNW, Tetet Semar is a servant of Undakari Pangrus. Kuda Pangriman is, according to the Malat romance (see Poerbatjaraka, Pandji-verhalen, p. 265), a prince of Putrasena, married with a princess of Singasari, Nawang Rum. This is not in accordance with the Kuda Pangriman tale of Or. 6251.

The script is irregular, old East Javanese. The idiom is reminiscent of the Sri Tanjung poem (edition Priono). The spelling is on the whole correct. Copies of J. Soegiarto's transcript are registered as Or. 10.675 and in BCB 153, where also a Dutch epitome (by J. Soegiarto). See Pigeaud II, p. 352.

Arabic, paper (photographs), 3 ff.

Photographic prints, made from a microfilm of a letter, and a postscript (mulhaq) to that letter, directed to Sayyid Barghash b. Sa`id, Sultan of Zanzibar (reigned 1287-1305 AH), coming from his sister Salima bt. Sa`id (Emily Ruete, 1844-1924), and written in 1883 (dating by E.J. van Donzel, on internal evidence from the letter, namely the death of Heinrich Ruete occurring thirteen years earlier). The photographs were made from handwritten copies of the originals. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 420. The letter has been published and translated by E.J. van Donzel in his work An Arabian princess between two worlds. Memoirs, Letters home, Sequels to my memoirs, Syrian customs and usages by Sayyida Salme/Emily Ruete. Leiden 1993, pp. 46-63. Van Donzel reproduces the transcript by C. van Arendonk (d. 1946) of the original photograph presently registered as Or. 6261. Van Donzel, op. cit., p. 46 refers for the original document to the Kirk papers.

Or. 6271 - Or. 6273
Collection of three manuscripts from the estate of colonel J.F. Breijer, who had participated, as a captain of the Dutch East-Indian army and in that function detached to the staff of general Lockhart, in the annexation of Upper Birmah in the years 1886-1887. The manuscripts were presented to the Library in December 1928 by Mrs. D.L. Keeman-Massink, colonel Breijer’s widow. Some relevant correspondence is kept in Or. 6271, below.

Or. 6271
Pali, 16 copper plates, both sides gold and red lacquer, Birmese script, between wooden boards, also ornated. Kept in a textile cover. In the straps belonging to that cover a text is woven, which is, in translation (by Tan Gwan Leong, The Hague, 24 January 1953) as follows:
‘May there be success. For this charitable deed, for this gift of a packet of letters, together with the string for tying them, may we be free from our hells, the eight undesirable places, the three undesirable deaths; and after travelling to and fro between the world of humans and the heavenly world, may we be free from want, and achieve character, knowledge and wisdom. We share this merit with our parents, grandparents, teachers, and all other living beings. Gift of Maung Phè and Ma Hline. May men and angels say of it: “Well done”.’
Kammavaca (?).
Added are several letters to C. Snouck Hurgronje, in Leiden, all concerning the transfer and identification of the manuscripts of Colonel Breijer:
- from W. Massink, The Hague, 20 October 1928.
- Mrs. M.E. Lulius van Goor (1866-1929), Leiden, 16 November 1928.
- from Mrs. D.L. Keeman-Massink, The Hague, 12 December 1928.
Also added: some notes, and some pieces of negative microfilm (35 mm).

Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, ff., 13/19th cent.
(1) ff. 1-16. Takhmis on a Qasida, beginning ila mata anta bil-Dhati Mashghulu. Dated 1227 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 425.
(2) – (5) ff. 18-36. Variouis poems, one of them called al-Qurtubiyya. This is followed by a commentary by al-Shaykh `Ali b. Matar. The last poem is by Abu al-Farag Ibn al-Gawzi (d. 597/1200), GAL G I, 500. Dated 1227 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 426.
(6) ff. 37-44. Lamiyyat al-`Arab by al-Shanfara (pre-Islamic poet), GAL G I, 25, with anonymous commentary. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 167.
(7) f. 45v. A formula of Talqin. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 451.
(8) ff. 46-47r. Nazm al-Kaba'ir allati dhakaraha Musa al-Hugawi fil-Iqna`. This refers to al-Iqna` li-Talib al-Intifa` by Musa b. Ahmad al-Hugawi (d. 968/1560), GAL S II, 447 (where erroneously spelt al-al-Khugawi). The Iqna` is an abbreviation of al-Muqni` by `Abdallah b. Ahmad Ibn Qudama al-Maqdisi (d. 620/1223), GAL S I, 688. According to Henri Laoust, Le précis de droit d'Ibn Qudama (Beirut 1950), p. xli, al-Muqni` is a compendium of al-Mughni, which in its turn is a commentary on al-Mukhtasar fil-Fiqh by `Umar b. al-Husayn al-Khiraqi (d. 334/945), GAL S I, 311. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 240.
(9) f. 47v. A geometrical calculation, in which the Hashiyat al-Muntaha is cited. Dated 1227 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 432.

Or. 6293 - Or. 6301
Collection of nine bundles of texts, word lists and notes made by J.C.G. Jonker (1857-1919), and presented to Mrs. P.H. Jonker-Lapère (Jonker's widow who died in March 1931) in May 1926 to the Library. At first these materials were registered in the department of Western Manuscripts as BPL Codex Misc. 2237 I-IX. In March 1931 they were transferred to the Legatum Warnerianum. A short description of the contents by Mrs. P.H. Jonker-Lapère (Jonker's widow) is added to the first exercise book in Or. 6293a.
¶ J.C.G. Jonker was from 1885-1902 a civil servant in the Dutch East-Indies with the task to conduct research on Indonesian languages in the Dutch East-Indies. He held posts in the 'Gouvernement van Celebes' and in the residency of Timor. From 1909 till his demise in 1919 he was professor of Javanese in Leiden University (note by Mrs. Jonker in Or. 6297).

Or. 6315 – Or. 6317
A Malay manuscript , two Malay letters and a scroll with formulas (in cylinder), presented on 14 December 1931 to the Library by Mr. J. Slagter (1887-1957) on behalf of a relative. The same origin for all three items is assumed (the kraton of Palembang) because of their common provenance. Only Or. 6315 has an attested Palembang origin.

Collective volume with texts in Malay, with some Arabic, paper, 79 ff., (ff. 1 and 79 dluang), copied by a Javanese from Mataram, oriental cardboard binding;;.
(1) ff. 2b-67a. Naqsbandiyyah (mystical treatise), Naqshbandiyya. containing a do'a (in Arabic with Malay introduction), the requirements for religious teachers, about the true meaning of religious service (followed by a mystical diagram), about the statutory origin of religious service, questions concerning the nature of religious service, about the spheres of the universe, reciting mystical formulae, the seven degrees of the mystical being, about mystical meditation, about the complete understanding of religion, about the four degrees of the student of religion, about the highest degree of those who dedicate themselves to mystical recitation (with mystical diagram), about mystical recitation according to Naksyibandiyah rite with various mystical diagrams, on the special signs and requirements of ecstasy at the recitation, about the allegorical meaning of mystical conceptions, about the knowledge of one's own being, etc.; ending with a treatise by Syaikh Najamuddin about the value of 33 letters and a treatise about the true belief. Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
(2) ff. 67b-74b. Risalat al-Asrar (Ilmu rahasia). As author is mentioned Haji Muhammad Zumharira. The text is purportedly extracted from the Ihya' 'Ulum ad-Din by al-Ghazzali. The author mentions Pangeran Qudus as his teacher, whose teacher was Sultan al-Syarif Muhammad of Mataram, whose teacher was Pangeran Jumeneng Ali Awaluddin, whose teacher was Pangeran Haji Syarifuddin. The text ends in mystical diagrams.
(3) ff. 74b-77a. Risalat al-Insan al-`Aqil al-Baligh. Ends with mystical diagrams.
(4) ff. 77v-78v. Risala fi Bayan as-Silsila, the silsila of the author beginning with Muhammad and ending with Haji Muhammad Zumharira (teacher of the author), followed by mystical diagrams; enclosed is a table of contents of Or. 6315 and Or. 6317 by P.S. van Ronkel. See also T. Iskandar, 'Palembang kraton manuscripts', in C.M.S. Hellwig & S.O. Robson (edd.), A man of Indonesian letters. Essays in honour of Professor A. Teeuw. Leiden 1986, pp. 67-72 (VKI 121).
Earlier provenance: On f. 2a is a note in Dutch telling that the MS was given as a souvenir by I.J. Kramers, born in the 3rd month of 1805 at Amsterdam, and that it was originally captured during the attack on the sultan of Palembang on 22 November 1824 by the same I.J. Kramers, 5 R: Art. 1e Bat: 2e Komp. On the same page is also the seal of Perabu Anom ibn ... (illegible) of Palembang with the year 1228/1813 (stamped by Kramers), as ff. 1 and 79 is pasted a letter addressed to Tumenggung Jayaningrat and dated 16 Ramadhan 1218/30 December 1803.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 324-325 (No. 723), was used for the present description.

Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, ff., 18th cent. ?
(1) ff. 1-39. Risala, by Muhammad Ibn Malik al-Nahwi, against the Qaramita. The addition al-Nahwi is probably an error of a scribe who thought that the author was the well-known grammarian Ibn Malik. It is, however, the renegade Qarmatian, who lived in the 5th century AH and wrote a 'celebrated treatise', used by al-Ganadi (ed. H.C. Kay, London 1892, p. 139 of the Arabic text). The work has been published under the title Kashf al-Asrar al-Batiniyya wa-Akhbar al-Qaramita, Cairo 1939. See also B. Lewis, The origins of Isma`ilism, London 1940, pp. 8-9. In our copy the text ends abruptly, as the last leaf is missing. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 289-290.
(2) ff. 41v-43. Nubdha min Sirat al-Imam Abi Muhammad Sarim al-Din. Anonymous biographical note about this Imam (d. 914/1508), GAL G II, 188. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 340.
(3) ff. 44-50. Mukhtasar al-Ma`arif, by Ahmad b. `Imran b. al-Fadl b. `Ali al-Yami, on horses, their qualities and their treatment. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 229.

List of manuscripts in the Haram Library in Mekka. The name of the library is not mentioned, but as the two manuscripts from the Mahmudiyya Library, mentioned by O. Spies, in ZDMG 90, p. 88, are found as Nos. 1 and ¾ of the chapter Tafsir, it is clear that this library must be meant. Eventually, the small collection of the Shirwaniyya may be included. The list comprises the following chapters: Qira'a: 12 titles; Tafsir: 110 titles; Hadith: 684 titles; Tawhid: 99 titles; al-Fiqh al-Hanafi: 211 titles; al-Fiqh al-Maliki: 31 titles; al-Fiqh al-Shafi`i: 17 titles; al-Fiqh al-Hanbali: 6 titles; Usul al-Fiqh: 34 titles; Tasawwuf: 154 titles; Adab: 97 titles; Nahw: 91 titles; Sarf: 21 titles; Balagha: 40 titles; Mantiq: 26 titles; al-Hikma wa-Adab al-Bahth wal-Hay'a wal-Falsafa: 29 titles; Tibb: 39 titles; Ta`bir al-Ru'ya: 8 titles; Ta'rikh; 75 titles; Lugha: 15 titles; Khawass: 12 titles; `Ulum Shatta: 7 titles. Mostly the title only is given, seldom the name of the author. Besides the number of volumes, the date of some manuscripts is given, and for a few the kind of writing is mentioned. Lists of remarkable manuscripts from some of the chapters have been added by C. van Arendonk (d. 1946). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 413.
Provenance: Sent to the Library by C. Adriaanse, in c. 1934.

In Or. 6379, volume 1, are mentioned: in canto 1: Nabi Adam in Mekah, Kabil killing his brother Abil and becoming the pupil of Idajil, i.e. Manik Maya. Kabil's younger brother Sis has many descendants: Nur Caliya and Nur Rasa, who are Kings of Kaci. Mekah and Kaci are at war. The Deluge. The birth of the gods: batara Guru, son of Wenang, and Uma.
Beginning with canto 4 Bandung Pragosa, Tamhud of Ajam (Ngajam) ing rat, and Medang Kamolan, also called Giling Wesi, are mentioned; canto 5: raden Baka;
canto 6: the gods carry the Mountain to Java, reaching Banten (babanten ing dewa) first.
From canto 7-17 follows the tale of Sinta, Landep and Watu Gunung, i.e. Tugena, buyut Purbengkara, and the wukus.
Cantos 18-25 contain the tale of Brama, ancestor of Kings in Giling Wesi, attacked by King Kuwaca Endra of Purwa Kanda, a demon. Finally Brama Raja is established as King of Indrapura, i.e. Giling Wesi.
In canto 26 the story of Wisnu and dewi Pratiwi, Antaboga's daughter, is told. Wisnu, having incurred the wrath of batara Guru, is made King of the spirits (lalembut) residing on mount Merapi. Pungguh, i.e. Semar, takes Pratiwi to Traju Tisna.
In canto 27 begins the story of Parikenan, son of Tritrusta, a wise man of mount Gajah Mungkur, father of Manungsa Mangsa. War of Citrabaha of Indrapura against Niti Kuwaca of Bruwaspurwa.
In Or. 6379, volume 2, follows the story of Citrabaha's son Dasamuka, of Ngalenka, called Rahwana. His vizir is Mangliawan, called Prasta. Rahwana appears to be an incarnation of Watu Gunung. Wisnu and his wife Sri Mendang take human shapes in order to resist Rahwana.
Story of Arjuna Wijaya, called Dasa Boja or Sasra Boja, of Maospati. Story of the monkeys Subali and Sugriwa.
Story of Dasarata, formerly called Ruwatmaja, of Mandrapura, brother of the King of spirits Adiserat Nakrawati of Bruwaskandi. Dasarata's queen Rego and Dasamuka's wife Bandondari are identical. Yasadarma, of Watu Gunung's line, is Sasra Boja's successor in Maospati, but he is killed by Bergawa. Maospati is left for Mandrapura. Birth of Retna Sinta, originally Kupat Sinta, daughter of Bandondari and Rahwana, adopted by Resi Kala of Mantili. She is won in an archery contest by Bergawa, Dasarata's son.
In Or. 6379, volume 3, the sequel of the Rama (i.e. Bergawa) and Lesmana (i.e. Murdaka) story is told. Birth of Anoman, son of Anjani.
The fighting in Ngalenka for Sinta is not told in Or. 6379 ‘because sufficiently well known’.
Canto 58 begins with the origin of the Pandawa line: story of Sutapa, son of Manungsamasa, father of Sakutrem, grandfather of Sakri, great-grandfather of Palasara. Story of Santuka, King of Kumbina.

In canto 70 the Rama tale is resumed after Rahwana's defeat: Butlawa, Sinta's son, marries Endra Kumala, daughter of Indrajit and rules in Durjayapura after Rama's retirement. His son is Kunti Boja. Explanation of the relation of Janaka, son of Rajarnana, with Sinta.
In canto 80 follows the history of Kunti Boja and his son Basu Keti.
In Or. 6379, volume 4, canto 86 the beginning of the Pandawa story is told: Palasara, accompanied by Semar and Bagong (Wangsa Gotra), assists Kunti Boja and defeats Jara Maya. Basu Këti rules in Mandura. Palasara cures Ambarwati, of Wirata; their son is Kresna Dupayana.
In canto 95 the story of the Kings of Ngastina (formerly Indrapura) begins: Sentanu's son is called Dewabrangta. Palasara makes Dupayana king of Ngastina, with the name Abiyasa. Sëntanu and Dewabrangta (i.e. Bisma) become Kings of Talkanda. Birth of Dustarata, Pandu and Widura. Story of king Mandrapati of Mandaraka, his queen Madrim, his son Narasoma and his daughter-in-law Secawati (canto 114).
In canto 115 follows the story of dewi Kunti, sister of Basu Dewa of Mandura, and Surya. Narasoma wins her in a contest, but he is forced to deliver both Madrim and Kunti to Pandu.
In canto 126 the birth of Kangsa, son of Gora Wangsa (who is an incarnation of Watu Gunung) is told.
Or. 6379 (volumes 4 and 5) contain further the Pandawa history up to the epigones Yudayana and Gendrayana of Ngastina. Ngastina and Ngerum are at war over dewi Sundari of Giyantipura, a vassal state of Ngerum (Sultan Ngabdul Karnen, 'agama' ruler). She was destined for Gendrayana (canto 150). Sundari is stolen from Giyantipura by the undagi Purbengkara and brought to Ngastina. But Purbengkara gets little thanks for his service: he is abandoned in a kite (layangan) which drops in China or in the country of the whites (kulit putih). Ngastina is vanquished by Ngerum and made Muslim.
Sundari's son Jaka Teja Garba is adopted by a widow and taught by begawan Suksena Jati of Kumbina (canto 157): instruction in statecraft and servants' virtues, also for the four sons of the widow the jakas Sindu, Wigena, Sela, Jana. The five jakas reconquer the Muslim Ngastina (Ujabdani) and reestablish buda authority.
In canto 161 Jaka Teja's appearance as prabu Jaya Baya is mentioned. Aji Saka, Suksena's son, builds a new kraton for him: Mulwapati Daha. Aji Saka is sent over sea to survey Java, future home of Jaya Baya's people and descendants, according to a 'pakem' received from batara Guru.
In canto 162 stories of Javanese spirits are told: Sri Kuning's son Jaka Galuh had three sons: Ariya Bangah, King of the 'siluman' of the Blambangan mountain, Ariya Tanduran of mount Merapi, and Ariya Siyung Wanara of Banten. Arya Bangah had a son, Arya Kilat, and two grandsons: Dadung Awuk and Ki Baru, a snake, who established himself at the foot of mount Karungrungan and mount Prababu (Merbabu). Story of the 'sada lanang' that is pulled up by a little boy, the flood, rawa Pening, Tuntang and Baru Klinting.
In canto 165 follows Aji Saka's survey of Java: names of mountains from west to east, with numbers 1-59. Aji Saka becomes King of Medang Kamulan instead of the man-eater Déwata Cengkar who, having ceded land as wide as Aji Saka's headkerchief (destar), which turns out to cover all his estates, plunges into the Southern Ocean and becomes a white crocodile (baya putih), King of the local spirits (siluman), with vizir Gajah Mina. Raja Angin-angin is another ruler of the ocean.

Aji Saka, now called Mudik Batara, has a son, a snake, Naga Linglung; mother: Rara Sumekar (canto 169). Naga Linglung vanquishes the white crocodile in the Southern Ocean (who becomes mount Liman) and is made King of the ocean spirits by Raja Angin-angin. He marries Retna Blorong. Returning to Mudik Batara he pops up from the earth in several places making lakes, and becomes prince of Tunggul Wulung. His mouth is like a cave, buffalo-herdboys take shelter from the rain in it.
Daniswara, Dewata Cengkar's son, receives instruction from his grandfather Sindula. As Aji Saka (Mudik Batara)'s 100 years term of survey in Java is up, Daniswara, assisted by his four wives, spirits of the Southern Ocean (Sangkaningrat), mount Merapi (Mayang Sari), Lodaya (Mayang Wulan) and mount Kembang in Tegal (Retna Wulan), drives him away, and he returns to Mulwapati Daha (Or. 6379, volume 6, canto 173), where King Jaya Baya gives him the name empu Sedah of Kumbina.
Jaya Baya receives predictions about future realms from a Muslim seh Samsu Jenalngali of tanah Kusuran, out of his kitab Mukarar, which is to be combined with the King's ‘pakem’.
Jaya Baya is succeeded by his son Jaya Amijaya, his grandson Jaya Amisena, his great-grandson Citrasoma, his great-great-grandson Pancadriya, his great-great-great-grandson Angling Driya, also called Angling Darma, who understood the language of the animals.
Beginning with canto 195 the Angling Darma tale is told: the princess of Boja Nagara, Rengawati, with her white mliwis (teal), the vizir Batik Madrim of Boja Nagara (Or. 6379, volume 7). Angling Darma was King in Mlawapati, his first son Angling Kusuma rules in Boja Nagara and his second son Danurwenda in Karta Nagara.
In Or. 6379, volume 8, canto 290 ff. the story of the Angling Darma line is continued. Angling Kusuma moves to a new residence, Kodrat, but, knowing that he will bc vanquished by the Muslims, he sends his son Awab Baliya to Java to settle there in the footsteps of Aji Saka. Sangkala 497 (575 A.D.) Awab Baliya, at first residing in Mendang Kamulan Sumedang, moves to Prambanan, which is built for him by Arung Bondan, of Bandan, who, coming from the east, first settled in Blora. After some time Blora is annexed. Awab Baliya is called Suwela Cala. He receives people from Kodrat, fugitives, after the Muslim conquest of that country.
Ardi Kusuma, son of Suwela Cala, marries Sri Wu!an Kusuma, daughter of Arung, Bondan; their son is Ardi Wijaya, who marries a princess of Sumedang. Ardi Kusuma rules in Prambanan as king Sri Maha Punggung. His son, in whom has entered the spirit of ajar Salukat of mount Cerme, succeeds him under the name Kandihawan. Vizir Jugul Muda is succeeded by his son Kutara.
Kandihawan's son Marta Wijaya marries princesses of Wleri, Roban, Jungmara and Ciyamis, and Rasaningsih, daughter of ajar Raga Jati of mount Prahu, whom he wins in a fight against spirits and demons. The earthquake spirit Lindu Pota-poti helps him.

The sons begotten by Marta Wijaya with his five wives are called: Panuntun, also called Panuwun, Tunggul Petung, Sandang Garba, Karung Kala and Dangdang Gendis (canto 317). Panuntun, from a Wleri mother, marries a Pagelen princess, and becomes King of agriculturers (wong tani), in Bagelen.
Tunggul Petung, from a Roban mother, marries a Madyun princess, resides first in Panaraga, and becomes King of palm-tappers (wong deres) in Prambanan.
Sandang Garba, from a Jung Mara (Japara) mother, marries a Lumajang (?) princess and becomes King of merchants (sudagar) in Jung Mara.
Karung Kala, from a Ciyamis mother, marries a Sukapura princess, and becomes King of butchers (wong jagal) in Bandung.
The youngest, Dangdang Gula (or - Gendis) is the son of Rasaningsih; he marries a Blora princess, and becomes King of men of religion (wong tapa) in the mountains, residing in Kuripan.
With Panuntun, Tunggung Petung and Karung Kala, and with the assistance of the Chinese (wong cina), Dangdang Gula vanquishes Sandang Garba who was allied with many Archipelago peoples outside Java and also with a Spaniard (wong Sepanol) called Ètor Danis, who sold him muskets (senapan). Sandang Garba is killed by the Chinese and buried in Tayu. The people of Jung Mara are moved to Tuban, to be ruled by Tisna Yuda, of the Blora family.
Dangdang Gula reigns in Kuripan under the name Sri Gentayu. like his father. His son Dewa Kusuma founds a residence in Janggala. Vizir Kulara is succeeded by his son Kapa-kapa and his grandson Jëksa Nagara (canto 322). The following (Panji and Majapahit) tales are better known than the preceding ones.
Dewa Kusuma has a daughter Rara Kili, the eldest, unmarried. His sons are Lembu Amiluhur, Lembu Mangarang, of Kadiri, and Lembu Midadu, of Gagelang, and his son-in-law Lembu Mijaya, of Singasari.
With the guidance of Jati Pitutur and Pitutur Jati, sages of mount Jembangan (Sumeru massif), who afterwards become his servants under the names Sadu Lumur and Menak Prasanta (a pair of brothers), Lembu Amiluhur wins his wife, the princess of Keling, over the sea, by pulling up a sada (rib of a palm-leaf, wand) which was fixed in the ground. Into Lembu Amiluhur and Lembu Mangarang enter the spirits of Wisnu and Sri Mendang, who were found by them in the shape of toads (kedindang, dindang) inside a black rock.
Lembu Amiluhur succeeds his father in Janggala. His vizir is Kuda Nawarsa, son of the wise vizir Murda Nasraya, who divides Java into four parts.
Lembu Amiluhur's son Inu Kertapati is engaged to be married with Retna Galuh Sekar Taji, daughter of Lebu MangangBermana Seti of Tal Kanda steals two children of Lebu Midadu of Gagelang and substitutes children of his own: Sarag and Sinjang Laga. The real princess and prince, educated by the sorcerer (who is Watu Gunung) are called Abe Kawerdeya and Klana Tunjung Pura, who becomes the ruler of Pulo Kencana.
Prasanta marries Lembu Amiluhur's eldest daughter Kanastren. Punta and Kartala are sons of Lembu Amiluhur, educated by Kala and Antaboga. Pamade is a foster-brother of Inu, both are educated by Kili Suci of Pucangan.

Panji Inu vanquishes Bërmana Sekti and Klana and succeeds Lembu Amiluhur as King of Janggala under the name Dewa Kusuma. His queen is called Dewi Galuh Candra Kirana. The Panji romance tales are told briefly, with the intricate family relations.
Panji Inu's son Raden Laleyan (canto 345) has similar adventures as his father; he succeeds and rules under the same name but moves to Blora, residence: Mendang Kamulan (canto 354). His Balinese vizir Baka usurps the throne, but finally he is vanquished. Laleyan, flying to Pasundan, becomes King of Pajajaran, and recovers Mendang Kamulan in Blora.
Prabu Baka's daughter Retna Candala is desired by her father. She flies and becomes the wife of Bandung, a descendant of Tunggul Wulubg of Prambanan, who, in the shape of a red dog, wins her by picking up the shuttle (tropot)) she dropped while weaving. Their descendants are kalangs. Bandung's previous try to win her by building 1000 temples (Candi Sewu) in one night failed because he was interrupted. He cursed the maidens of Prambanan who began their work too early in the morning to remain unmarried until the age others have already born four children.
Laleyan rules in Pajajaran under the name Prabu Galuh. He is succeeded by his second son Banjaran Sari.
His eldest, Raden Purwa, turns Muslim. Kaji Purwa's attempt to proselytize Prabu Galuh fails, because the elder sister Retna Rara of Banten wins in a contest.
Invaders from Manila are killed in Banten by Jaka Pekik and his wife Nahi Setomi, descendants of Karung Kala of Bandung. They are made vizirs and their names are given to the two captured cannon.
Banjaran Sari of Pajajaran is succeeded by his son Munding Sari, who founds a new residence, Bayabang. His grandson, Munding Wangi, has a daughter, Dewi Silih, who is won by a Dutch merchant (sudagar Wlandi), on an island near Jakarta, by curing her skin disease. Munding Wangi gives him land in Jakarta.
Munding Wangi is succeeded by his son Pamekas, who has a son Bangah with a Muslim woman from Gragé (Cërbon), a son Tandurart with his queen from Tuban, and a son Jaka Sarah or Siyurj Wanara with the daughter of buyut Krawatj. As Pamekas is prophesied that he is to be killed by his son, Siyung Wanara is thrown into the Kra-wat3 river. Saved by his grandfather, the buyut, he is apprenticed to the Pajajaran smith empu Sombro (Or. 6379, volume 9, canto 371), afterwards acknowledged by the King and given the name Banak Wide. He locks Pamekas in an iron room (the king disappears) and succeeds him in Pajajaran.
Tanduran, also called Jaka Suruh, flies to the East and founds Majapahit. Banah of Galuh flies also and becomes ruler of Tuban. Henceforth the district Lebak Siyu and the Pamali river are the boundary between Majapahit and Pajajaran.
Siyung Wanara is vanquished by Kumara, Bra Wijaya (i.e. Suruh)'s son, and made ruler of Banten. The Pajajaran smiths are moved to Majapahit.
Bra Wijaya is succeeded by Kumara, and vizir Wirun by his son Wahan. Kumara's favourite servant Ujung Sabata of Blambangan murders Wahan. Therefore Kumara is murdered by Wahan's son Jaya Sena of Kadiri.

Kumara is succeeded by his son Ardi Wijaya. Dandang Wacana of Tuban wins for Ardi Wijaya a princess of Bali, daughter of King Balalung, Dewi Sara, and marries himself her sister, Dewi Kancana Sari.
Jaya Sena is succeeded as vizir of Majapahit by his son-in-law Udara (or Mahudara). Udara sets out on a voyage as a Kaboja merchant and leaves his son Damar Wulan with his successor Lu Gender.
Invaders from Siyem, Kaboja and Suka-dana are beaten off by ajar Guntur Geni of mount Tengger, who is rewarded with land in Blambangan and the name Pamengger.
Ardi Wijaya is succeeded as King of Majapahit by his son Adaningkung, Dandang Wacana of Tuban by his son Rangga Lawe.
Adaningkung is succeeded by his only daughter Prabu Kenya Kancana Wungu, who is desired by Meak Jingga, a dog, adopted by Pamengger. Damar Wulan defeats Menak Jingga, whose secret, wesi kuning, is betrayed by his wives Wahita of Balega and Puyengan of Bangkalan. Menak Jingga first kills Rangga Lawe in battle. Damar Wulan is assisted by his servants Sabda Palon and Naya Genggong. He marries Kancana Wungu and becomes King Bra Wijaya of Majapahit. Their son Angka Wijaya is the last 'buda' king. Vizir Lo Gender is succeeded by his son Seta Kumitir under the name Gajah Mada.
The Majapahit King's criss Semelang Gandring, a heirloom of Suruh's, is recovered in Blambanan by the smith Supa (under the name Rombang). He is rewarded with Sedayu.
Angka Wijaya has a son with a demoness (raseksi) of Tayu. Their son Dilali or Arya Damar is made ruler of Palembang.
Angka Wijaya marries the daughter of a Chinese, kyahi Bantong, and gives Bantong land in Kedu. Damar is given Angka Wijaya's Chinese wife, who first becomes the mother of Patah, and then of Kusen, Damar's son.
Angka Wijaya's queen is a Cempa princess, Darawati, who has Arab, Muslim relatives. The queen's nephews Rahmat, son of Sayid Mustakim, and Jenal Kabir come to Java. Jenal Kabir settles in Grage (Cerbon). Rahmat calls at Japara and Tajug (Kudus), where he leaves a son, Undung, marries a daughter of Wila Tikta, the ruler of Tuban, and settles at last in Ngampel (Surabaya) as Sunan Ngampel Denta.
Invaders from Wandan Inggris are, in Gresik, beaten off by Sapu Jagad (afterwards called Sapu Laga) of Prabalingga.
Sons of Sunan Ngampel are sent out to make Muslim settlements: his eldest son, raden Seh, in Siti Jenar; Undung of Tajug in Kudus; Iskak (really a son of the Arab Molana Iskak married with the daughter of Menak Kadali Putih of Blambangan, afterwards adopted by the widow Pinatih of Gresik) in Gresik (Giri); Bonang in Lasem and Drajat in Tuban.
Patah, Sunan Ngampel's disciple, is sent to found Demak (Glagah Wangi). Kusen is made Pecat Tanda of Terung.
Jaka Sangara, son of a white crocodile and a niece of vizir Udara, vanquishes Menak Kadali Putih of Blambangan, marries Angka Wijaya's daughter Ayu Adi and is made ruler of Penggin, with the name Andayaningrat.
The Cempa queen Darawati is buried as a Muslim in Citra Wulari (1320 A.J.).
Angka Wijaya's son with a Wandan woman (who cures his raja singa, venereal disease), Bondan Kajawan is sent to Tarub.

The allied Muslims, commanded by Sunan Ngudung Kudus, attack Majapahit but are beaten off the first time. The first Sunan Kudus is killed by the Pecat Tanda of Terung. He is revenged by his son Iman, the second Sunan, who takes Majapahit by magic (bees, mice, spirits).
Angka Wijaya flies first to Sengguruh but is driven out. Then the goes to Bali Klungkung.
Patah of Demak is inaugurated as panembahan Bintara Jimbun; he is given the criss Sengkelat, made by Sura, son of empu Supa, the palladium of the Bra Wijaya family.
Sahid, son of Wilatikta of Tuban, a brigand, converted to Islam by Sunan Bonang, son-in-law of Sunan Cerbon, is the keystone of the Eight Saints (panutup ing wali wolu). He is called Sunan Kali Jaga. He is given the jacket Anta Kusuma found in the mosque of Demak.
Seh Siti Jenar is killed by the walis because of his heresy, and pangeran Panggung, son of Patah of Demak, is burnt alive with his two dogs, writing the suluk Malang Sumirang.
The son of Bondan Kajawan of Tarub, called Getas Pandawa, settles in Sesela as chief of Tamtamas, with the name Suta Wijaya.
Pandan Arang of Pulo Tirang settles Semarang, and batara Katong of Panaraga, son of Bra Wijaya (Damar Wulan) and Anja Smara, settles Kali Wungu.
Kali Namat is settled by a Chinese merchant, Wintang, whose ship foundered at Japara; he was converted to Islam by Sunan Kudus.
Sunan Kali Jaga is invited by Sultan Demak Tranggana, brother of Panembahan Jimbun Sabrang, both sons of Patah, to settle in Kadi Langu.
Sunan Bonang moves queen Darawati's grave from Citra Wulan to Karang Kumuning Bonang; he himself is buried in Tuban.
Suta Wijaya of Sesela once caught the lightning with his hand. He was succeeded by his son Enis; his grandson Pamanahan is sent to serve the King in Pajang.
Karebet, foster-son of Kebo Kananga, the son of Andayaninrat of Pengging (really Karebet's father was panembahan Sabrang of Demak) is prophesied great power. On account of this prophecy Kebo Kananga schemes against Tranggana of Demak, but he fails and is killed. Karebet is adopted by the widow of Tingkir. He is sent by Sunan Kali Jaga to serve the King in Demak as chief of Tamtamas under the name Jaka Tingkir. There he kills Dadung Awuk of Pingit in Kedu, by pricking him with a sadak (betel leaf). Fallen into disgrace he becomes a disciple of ki gede Butuh of Cengkal Sewu, and of buyut Banu Biru. Accompanied by his servant Manca Majasta (descendant of Jaran Panoleh and his son Jamba Leka of mount Dumilah, who belonged to the Bra Wijaya family), Jaka Tingkir goes on a raft, pushed by crocodiles, on the river to Butuh and further to Prawata. Being pardoned he is made by Tranggana ruler of Pajang under the name Sasraningrat.
Tranggana is succeeded in Demak by his son pangeran Prawata, who murdered his father's younger brother Saba Kingkin to reach his aim.
Prawata is murdered by arya Panangsang, ruler of Jipang, Saba Kingkin's son.
Sunan Kali Namat, the Chinese Wintang, married with a daughter of Tranggana, tried to revenge his brother-in-law's death. He is also killed by Panansang.

The widow Ratu Kali Namat, in retreat, naked, on mount Danaraja, makes Sasraningrat of Pajang pledge himself to kill Panangsang.
Mangkubumi, son of Pandan Arang of Semarang, deeply impressed by Sunan Kali Jaga's miraculous power, renounces the world and settles with his wife in Bayat.
Tranggana of Demak ordered Mangkubumi to move an audience-hall (pasowanan) of the outer court (alun-alun) of Majapahit to Demak to make a front-hall (surambi) for the mosque.

Further up to the reign of Paku Buwana II of Kartasura and the Chinese troubles (Or. 6408b, p. 1-429). Lastly up to the end of the Chinese troubles and the recovery of Kartasura with the assistance of the Dutch Company's forces (Or. 6408c, pp. 1-406), also called babad Pacina, dated 1798 A.J./1869 A.D., followed by:
1. History of Yogyakanta during the British interregnum, the reigns of Amengku Buwana II, III and IV (Or. 6408c, pp. 407-482), also called Babad Spehi (i.e. Sepoys), and:
2. A short account of the Dipa Nagara war (Or. or. 6408c, pp. 482-498).
Moreover Or. 6408b contains:
1. A Dewa Ruci tale (Sena Maguru, Bima seeking wisdom with bagawan Durna) with an introduction mentioning the Pandawa's genealogy beginning with Adam (pp. 429-484), and
2. A similar tale of raden Sasra Wijaya seeking wisdom (pp. 485-522), dated 1874 A.D., both in verse.
Or. 6408a mentions as author of the babad pangeran arya Suryaningrat of Yogyakarta; the copy is of the year 1825 A.J./ 1894 A.D. The script and the versification are in the Kitab Tarekat dan Moendjijat Tarekat. Or. 6457 b, below, is a romanized copy of the present MS. Notes on Muslim mysticism and theology, copy of a manuscript belonging to the panghulu of Bandung (Hadji Hasan Moestapa), made for G.A.J. Hazeu, probably in 1908 (the date of Or. 6457 b, below). Mainly in Sundanese, only p. 164-185 contain a Javanese prose treatise on the Shattarïya tarika. Pigeaud II, p. 379 only mentions the romanized copy, Or. 6457 b, below.

The label on the front cover says that the book was made for C. Snouck Hurgronje, Witte Singel 84a, Leiden, which was then corrected into Hazeu's name. Sent by Hadji Hasan Moestapa, Hoofd Pangoeloe, Bandung. It also gives a breakdown of the expenses for each volume: 6.50 guilders. See Edi S. Ekadjati, *Naskah Sunda. Or. 6458
Javanese, Sundanese, paper, 46 pp., Javanese script.
Notes (*primbon*s). Copies made for G.A.J. Hazeu of five manuscripts (four written on palm-leaves and one on bamboo laths) found in the Ciyamis district.
The manuscripts I and II contain lessons on Muslim mysticism and theology. In II pangeran Dekeh (Dukuh) instructing seh Munajat is mentioned.
In manuscript III short treatises on divination, auspicious and inauspicious days, eclipses and earthquakes are found.

Manuscript IV contains the kidung Rumeksa ing Wengi and a mythological text mentioning Narada, ki Artati and ni Rumasih, probably an exorcism.
Manuscript V, on bamboo laths, contains an incantation beginning with: aung ku sang lara wana aung ku sang lara wani ra wana urip ing peting ra wani urip ing berang, evidently non-Muslim.
Apparently the original manuscripts were damaged and difficult to read. The spelling is defective. The idiom is rustic, old-fashioned Javanese but not classic Old Javanese. Manuscript V seems to have Sundanese spellings and words.
See Pigeaud II, p. 380, where the MS is referred to as Or. 6458 a.

Or. 6463 Hazeu No. 165
Malay, Arabic, treebark paper (dluang), 112 ff., different hands, illustrations, on ff. 1-2 are notes with the dates 1 Dzulhijjah 1168 (8 September 1755), 15 Dzulkaedah 1171 (21 July 1758), 8 Muharam 1174 (20 August 1760), 30 Ramadhan 1179 (12 March 1766), 4 Muharam 1195 (31 December 1780).No. 12 is dated Thursday 20 Syawal 1181 (10 March 1768) (f. 31r in the margin).
A Malay primbon from Banten: Kitab nujum (Iskandar's given title). On the cover is a label: 'Maleisch Primbon uit Bantam. 1909'.
The volume is mainly about divination, but also includes mystical treatises and related Islamic texts. The sub-numbers given by Iskandar have been maintained in the description below, whereas the additional items, which are indicated with letters, were not separately distinguished by Iskandar.
(1a) ff. 1r-2r. Notes in Malay, with dates (see above).
(1b) f. 2v. A note in Arabic on a matter of Islamic law.
(1) ff. 2v-4r. Arabic. Bab Ma`rifat al-Islam wal-Iman, which is anonymous theological tract, very common in Indonesia.
(1c) ff. 4v-5r. Arabic. Hadith, containing a conversation between the Prophet Muhammad and Gibril.
(1d) f. 5v. Arabic. A quotation from a work entitled al-Irshad. The quotation mentions several dates in the biography of the prophet Muhammad. In the margins are notes in Malay on the same or related subjects.
(2) f. 6r. Malay. Dates in relation to the life of the Prophet Muhammad.
(3) ff. 6v-9r. Arabic. Chronological tables, with explanation and other practical information concerning the Prophet Muhammad. On ff. marginal notes in Malay.
(4) f. 9r. Arabic. List of children and spouses of the Prophet Muhammad, and a note on the Islamic lunar calendar.
(5) ff. 9v-10r. Malay. A note on the measurements of the Masgid al-Haram in Mekka. From a work called Rawd.

(5a) f. 10r (continued in the margins of ff. 10r-9v). Malay. Notes concerning the Ka`ba in Mekka.
(6) ff. l0v-11r: Arabic. Note on Awlad al-Zina, and Awlad al-Shubha.
(6a) f. 11r. Arabic. Note on the annullment of marriage.
(7) ff. 11v-12r: Malay. Notes on Planet divination with a Gadwal (the planets against the days of the week).
(8) ff. 12v-15v. Malay. Bab bilang rejang. And other chapters.
(9) ff. 15v-16r. Malay. Bab ini peri bulan kena kala.
(10) ff. 16r-19r. Malay. Bab ini peri nimia payghambar ... Followed by other chapters. In the margin of f. 16r are divination notes on the basis of the days of the week.
(10a) f. 19r. Malay. Notes of astrological nature, with explanation of the twelve signs of the Zodiac, including a Bab pada menyatakan ...
(11) ff. 19v-20v. Malay. Inilah Sembahyang .... A treatise about ritual prayer.
(11a) ff. 20v-21r. Malay. Shorter notes of varied nature.
(12) ff. 21v-31r. Malay. Fa'al. Fa'al of the prophets, on the basis of letter combinations. On f. 29v the drawing of a naga (illustration) and on f. 30v is a kind of panggorda drawing in connection with Fa'l for the days of the week, a sort of Ikhtiyarat text; on f. 31r in the margin (where the text is continued) the date of copying Thursday 20 Syawal 1181 (10 March 1768).
(13) f. 31r. (written upside-down) Malay. Bab pada menyatakan hari yang tujuh tujuh nahas [...].
(14) ff. 32r-31v. Malay. Bab ini pada menyatakan naga besar...
(14a) f. 32v. Malay. The letters of the Arabic alphabet, provided with small circles, apparently to indicate their numerical value. The list may belong to text No. 12, above.
(15) ff. 32v-33a, in the margin. Malay. Bab ini pada menyatakan rasa nama orang [...].
(15a) f. 33a, margin. Malay. Bab ini pada menyatakan perkara ... orang ...
(15b) ff. 36r-33a. Malay. Bab ini pada menyatakan juga ada orang datang ...
(15c) ff. 36a-35b, margin. Malay. Bab ini pada menyatakan bung baris juga baris ...
(15d) f. 36v. Malay and Arabic. The beginning lines only of an Arabic text (large script) on Sakarat al-Mawt, with interlinear notes in Malay. At the end a short prayer in Malay. Apparently an anticipation of No. 15, below.
(15e) f. 37a. Malay. Notes on the life after death.
(16) ff. 37v-40r. Arabic, Malay. Bab Sakarat al-Mawt. Arabic text (large script) with interlinear Malay translation. Illumination with the word Allah in the margin of f. 39r.
(16a) ff. 40v-41r. Arabic. Notes on `Alamat al-Mawt, signs of coming demise.
(16b) ff. 41r-v. Malay. Notes on `Alamat al-Mawt, signs of coming demise.
(17) ff. 41v-47r. Malay. Mystical treatise. In the margin of f. 41v is a mystical diagram with elements of the Shahada. The text starts with a Hadith. Tuhfah al-mursalah, Insan Kamil and Hamzah Fansuri (with a commentary on his syair) are quoted. At the end (f. 47r) some unraled noted notes, partly crossed out.
(18) ff. 47v-48r. Arabic, Malay. Request for a Fatwa asked from the Imam's in Balad Allah al-Haram concerning an opinion expressed by al-Sayyid `Alawi Ba Faqih b. al-Sayyid Abi Bakr Ba Faqih al-`Alawi al-Hasani. Arabic text (large script) with interlinear Malay translation. Only the Su'al is given, there is no Gawab.

(18a) ff. 48r-b. Malay. Treatise on the meaning of La ilaha ila Allah.
(18b) ff. 48v-50r. Malay. Another treatise on the meaning of La ilaha ila Allah. At the end a name or source: Gami`i (f. 50r). On f. 51r his name is given as Muhammad Gami`i.
(18c) f. 50v. Malay. Note on Haqiqat Allah.
(18d) ff. 50v-51r. Arabic. Note on the use of a negation in the Shahada.
(18e) f. 51r. Arabic, Malay. Short quote from Muhammad Gami`i. Arabic (large script) with interlinear Malay translation.
(19) ff. 51v-52r. Malay. Ini peri menentukan bilang jawarib (?) ...
(20) ff. 52v-63v. Malay. Mystical treatise, on jism, ruh, dzikir, etc. Mystical diagrams in the text (ff. 54v, 61r, 62v). Several margins contain notes on related subjects.
(20a) ff. 63v-64r. Malay Mystical diagram, and personal notes by a later hand, dated 1260/1844 and 1262/1846.
(21) ff. 64v-66r. Malay. Texts and (coloured) diagrams and illustrations for the purpose of divination. Also illustration of compasses for divinatory purposes. And a Gadwal.
(22) ff. 66v-67v. Malay. Martabat tujuh.
(23) ff. 67v-71r. Malay. Ini risalah pada menyetakan amal orang syaria dan amal orang tarika.
(24) f. 71v. Malay. Fasal pada menyatakan [...] syajarah ilm ma'rifat allah ... With mention of Syaikh Muhammad b. Husainji Jumaid.
(25) ff. 72r-74v. Malay. Fasal pada menyatakan peri nisbat [...].
(25a) ff. 75r-v. Malay. Note on Sifat (?).
(26) f. 76r. Malay. Adapun hakikat insan yang wasil kepada Haqq ta'ala. From here on, all texts are written as if from the other side of the volume. The text which is presented by Iskandar under No. 27 as one treatise about the salat and the muqarana of Allahu akbar, is in fact a conglomerate of shorter texts, which probably never were one composition.
(27a) f. 76v. Malay. Bab inilah nitinya sembahyang qada' al-`umr. With a niyya formula.
(27b) f. 77r. Malay. Bahwa ini niya membelah haqiqa ... Niyya formulas for ritual shaving and for slaughter.
(27c) ff. 78r-77v. Malay. Notes on the Hadith, in which the Prophet Muhammad says that ritual prayer consists of four things.
(27d) ff. 81v-78r. Malay. Ini suatu muqarana dari pada tuan Syaykh Ishaq namanya di Negri Arab Bayt al-Faqih nama negrinya ... Bayt al-Faqih is a town in Yemen, north of Zabid.
(27e) ff. 83r-82r. Malay. Shorter notes, on mystical matters, with mystical diagrams on each of the three pages.
(27f) ff. 85v–83r. Malay. Fasl fi Bayan al-Dhikr.
(27g) ff. 86v-85v. Malay. Notes on ritual prayer, Salat.
(27h) f. 86v. Malay. Diagram of the conditions of ritual prayer, Salat.
(27i) ff. 99v-87r. Malay. Treatise on ritual prayer, Salat. Beginning has the Arabic Niyya formulas. Occasional notes and additions in the margins.
(27k) ff. 102r-100r. Arabic. Incomplete copy (abrupt end) of a work on Arabic morphology (Sarf), beginning: (basmala) al-Hamdu lillah al-Muta`ali ...
(28a) ff. 103r-102v. Javanese, Malay (?). Unidentified text, partly with Malay interlinear translation.
(28b) f. 103r. Malay. Ilmu malaika.
(28c) f. 103v. Malay. Du`a', doa. Prayer.

(28d) ff. 104r-103v. al-Tagwid wa-Makharig al-Huruf. On Qur'an recitation and the articulation points.
(29) ff. 110r-104v. Arabic. Treatise on the letters and their grammatical functions, in Arabic. The treatise begins with an enumeration of the twenty-two sorts of Alif in the Arabic language, compiled by Abu al-Qasim.
(30) ff. 111v-110v. Several shorter religious texts, in Malay or Javanese (?).
The Arabic texts not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.

Dated March 1910 (p. 28), with a postscript on p. 28, in Dutch, by the assistant-resident of Krawang.
The MS is apparently a copy of the original.
The text, pp. 1-28, contains the genealogy of the Krawang regents starting with Praboe Ampel Gadieng, the first regent of Galoeh, down to Adiepatie Praboe Siengaperbangsa, the 7th regent of Galoeh and the first of Krawang. With the tenth Regent, Toemenggoeng Sienga Negara, the date 1732 is given. The text ends with with Radhen Ariea Toemenggoeng Sastradieningrat (1863), on p. 16. On pp. 17-28 is the genealogy of menak of Bogor.
Added on a loose insert: Sadjarah (geschiedenis) Boepati Toeban. The text, ff. lv-4r, contains the genealogy of the bupati of Tuban starting with Ario Randoekoening and ending with the 36th bupati, Raden Adipati Ario Koesoemodigdo (31 March 1893).

Nitik Sultan Agungan in verse, by pangeran arya Candra Nagara of Yogyakarta, written for the Ratu Ageng, queen of Amengku Buwana VI and mother of Amengku Buwana VII, at the latter's request (?). The two copies a and b are identical. At the end the text is also called serat Cabolek. It contains legendary and miraculous tales about Sultan Agung of Mataram and his family. The text is different from that in Or. 6476, above. It is dated 1838 A.J. (1908 A.D.). This date refers to the Candra Nagara copy, probably. See also Or. 10.841 and Or. 11.655 (1), below. See Pigeaud II, p. 383.

Salsila Sinoehoen Goenoeng Djati Tjirebon, by Pangeran Adipati Mohamad Djamaloedin Aloeda, acting Sultan Sepoeh (signature on p. 6), in Kraton Kasepoehan Tjirebon; dated 12 October 1910. The text contains a genealogy starting from Raja Pakuwan of Pajajaran and ending with the death of Sunan Gunung Jati. It is an abridged Malay translation (of a Javanese work?). Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue, p. 332 (No. 737), was used for the present description.

¶ Iskandar, Catalogue, p. 332, No. 738, erroneously mentions a totally different text under this class-mark. It says: Qur'an translation, 6 pp., paper.
The text contains copies of articles from newspapers dated 5, 8, 12, 21 December 1908, concerning the conflict surrounding the Javanese translation of the Qur'an at Solo. Enclosed are three letters (correspondence between G.A.J. Hazeu and H.P.J. Blok, assistant-resident of Solo), dated 30 December 1908, 23 January 1909 and 4 February. The correct class-mark of these materials is Or. 6495, below.

Or. 6496 Hazeu No. 236
Dutch, Javanese, Malay, paper, c. 60 ff., Javanese and Latin scripts, loose papers in sheaf.
'Stukken over Kjai (Mas) Soemotjitra'.
Contents described in Pigeaud's hand: 'Kyahi Mas Suma Citra, Purwarija, Bagelen. Theosophy 1912. Offical advice of Dr. D. Rinkes'.
The case which is documented here shows the concern of some Javanese, which they voiced to some Dutch officials, in respect to the doctrines preached by Suma Citra. In the end, after investigations, the matter did not seem to be serious and was brought to the attention of the Adviser of Indigenous Affairs. His assistent, D. Rinkes, wrote an advice with which the file opens.
The sheaf contains:
Draft version of the official advice from D. Rinkes to the Gouvernor-General, No. 98 (secret), dated Weltevreden 7 May 1912. 10 pp. Dutch. With the 16 enclosures which follow hereafter.
Copy of a letter from Kasaungoelomo to the Adviser of Islamic affairs. 2 pp., Malay.

Purwa Ukara, notes on Yogyakarta Court subjects originally made for pangeran Suryanagara of Yogyakarta, dated 1779 A.J. (1850 A.D.) (?). An abstract belonging to raden tumenggung Sasra Nagara of Yogyakarta, which was copied for G.A.J. Hazeu in 1901. Contents:
(1) Sangkala, years of the Javanese Princes and the Dutch Governor-Generals.
(2) On bagongan, the Yogyakarta Court idiom.
(3) On Danu Reja, vizir of Yogyakarta, in verse.

(4) On the Court troops (prajurit).
(5) On some marriages in the Yogyakarta Royal family about 1850.
(6) On the members of the Yogyakarta Royal family, genealogy.
(7) On gamelan and wayang.
(8) On flags (diwaja, i.e. dwaja) and state sunshades (songsong).
(9) On the ceremonies of the receipt of an official letter (nawala) from Surakarta.
(10) On the annual garebeg ceremonies.
(11) On the ceremonies of a visit of the Governor-General at the Yogyakarta Court (pajindralan).
(12) On the tiger-spearing ceremony (rampok) on the outer courtyard (alun-alun).
(13) On the number of the Court troops: 1598 men in all.
(14) The names of the Dutch Residents of Yogyakarta.
(15) On the ceremonies of the anniversary celebration of the King of the Netherlands (tahun Raja).
(16) On the ceremonies of the annual celebration of the Sultan's ascending the throne (panjenengan): a bundle of gold, silver, copper and iron wires of the same length as H.H. is cut in short pieces and so divided among the principal courtiers, and offerings mainly consisting of clothes are sent to Mancingan on the South coast and to the top of the mountains Lawu and Merapi. Offerings of impure food, snakes etc. are placed at the: gates, ponds, privies etc. in the Royal compound for the (chthonic) spirits (dangyang, ambahureksa). The annual celebration of the Sultan's birthday is not accompanied by as many offerings as the panjenengan function.
(17) On the maleman community meals in the last decade of the Fast (Ramelan) month.
Added are some notes on important events, e.g. the opening of the railway of Yogyakarta in 1872.
The text is in the Yogyakarta idiom: a conversation of a nobleman with his servant who provides the information. See Pigeaud II, pp. 388-389.

Travels of mas juragan Soma Reja of Wana Reja, Banumas, together with mas hajji Abdur Rakim bin Malik, in 1883 and 1884. Having received a summons of pangeran Suryengalaga to come to Yogyakarta, they set out from Wana Reja for that city, but already in Kuta Arja (p. 19) they were told that the pangeran (who had the purpose to organize an insurrection against the Dutch government) was arrested. He was to be exiled.

In Yogyakarta the two men heard from the people of the Sultan's Court how the Dutch Resident had nipped the pangeran's enterprise in the bud. Nevertheless wishing to join him, Soma Reja and Abdur Rakim changed their names into raden Rakmat and hajji Nur Jali (p. 48) and set out from Yogyakarta to Magelang, and further via Semarang to Surabaya and. Madura, Bangkalan. They had many adventures, mainly in the circles of kyahis and santris (men of religion). The cause of Suryengalaga seems to fall into the background. The story ends abruptly in Bangkalan.

'Copie van een Primbon uit Pasoeroean'. Notes on prayers to be said on many occasions: travelling, working in agriculture etc., charms, *rajah*s, divination, beginning with the kidung Rumeksa ing Wengi. The paragraphs are carefully numbered and rubricated, up to No. 1232. Par. 297 on p. 172 is eschatological, referring to Ngisa descending from Heaven. The second, smaller volume (Or. 6575 b) is a table of contents. Copy of a manuscript from Pasuruhan, 1908, made for G.A.J. Hazeu, who probably ordered the scribe to add the numbers and to make the table of contents.
Or. 6575 a contains the texts, and Or. 6575 b is an extensive table of contents of the 1232 paragraphs in Or. 6575 a.
See Pigeaud II, pp. 395-396.
Or. 6575 is also mentioned in Voorhoeve's Handlist of Arabic manuscripts (1957), as some of the texts in the volume can be considered to be in Arabic:
Handlist, p. 67 (Du`a'), and this rather a generic reference as Or. 6575 is in fact full of prayer texts.
Handlist, p. 279 (Ayat lima welas, a selection of 15 ayat). Verses from the Qur'an.
Handlist, p. 434 (chronology), referring to Or. 6575 a, No. 294, on pp. 161-170.

(1) pp. 1-183. Kitab Nur Muhammad in prose, called Darma Sunya, on cosmogony and processes of growth of the individual, ascribed to Yogiswara of Pamenang, in 16 chapters (in the Rangga Warsita manner). See also MS CB 145 (l) c.
(2) pp. 184-327. Life of Muhammad, in verse, called Anbiya (history of Prophets), beginning with Ngabdul Mutalib up to the tale of Muhammad's mother Aminah, before his birth.
(3) pp. 330-572. Darma Gandul, in verse, tale of the fall of Majapahit and the end of the last king Bra Wijaya, abandoned by his son of Demak in his war against the Muslim *wali*s. After the sack of Majapahit Bra Wijaya first flies to Blambangan but then, at the request of sunan Kali Jaga, converted to Islam, he returns to Ngampel (Surabaya). His servants Naya Genggong, and Sabda Palon have a discussion with Sunan Kali Jaga, refuse to be converted and disappear. Bra Wijaya dies in Ngampel, bemoaned by the *wali*s, and is buried in Trawulan. The tale begins with a tour of sunan Benang (i.e. Bonang) through the district of Kadiri to make conversions: he meets Kalang people of Karta Sana who worship Bandung Banda Wasa on Friday -Wage of the wuku Wuye. As they are considered to be neither red nor white (abang-putih: irreligious-religious) their district is given the name Kuta Gedah (gedah: glass). Similar aetiological tales are mentioned referring to the river Brantas. Sunan Benang is opposed by Buta Lo Caya, King of the Kadiri spirits whose human name is Sumbre, and by nahi Plencing, the danyang of Sumur Tanjun. Sunan Benang also decapitates a bicephalous horse statue referring to womanhood. At the end (p. 567) the four graveyard plants: semboja, selasih, turugajah and getakkucing, (piskucing) are mentioned. The tale is provincial Kadirinese, and conservative Javanistic. Darma Gandul is represented as the disciple of Kalam Wadi who answers his questions. The Darma Gandul tale will be published and discussed by G.W.J. Drewes [apparently never published].
(4) pp. 572-603. Tale of the settling of Java by order of the Sultan of Rum, in, verse. The Sultan sends tuwan Subakir to settle Java with Keling people. Subakir drives out the evil spirits by means of the tumbal magic placed in mount Tidar (near Magelang, Central Java). He meets Semar and Togog of mount Merbabu, the senior *danyang*s of Java, and gives them prophecies about future Kings.
(5) pp. 603-610. Genealogy of ancient Kings, beginning with Adam up to the five sons of resi Jatayu, in verse.
(6) pp. 610-614. On Javanese astronomy and the seasons (*mangsa*s), in verse.
(7) pp. ??. Jaya Baya prophecies in verse up to the defeat of the Prenggi King by the Sultan of Rum, according to the kitab Musiral of Sultan Ngali sèh Samsu, mentioning the seven dishes of ajar Subrata (allegory).
Or. 6606 is written by different hands, rather slovenly. Origin: East Pasisir. A Ja-vanese epitome is added. On the back of the cover the book is called: 'Nitik Darma Gandul'. See Pigeaud II, pp. 400-401.

Or. 6620
Javanese, palmleaf manuscript, leaves without numbers, 15 ff. with 4 lines and 5 ff. with 3 lines, Javanese script.
Notes in prose:
(1) 15 ff., sequence uncertain. Lessons on Muslim mysticism and theology, kawula-gusti doctrine, mentioning the example of Wisnu and Krsna, in prose, clumsy writing, not blackened, West Javanese North-Coast script (several *paten*s instead of *pasangan*s), perhaps 18th century. At the end: kang nganolis raga tapa (Raga Tapa, a name?).
(2) 3 ff., written by another hand, still clumsier, 3 lines on a leaf side. Divination referring to the seven days, their prayers (puji) and their prophets (nabi).
(3) 2 ff., by the same hand. Genealogy of deities beginning with Guru Bayu and Rasulula, down to a list of four *ratu*s of the points of the compass: south: Malik Matana of Sacang, ruler of earth-quakes and fever; east: Manik Rayana of Roban, ruler of lightning; north: Manik Gumilang of Lodaya Tegal Butak, ruler of storms; and west: Manik Lumegan of Tegal Lubu, ruler of fiery rain (udan geni). The text seems to be an incantation beginning with the basmala. Six leaves are blank. A romanized transcription by J. Soegiarto is in BCB 158 and Or. 8312 g, below. Origin:
West Java. See Pigeaud II, p. 403.

Or. 6621 Hazeu No. 100
Javanese, palm leaf, 132 ff., Balinese script.
History of Lombok Islam, in verse (macapat), beginning with Anbiya tales: Adam, Idris and Nuh, the Flood. The false religion (agama kapir wratsani) was originally Adam cult, and afterwards propagated by Garada of Keling. The four daughters of Nuh: cat (south), dog (north), horse (east) and woman (west) married the makers of the Ark after the Flood. Origin of Lombok settlement: Lae (the Old), the beginning of rice cultivation, cotton (kapas), clothing and kingship in Lombok.
Intercalation of a Menak Amir Hamza tale: the Talsamad war.
A Keling pandita, Garedah (Garendah, Garada) brought the wratsani belief to Java and converted the King of Majapahit. The King's four sons were sent to the other islands, i.a. Bali and Lombok, with the new belief, and the inhabitants were converted and made subjects of Majapahit. A disastrous eruption of mount Renjani is mentioned in that period. The capital of Lombok, Pamatan, was ruined, but it was rebuilt.

A romantic tale of the war of the Lombok King and demung Brang Bantun (also on the island of Lombok) for Sadu Baya's wife Saroni.
Lastly the conquest of Lombok (Sugiyan) and Sembawa by pangeran Prapen, the son of sunan Giri, the apostle of Islam. Islam was brought to Java from Cempa; Jatiswara is mentioned. The history ends abruptly.
The idiom is East Javanese, the spelling is defective, though the writing is clear enough. Probably 19th century (some Dutch words are found in the text). See for a transcription of the initial lines of the cantos and a Dutch epitome by J. Soegiarto: Or. 10.677, below, and also in BCB 159. See also Or. 6442, BCB 41 A and MS Amsterdam, KIT A 4852. Or. 6630 Toba Batak, paper, 69 + 8 pp., Latin script, dated 9 January 1914 and signed by the copyist, N.S. Tobing (p. 69), modern half-cloth binding.
(1) pp. 1-69. Toeritoerian taringot toe Radja Manik Mortomboek Hobol. See OVB, p. 129, No.112. After a story of the Radja Ihutan of Pasaribu Dolok in the district Barus, recorded by N. Surman Lumban Tobing during a tour of E.Gobée as 'controleur B.B.' in the course of 1913. These details are found in an account of the tour, which the writer has added at the end. See P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici, p. 239.
(2) 8 pp. Hata patoedjolo. Draft version, with corrections, of the account of the tour by E. Gobée (see above) from Monday, November 10, till November 16, 1913. Itinerary on last page. Dated Baros, Friday, February 20, 1914, signed N. Surman LT, who is also the copyist of the first text.
Provenance: Presented by E. Gobée to the Library on 8 March 1934.
[* Mal. 1491]

Or. 6631
Javanese, palm leaf, damaged, crumbling, 130 numbered ff., many missing, Javanese script.
History of Javanese kingdoms, in verse, beginning with the founding of Demak up to the meeting of the Sultan of Pajang with the East-Javanese princes in Giri. Fairly good writing, Central Java, probably 19th century. The initial lines of cantos have been noted by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, p. 405.
Provenance: Purchased in 1934 from Mrs. Roeloffs Valk-Ferguson, The Hague.
(Lont. 725)

Or. 6632 - Or. 6643
Collection of Arabic manuscripts from the Yemen. Purchased in the Yemen on behalf of the Library by C. Adriaanse († December 2, 1964), who was then Dutch chargé d'affaires in Jeddah. Registered in June 1934.

Or. 6632
Arabic, paper, 3 vols., dated 1275 AH, 1276 AH.
Hashiya by Sulayman al-Gamal (d. 1204/1790) on Tafsir al-Galalayn, by Galal al-Din al-Mahalli (d. 864/1460), GAL G II, 114, and continuated by Galal al-Din al-Suyuti (d. 911/1505), GAL G II, 145. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 353.

(Ar. 2661 – Ar. 2663)

Or. 6633
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, ff.
(1) ff. 3-75. Washy San`a' wal-zahr alladhi taba yan`a, by Muhsin b. al-Hasan b. al-Qasim b. Ahmad (18th cent.). The author is mentioned in GAL S II, 547, No. 19. This is the second volume of his chronicle entitled al-Sahr al-Mubin. The last volume comprised the years 1093-1130. This second volume brings the continuation up to 1152 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 401.
(2) ff. 76r-204r. Book 1 and 2 of Tabaq al-Halwa wa-Sihaf al-Mann wal-Salwa by `Abdallah b. `Ali al-Wazir (1118/1706), GAL G II, 399. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 348.
(Ar. 2664)

Arabic, paper, 211 ff., dated 1346 AH.
Al-Kashif li-Dhawi al-`Uqul `an Wuguh Ma`ani al-Kafil bi-Nayl al-Su'ul*, commentary by Ahmad b. Muhammad b. Luqman al-Yamani (11/17th cent.) on *al-Kafil bi-Nayl al-Su'ul fi `Ilm al-Usul by Muhammad b. Yahya Ibn Bahran al-Basri al-Yamani al-Sa`di (d. 957/1550), GAL S II, 557. A copy with marginal glosses throughout. The glosses are different from those in the printed edition of san`a' 1346. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 145-146.
(Ar. 2665)

Or. 6635
Arabic, paper, 62 ff., dated 1351 AH.
Anonymous commentary on al-Thalathun al-Mas'ala fi Usul al-Din, or Misbah al-`Ulum fi Ma`rifat al-Hayy al-Qayyum by Ahmad b. Muhammad al-Rassas al-Hafid (d. 656/1258), GAL S I, 701. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 360.
(Ar. 2666)

Or. 6636
Arabic, paper, 27 ff., dated 802 AH.
A gloss with Qawluhu on a brief work on Fiqh, probably Shafi`ite. Fragment beginning in Kitab al-Hagg. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 445.
(Ar. 2667)

Or. 6637
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, ff., dated 1351 AH.
(1) ff. 1-116r. Kitab Simt al-Guman fi Sharh al-Risala al-Nasiha lil-Ikhwan, partial commentary (on the first half only) on al-Risala al-Nasiha bil-Adilla al-Wadiha by al-Mansur billah `Abdallah b. Hamza (d. 614/1217), GAL G I, 404. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 310.

(2) ff. 116r-128r. al-`Iqd al-Thamin fi Ma`rifat Rabb al-`Alamin, by al-Amir Badr al-Din al-Husayn b. Muhammad b. Ahmad b. Yahya al-Hadawi. A Zaydi catechism in the form of questions and answers. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 133.
(Ar. 2668)

Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, ff., dated 1154 AH.
(1) ff. 1-45. Incomplete copy of al-Muthallath fi `Ilm al-Raml, by `Abdallah b. `Ali Ibn Mahfuf al-Munaggim (d. before 800/1397), GAL S II, 367. The title is not found in the present manuscript. On the title-page: ... al-Dabt fi Tahqiq `Ilm al-Khatt (first word illegible). In the first sentence, where MS Berlin, Ahlwardt 4200, has `Ilm al-Ghayb, this copy has `Ilm al-Khatt, but on the whole, the text seems to be the same. This part of the manuscript looks older than another part which is dated 1154 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 244.
(2) ff. 46-107. Disconnected fragments of works on astronomy. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 434.
(3) ff. 108-133. al-Madkhal ila `Ilm Ahkam al-Nugum, by `Abd al-`Aziz b. `Uthman b. `Ali al-Munaggim al-Qibti (read: al-Qabisi) (d. 356/967), GAL S I, 399. Dated 1154 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 175.
(4) ff. 134-160. al-Madkhal fi `Ilm Ahkam al-Nugum, by Abu al-Qasim `Ali b. Ahmad al-Nalkhi (8/14th cent. ?), GAL S II, 298. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 174.
(Ar. 2669)

Or. 6639
Arabic, paper, 166 ff., dated 1084 AH.
Hashiyat al-Sayyid, probably a gloss by al-Sayyid al-Sharif al-Gurgani (d. 816/1413) on al-Muwashshah, commentary by Muhammad b. Abi Bakr al-Khabisi (d. 801/1398) on the Kafiyat Dhawi al-Adab fi `Ilm Kalam al-`Arab, by Gamal al-Din `Uthman b. `Umar Ibn al-Hagib (d. 646/1249), GAL G I, 303. The text seems to be a direct commentary to the Kafiya, however, rather than a gloss. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 146-147.
(Ar. 2670)

Or. 6640
Arabic, paper, 144 ff., partly modern.
Incomplete copy (end corresponds with f. 96v of Or. 6368, above) of al-Azhar fi Fiqh al-A'imma al-Athar by Ahmad b. Yahya Ibn al-Murtada (d. 840/1437), GAL G II, 187. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 33.
(Ar. 2671)

Or. 6641
Arabic, paper, 202 ff.
Hashiyat Sharh al-Matali`*, anonymous fragment of a gloss on *Lawami` al-Asrar, commentary by Qutb al-Din al-Razi al-Tahtani (d. 766/1364) on Matali` al-Anwar by Sirag al-Din Mahmud b. Abi Bakr al-Urmawi (d. 682/1283), GAL G I, 467; S I, 848. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 203.

(Ar. 2672)

Or. 6642
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, 121 ff., dated 1017 (f. 62r), 1026 (f. 75r), remnant of leather binding (spine only).
(1) ff. 1-62r. An untitled work on hereditary law. Dated 1017 AH. Dated Friday in Rabi` I 1017 (colophon on f. 62r). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 445.
(2) ff. 62v-63v. The beginning only of Bab Sifat al-Qiyama wa-hiya Khamsun Mawqifan. Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
(3) ff. 64r-75r. Bab Asbab al-Mirath, a work on hereditary law. Dated Wednesday 2 Dhu al-Qa`da 1026 (colophon on f. 75r).
(3a) ff. 75r-76v. Shorter notes and quotations. Squares (f. 75r), a quotation from `Ali b. Abi Talib (f. 75v), a Mugarrab (f. 75v), min Amali al-Sayyid Abi Talib (f. 76r). With these are probably meant the Amali of al-Imam al-Natiq bil-Haqq (d. 424/1033), GAL G I, 402, arranged by Ga`far b. Ahmad Ibn `Abd al-Salam Ibn Abi Yahya (d. 570/1177), GAL S I, 699, under the title: Kitab Taysir al-Matalib min Amali al-Sayyid al-Imam al-Natiq bil-Haqq Abi Talib. And notes of medical nature (f. 76v). Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
(4) ff. 77r-88v. al-Thalathun al-Mas'ala fi Usul al-Din, or Misbah al-`Ulum fi Ma`rifat al-Hayy al-Qayyum by Ahmad b. Muhammad al-Rassas al-Hafid (d. 656/1258), GAL S I, 701. This copy lacks title and author's name. It was identified with MS Berlin, Ahlwardt 2360. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 360.
(4a) f. 89r. Tanbih al-Takalif.
(4b) f. 89v. Shorter notes, one titled Hisr al-Baqiyat.
(5) ff. 90r-119r. Books I-IV of al-Bahr al-Zakhkhar al-Gami` li-Madhahib `Ulama' al-Amsar, by Ahmad b. Yahya Ibn al-Murtada (d. 840/1437), GAL G II, 187; S II, 244. With a few notes in the margin. As Brockelmann's description of both al-Bahr, and the author's own commentary entitled Ghayat al-Afkar wa-Nihayat al-Anzar al-Muhit bi-`Aga'ib al-Bahr al-Zakhkhar, is confusing, Voorhoeve has set out to bring some order in this state of affairs. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 37-39. On the title-page (f. 90r): Kitab al-Qala'id fi Tashih al-`Aqa'id Ta'lif Mawlana al-Imam Qawam al-Din wal-Islam ... Amir al-Mu'minin al-Mahdi li-Din Rabb al-`Alamin Ahmad b. Yahya b. al-Murtada ...
(6) ff. 119r-121r. A note on the interrogation in the grave. Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
(7) f. 121v. Lines of poetry, followed by a prayer (or amulet text). Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
[* Ar. 2673]

Or. 6643
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, pp., 'modern', dated 1348 AH.
(1) ff. 1-25. Kitab Gawharat al-Fara'id al-Kashif li-Ma`ani Miftah al-Fa'id, commentary by Badr al-Din Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Naziri, on Miftah al-Fa'id fi `Ilm al-Fara'id by al-Fadl b. Abi al-Sa`d al-`Usayfiri (d. 600/1203), GAL S I, 702. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 209.

(2) ff. 27-56. al-Kafil bi-Nayl al-Su'ul fi `Ilm al-Usul, by Muhammad b. Yahya Ibn Bahran al-Basri al-Yamani al-Sa`di (d. 957/1550), GAL S II, 557. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 145.
(3) ff. 60-107. Kafiyat Dhawi al-Adab fi `Ilm Kalam al-`Arab, by Gamal al-Din `Uthman b. `Umar Ibn al-Hagib (d. 646/1249), GAL G I, 303. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 146.
(Ar. 2674)

Or. 6644
Persian, paper, some damage due to copper oxidation, 239 ff., nasta`liq script, text in frame and folled on each page in the margin, full-leather quasi-Islamic binding with flap, and with gilded ornamentation.
Kulliyyat-i Mirza Barq Salim. The collected poetical works of Barq Salim, using the takhallus Salim.
Earlier provenance: Oriental royal owner's stamp on f. 1a, text almost entirely illegible. On f. 239b owner's stamp of J. O'Kinealy. He may be James O'Kinealy (1837-1903), who was an administrator and judge in the British-Indian civil service.
Provenance: Purchased from Mr. Roskam in August 1934.

Hikayat Gorontalo dan Limboto.
A. 30 ff. Latin script, the same copyist as Or. 6665, above (Rahamullah, Kapitan Laut at Limboto). Text in Malay influenced by the local language. The text contains the history of Gorontalo and Limbotoand is divided into 4 fasal.
ff. lv-4r. Fasal 1; begins with Wadipalapa, ruler of Gorontalo, who with his Buginese brother-in-law, Sairigade (= Sawerigading ?), ruler of Lubu, is on his way to conquer the countries around the bay. The story ends with the subjugation of Tomini by Raja Amai.
ff. 4r-17r. Fasal 2. The text begins with the war between Gorontalo and Limboto, and ends with the restoration of peace and fraternity between the two countries.
ff. 17r-21v. Fasal 3. The arrival in Teluk Tomini of the people of Mandar as pirates, followed by the arrival of other tribes. Maranuwa, a Mandar, is adopted as a son by the ruler of Gorontalo. An account of the Dutch administration in Gorontalo, and the deposing of the ruler of Gorontalo.

ff. 21v-29r. Fasal 4. The genealogy of the ruling families of Palu and Sawisu.
B. 16 ff. Arabic script. The same text (ff. 1r-10v) as A, above.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 355-356 (No. 765), was used for the present description.
Earlier provenance: Collection J.G.F. Riedel (1798-1860).
(in Mal. 1463)

Or. 6668
Malay, paper, 24 ff., Latin script, the same copyist as Or. 6665, above (Rahamullah, Kapitan Laut at Limboto).
Hikayat Tawaddud. Text of Gorontalo origin. It contains the famous Arabian Nights story of the learned slave girl Tawaddud, who requests her master to sell her because he has fallen on hard times. She is led before Harun-al-Rasyid; the ruler is impressed by her beauty and in particular by her intelligence. He pays the required price but leaves her with her master. The romanized transliteration is rather poor because the transliterator (apparently a European) did not understand certain words. See also Ph.S. van Ronkel, Catalogus der Maleische handschriften in het Museum van het Bataviaasch Genootschap van Kunsten en Wetenschappen. Batavia 1909, pp. 138-139. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 356 (No. 766), was used for the present description.
Earlier provenance: Collection J.G.F. Riedel (1798-1860).

Roolvink, 'The variant versions of the Malay Annals', in: BKI 123 (1967), pp. 301-324, especially p. 308. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 356 (No. 767), was used for the present description.
Earlier provenance: Collection J.G.F. Riedel (1798-1860).
(in Mal. 1463)

Or. 6670
Malay, paper, 33 ff., Latin script.
Hikayat Sama'un. Title on the cover: Hikayat Samauna.
The text contains the story of Sama'un who could talk at the age of three days. He forces his parents to embrace Islam, fights Abu Jahal, and as a companion of Muhammad also fights Bakti, ruler of Sari. The text shows the same peculiarities as MS Jakarta Cohen Stuart 31. See also Ph.S. van Ronkel, 'Het verhaal van den held Samâ'oen en van Mariah de Koptische', in TBG 43 (1901), 444-481; and H.N. van der Tuuk, 'Verslag van een Maleisch verhaal, behelzende de lotgevallen van Sama'un', in BKI 13 (1866), 357-360. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 356-357 (No. 768), was used for the present description. See for a similar version Or. 6722, below.

Earlier provenance: Collection J.G.F. Riedel (1798-1860).
(Mal. 1464)

Or. 6671
Malay, paper, 23 ff., Arabic script.
Ceritera Fir`awn dan Raja Mesir. A version of Gorontalo origin. The text contains the story of the birth of Musa, son of `Imran, and of Fir`awn killing the infants. Also about the pharaohs of Egypt and the life of Moses. The text ends abruptly. Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 357 (No. 769), was used for the present description.

Or. 6701 a-f
Collectiion of texts in Arabic, paper, portfolio with fragments from different origins, naskh script in several different hands. Apparently a bundle of fragments coming from Aceh (see the name of the copyist of Or. 6701 a, and the language of Or. 6701 f), or from Indonesia anyway. Possibly also materials in Malay and Acehnese.
[*Ar. 2701]

Or. 6701 a
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, 22 ff., naskh script, copied by Teuku `Umar and son (ff. 10a, 19a), sewn, without binding.
f. 1a. Scribbling, pen trials and notes (in Arabic).
(1) ff. 2v-10r. Nuzhat al-Tullab fil-Kashf `an Qawa`id al-I`rab, anonymous rhymed compendium (urguza) of al-I`rab `an Qawa`id al-I`rab by `Abdallah b. Yusuf Ibn Hisham (d. 761/1360), GAL G II, 23. Copy with many notes. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 134.
(2) ff. 10v-11v. A short treatise on the formation of the infinitive, beginning: I`lam anna al-Masdar fa`ala yaf`a(u,i)lu fil-Ghalib wa-huwa Fa`lun bi-Sukun al-`Ayn. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 415.
(3) ff. 15b-19a. Incomplete copy (one leaf at the end torn out) of an unidentified work on grammar, possibly entitled Muqaddima. It is wrongly identified by Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 236, as al-Muqaddima al-Agurrumiyya, by Ibn Agurrum (d. 723/1323), GAL G II, 237. Nor is it the Muqaddima fil-Nahw, also known as al-Muqaddima al-Kafiya al-Muhsiba fi Fann al-`Arabiyya, by Abu al-Hasan Tahir b. Ahmad Ibn Babashad (d. 469/1077), GAL G I, 301. Beginning:

Or. 6722
Malay, paper, 59 ff., Arabic script, dated 23 April 1850.
Hikayat Sama'un. The text contains the story of Sama'un who could talk at the age of three days. He forces his parents to embrace Islam, fights Abu Jahal, and as a companion of Muhammad also fights Bakti, ruler of Sari. The text shows the same peculiarities as MS Jakarta Cohen Stuart 31. See also Ph.S. van Ronkel, 'Het verhaal van den held Samâ'oen en van Mariah de Koptische', in TBG 43 (1901), 444-481; and H.N. van der Tuuk, 'Verslag van een Maleisch verhaal, behelzende de lotgevallen van Sama'un', in BKI 13 (1866), 357-360. The text is in general similar to Or. 6670, above.
Texr from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 360-361 (No. 783), was used for the present description.
Earlier provenance: Formerly in possession of J.C. Fraissinet (his signature, at the end).

(1) Letters, in Sundanese.
(1a) Letter in Malay, Latin script, addressed to G.J. Grashuis in Buitenzorg, dated 16.2.1865. And other letters in Malay, also in Arabic script, addressed to Grashuis.
(2) Letters, in Javanese. A few are addressed to Taco Roorda in Leiden, 1873. Added: lexicographical notes, Javanese – Dutch, apparently made during the reading of the Javanese letters.
Also a table with a Bugis-like alphabet.
See Edi S. Ekadjati, Naskah Sunda. Inventarisasi dan Pencatatan. Bandung 1988, p. 254, where there is extremely confusing information. No other conclusion can be drawn than that Ekadjati's notes have been mixed up. He mentions, among other things: Wawacan dongeng Kebo Bangka Duluran, Wawacan Dongeng Nu Miskin, Seh Abdullah, Aki Bolong , with reference to G.J. Grashuis, Soendaneesch leesboek. Copies of Javanese manuscripts, presented to the Library in June 1936 by Th.G.Th. Pigeaud (1899-1988), in Yogyakarta.

Or. 6750

Javanese, paper, 131 pp., Latin script..
Romanized copy of Or. 2138 (2), above, being Panji Ngron Akung, romance in verse, beginning with the pseudo-Old Javanese initial prayer awighnam astu namas sidem, dated at the end 1751 A.J., i.e. 1823 A.D. Cat. Vreede pp. 169-172 has a Dutch epitome. A more extentive Dutch summary in Poerbatjaraka's Pandjiverhalen, p. 92 (Angron Akung), where 1686 A.J., i.e. 1760 A.D. is mentioned as the original date of the poem. (Pigeaud II, p. 73). See Pigeaud II, p. 411.
(Mal. 1668)

Javanese, paper, 124 pp., Latin script..
Romanized copy of Or. 1825, above, being Panji Murta Smara, Panji romance in macapat verse. Tale of the war between the Javanese kingdom, especially Jenggala, and Bali. Panji, appearing as a foreign prince, vanquishes the Bali ruler who proves to be his promised wife Candra Kirana, princess of Kadiri, in disguise. In the final battle Panji has the shape of Smara (Asmara). The Balinese pseudo-King is called Klana Puspita. Panji's brother Braja Nata helps him, disguised as wasi Jaladara. Another brother, Carang Waspa, also called Sujana Sastra, marries ni Kumuda, princess of Ngurawan (Gagelang or Bahuwarna). The theatre of the war is said to be Pasuruhan (Gembol)). The tale ends with the union of Panji and Candra Kirana. Cat. Vreede pp. 163-166 has an extensive Dutch summary. See Poerbatjaraka, "Pandji-Verhalen onderling vergeleken", in KBG 1940. Or. 10.867, below, contains a list of initial lines of cantos by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, pp. 35-36. See Pigeaud II, p. 412.

Romanized copy from the collection Pigeaud (made for Th.G.Th. Pigeaud in Yogyakarta in 1937), of Or. 1807, above, being Parta Yajna, poem in macapat verse on four episodes of Parta (Arjuna)'s life as dramatized in the wayang purwa plays. The author (or editor) raden rangga Nayadipura seems to be continuing the work of his father on the wayang plays Lokapala and Parta Krama, dated 1245 A.H. and 1757 A.J., i.e. 1829 A.D., and written at the order of the princes Purubaya and Arya Maitaram in the Pijenan period. Ngabehi Sindusastra is mentioned as the author of the genealogies.
Parta Yajna, versification of the wayang purwa plays Parta Krama, Srikandi maguru manah, Sembadra larung and Cekel Endralaya, by Sindu Sastra (Parta Krama edition: Portier, Surakarta, 1875, and Bale Pustaka, Batavia), dated 1829 A.D., re-edited by his son Nayadipura, dated 1850 A.D.
See Arjuna Sasra Bahu, Or. 1813, above. Cat. Vreede pp. 227-240 has an extensive Dutch epitome and references to older literature, in connection with Or. 1807, above. See also Partha Yajna in Or. 5024, above. Or. 10.660, below, is a romanized copy by J. Soegiarto, a copy of of which is also kept in BCB 142 I, 142 II., below. See Pigeaud II, pp. 30-31. Note: E.P. Wieringa, Catalogue of Malay [...] manuscripts, 1 (1998), p. 294. mentions this class-mark as being another copy of the catalogue of the J.A.W. van Ophuijsen collection. This is incorrect, however. A confusion has taken place, and the other copy of Van Ophuijsen's collection is in fact Or. 12.169 (3), below, which has as shelf mark Mal. 6796 (hence the confusion). See Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 366-367 (No. 794), where the same confusion seems to haven taken place. Iskandar describes the same texts twice (!), also under Or. 12.169, below, and in quite a different way (see T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 628 (No. 1279)). Iskandar's description of Or. 6796 should be ignored.

Or. 6810
Collective volume with texts in Persian, Arabic, paper, ff., nasta`liq script, one copyist, illustrations, full-leather Islamic binding with flap, with traces of blind tooled ornamentation faintly visible, rebacked.
(1a) ff. 1a-6a. Arabic, Persian. Notes, magic squares, magic alphabets, calculations, etc.
(1) ff. 6b-48a. Persian. A work on arithmatic without indication of author or title. Divided into three chapters (Maqala). Maqala 1: Dar Hisab-i Ahl-i Hind (ff. 6b-28b); Maqala 2: Dar Hisab-i Ahl-i Tangim (ff. 28b-42a); Maqala 3: Dar Misahat (ff. 42a-48a). Dated 27 Gumada I 1058 (colophon on f. 48a). Figures: On f. 11b a table of multiplication (1-9), and other tables in the margins (ff. 13b, 14b, 16b, 17a, 19a, 31b, 33a, 33b, 34a, 35b, 36a). Drawings in the margins (ff. 42b-44a).
(2) ff. 48b-76b. Arabic. Khulasat al-Hisab by Baha' al-Din Muhammad b. al-Husayn al-`Amili (d. 1030/1621), GAL G II, 414-415. The text is dedicated to Abu al-Ghalib Sultan Hasan Bahadur Khan (=?, f. 49a). Identified with MS Berlin Mq. 728 (2), Ahlwardt 5998. Extensive glosses in the margins. Calculation tables, both in the text and in the margins, similar to those in No. 2, above. Dated Monday 24 Safar 1059 (colophon on f. 76b, name copyist made illegible). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 161.
(2a) ff. 76b-77b. Arabic. Mas'ala extracted from a work entitled Bahr al-Hisab, incomplete at the end (abrupt end on f. 77b). This work is described as min Kitabina al-Kabir al-Mawsum bi-Bahr al-Hisab, but it is not clear who its author is. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 161.
(3) ff. 78b-118b. Arabic. Commentary by Haggi Husayn al-Yazdi on Khulasat al-Hisab by Baha' al-Din Muhammad b. al-Husayn al-`Amili (d. 1030/1621), GAL G II, 414-415. The commentary mentioned in GAL G II, 415, No. 8 c; GAL S II, 596, No. 8 h. This same commentator had akready written another commentary on the same text, which he named al-Mubayyin, and to which he here refers. Quotes from the Matn are distinguished by red overlining. Dated 8 Muharram 1060 (colophon on f. 118b, where the year has been changed into 860, in order to make the manuscript look older; the text makes this date of 860 AH impossible, however). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 161.
- On f. 119a two geometrical problems, in Persian.

Mandean, paper, c. 70 ff., loose leaves in a sheaf.
Drase de Malka. Copy made of a copy made by Julius Euting (1839-1913) in Strasbourg, of MS Paris Codex Sabéen 12 (new number 10) of the BNF in Paris. Then the present copy was collated with the Paris codex and also corrected. The variant readings of MS Paris Codex Sabéen 7 (new number 9) were noted down on leaves inserted between ff. 1-5. After that they were indicated in the copy by writing them in green ink. De inserted leaves contain the variant reading of MS Paris, Codex Sabéen 6 (new number 9) and of MS Oxford, Huntington 71 in the Bodleian Library, and the result of collations with fragments in the British Library. The subscriptions (?) of the codices were copied and hereto added (note by B.D. Eerdmans, dated Leiden, July 27, 1938).
Since the making of Eerdman's copy the text has been edited by Mark Lidzbarski (1868-1928), Das Johannesbuch der Mandäer, vols. 1-2 (Giessen 1905-1915). Eerdmans had wanted to edit the text, but Euting had omitted to confirm his exclusive permission to do so to Eerdmans, and then Lidzbarski did the job.
Added: A letter from B.D. Eerdmans to the Legatum Warnerianum, dated Leiden, 27 July 1938, offering the present manuscript. An addition in the enclosure in the letter is a strip of paper, with a drawing of a man on one side, and a few notes on the other side. The fragment originates from the original Paris codex.
Provenance: Received on July 27, 1938 from Prof. B.D. Eerdmans (1868-1948).

Hikayat Mesa Gumitar. The text contains the tale of a descendant of Batara Kala who comes down to earth to become ruler of Janggala. His three sons become rulers of Kuripan, Daha and Gagelang; a prince of Kuripan (Raden Inu, Misa Gumitar, Satria Wirawangsa, Sira Panji) is in search of his fiancée the princess of Daha (Raden Galuh, Kinanglir Sari, Panji Anglir Sari) who had been kidnapped by Batara Boma and abandoned in the jungle of Gagelang; on the advice of Batara Kala she performs tapa. In his peregrinations Raden Inu (Misa Gumitar) subjugates many countries (among others Mataram, Lasem, Senggora and Temasik) and marries many princesses, among others Raden Galuh of Gagelang, a cousin of his fiancee. When both spouses meet it is a problem who will become the permaisuri. By order of the Batara of Kuripan the princess of Daha becomes the permaisuri. See T. Iskandar, Kesusasteraan klasik Melayu sepanjang abad. Jakarta 1996, pp. 221-8. This story has already been mentioned by Valentijn in 1726. Two other MSS and a syair are found in Britain (MS Cambridge Add. 3764 A: Hikayat Mesa Gemitar Damar Ulan Seri Panji Hang Asmara, MS London, RAS Malay 135: Hikayat Mesa Gemitar Kesakmalara Seri Panji Agong Asmara, a typescript of part of a MS in Kelantan, and MS London, British Library Add. 12381: Syair Mesa Gumitar), M.C. Madurese study materials, received on August 6, 1943, from the Legacy of Mr. E. Rijke, some of which may have come from the estate of his father Dr. P.L. Rijke (1812-1899). Thus is written in 'Journaal', p. 133, but it remains to be seen why a physicist as P.L. Rijke would own materials as brought together in this small collection.
Mr. E. Rijke was a retired civil servant from the Dutch East-Indies. According to a note in Or. 6863, below, Mr. E. Rijke was president of the 'Landraad' of Sampang and Pamekasan, in Madura, then on leave in the Netherlands.
In his testament, dated 6 December 1933, he had bequeathed these manuscripts to the Legatum Warnerianum in Leiden University Library. He died in Leiden on January 26, 1943 (note in Or. 6854 a).

Madurese, Dutch, paper, 4 vols., 466, 462, 384, 385 ff., modern half-cloth bindings, pasted boards.
H.N. Kiliaan, Madoereesch-Nederlandsch woordenboek. Leiden 1904-1905. Column cuttings, pasted on large, folio-sized, leaves, provided with extensive notes and remarks, by the author, H.N. Kiliaan. It is a set of the text of this dictionary, made ready for a new edition. In a note on the first foornote of the new preface (in Or. 6854a), Kiliaan writes: 'Den tijd dat een herdruk van dit werk noodig mocht blijken, zal de schrijver wel niet meer beleven, en misschien zal die tijd ook nooit komen.'
¶ Note that the printed book Leiden OosHss 813 D 8-9 is another interleaved copy of this work, with notes probably made by A.C. Vreede (1840-1908).

Or. 6873 - Or. 6879
Collection of manuscripts purchased on 15 December 1944 from Messrs. E.J. Brill, antiquarian booksellers in Leiden. Or. 6877 originates with certainty from Gabriel Ferrand (1864-1935), as there is a signed note on the fly-leaf. Or. 6879 most probably originates from Ferrand, as he seems to describe it in one of his publications. It is, therefore, not altogether impossible that the present collection originates from him. Another MS originally from Gabriel Ferrand is Or. 17.092, below.

Or. 6873
Arabic, paper, maghribi script, 213 ff., dated 1230 AH.
al-Anis al-Mutrib bi-Rawdat al-Qirtas fi Akhbar Muluk al-Maghrib wa-Madinat Fas, by Ibn Abi Zar` (however in the present MS the author is mentioned as: Abu Muhammad Salih b.

`Abd al-Halim) (after 726/1326), GAL G II, 240. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 14. See also Or. 17, above, and Or. 14.006, below. Originally in one binding with Or. 6874, below.
[* Ar. 2739]

Or. 6874
Arabic, Maghribi script, 124 ff., undated, recent Kitab al-Gughrafiya, by al-Zuhri (c. 532/1137), GAL G I, 476. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 90. Originally in one binding with Or. 6873, above.

Or. 6879
Malagasy, paper
'Vocabulaire comparé de 26 Dialects Malgaches recueilli en 1890-96'.
Origin and provenance are not clear from the MS itself. Voorhoeve has written on the label on the board the question whether the book might somehow come from Gabriel Ferrand (1864-1935). In fact, the unpublished vocabulary, containing 'un millier de mots usuels dans trente dialects' which Ferrand mentions on p. xxxvii of his work Essai de phonétique comparée du malais et des dialectes malgaches (Paris, Geuthner, 1909) may well be the present vocabulary. Ferrand was in Madagascar from March 1887-November 1896 (ibid., p. vii).

The 26 dialects are from the following regions: Antaifasy, Antaikongona, Antaimanambondro, Antaimorona, Antaisaka, Antambahoaka, Antandroy, Antankarana, Antanosy, Bara, Betsileo, Betsimisaraka, Bezanozano, Maroantsetra, Mavorongo, Menabe, Merina, Ranomena, Sainte-Marie, Sakalava N-E, Sakalava N-O, Sihanaka, Tanala, Vezo, Vorimo, Zafisorona. Malagasy.
See P. Voorhoeve, 'Indonesische handschriften' (1952), p. 215.

Or. 6882
Hebrew, Arabic, Samaritan, paper, 1 f. (folded), autograph.
Rough draft of a letter to the Samaritans, by J.J. Scaliger (1540-1609). On the verso Scaliger's wax seal and an address: A Monsieur | monsieur l'Abbe del Bene | A Engdesme. The addressee is Pierre d'Elbène (1550-1590), and the further references given by Van der Heide. There is no evidence of a special relationship between him and the Samaritans. For Scaliger's correspondence with the Samaritans see H.A. Hamaker, in Archief voor kerkelijke geschiedenis, inzonderheid van Nederland 5 (1834), pp. 6 ff.
See A. van der Heide, Hebrew manuscripts (Leiden 1977), p. 85. Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist.
Provenance: Transferred by Mrs. E. Hulshoff Pol (1910-1975) in August 1939 from department of classical languages in the Library to the Legatum Warnerianum.
(Hebr. 229)

Or. 6883
Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 335 pp., Arabic script, dated 2 Ramadhan 1310 (21 March 1893), half-leather binding.

(1) pp. 1-333. Hikayat Hang Tuah, ending with the exchange of Bangkahulu and Singapura by the British and the Dutch.
(2) pp. 333-335. Syair Hang Tuah, ending abruptly with the condemning of Hang Tuah by the sultan and the bendahara's unsuccessful attempt to meet him.
Text from T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 370 (No. 804), was used for the present description.
Provenance: Purchased on 12 October 1946 from W. Heffers & Sons, booksellers in Cambridge, who had obtained the manuscript from the Library of Sir Hugh Clifford (1866-1941).
(Mal. 1460)

Or. 6884
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Malay, paper, 1 + 37 ff., dated 1321 AH (f. 37a), paper-pasted boards.
(1) ff. [1]v-7r. List of grammatical terminology, in Arabic, with interlinear explanation in Malay, followed by an enumeration of other Arabic words, with further explanation in Malay. On f. 7r is a short text in Malay prose on matters of Arabic morphology (Tasrif). Not in Voorhoeve, Handlist, but see also p. 103. This is possibly the text known as al-Madkhal (see No. 2, below).
(2) ff. 7v-18r. Gumla min Tasrif al-Af`al. Anonymous grammatical tract, much used in Indonesia. With Malay interlinear translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 103, where are also references to MSS in Jakarta. The text is preceded by the introductory tract described by Ph.S. van Ronkel (Supl. Catalogus Batavia, Nos. 767-780) as al-Madkhal. Ff. 18v-20r. Blank.
(3) ff. 20v-23v. Kitab al-`Awamil al-Mi'a, by `Abd al-Qahir b. `Abd al-Rahman al-Gurgani (d. 471/1078), GAL G I, 287. With interlinear notes and translations in Malay. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 30. F. 24r blank.
(4) ff. 24v-37r. al-Muqaddima al-Agurrumiyya, by Ibn Agurrum (d. 723/1323), GAL G II, 237. With interlinear notes and translations in Malay. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 236. F. 37v blank.
Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).
Provenance: Transferred in or around October 1946 from the Oriental printed books department (entry number 18859) in the Leiden Library to the Legatum Warnerianum.
[* Ar. 2750]

Or. 6885
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, pp., dated 1855 AD.
(1) 224 pp. Diwan of Ahmad b. Abi al-Qasim Ibn Khalluf (d. 899/1494), GAL G II, 237; S II, 331. This is the copy which GAL S II, 331, mentions as manuscript Sarkis. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 63.
(2) 46 ff. Diwan of Ibn Higga al-Hamawi (d. 837/1434), GAL G II, 15. An anthology only. Dated 1850 AD. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 63.
Provenance: Purchased from J.E. Sarkis, Cairo.
(Ar. 2755)

Or. 6886
Arabic, paper, 9 ff. (ff. 128-136, in a numbering by an old European hand), loose leaves, folded, in fragile and dirty state, much text has become illegible, unbound, kept in a portfolio.
An unidentified literary text, arranged according to names of literati. On f. 4b, formerly f. 131b there is a note in Latin: 'hic est ingens lacuna | A fere capitum [...] | et [...] plus quam | centum foliarum'.
On f. 4a begins the treatment of the medical scholar Mu`tamid al-Mulk Abu al-Farag Yahya b. Sa`id b. Yahya Ibn al-Tilmidh, with the quotation of poetry in praise of him.
Provenance: Received from Ph.S. van Ronkel, and originally a fragment found in the ruins caused by the explosion of the gunpowder ship in Leiden, which happened on 12 January 1807. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 469, where this is described as: 'Fragments recovered from the ruins after an explosion in Leiden, 1807. They are probably the remnants of manuscripts in the possession of S.F.J. Rau (1765-1807), who was Interpres Legati Warneriani at the time. His house was destroyed in the calamity.'
[* Ar. 2765]

Or. 6887 - Or. 6892
Middle-Eastern manuscripts found by P. Voorhoeve in October 1946 in the Legatum Warnerianum, without indication of origin.

Or. 6887
Turkish, paper, 110 ff., naskh script, dated 12 Muharram 1228 (15 January 1813), copied by Gamalizada al-Shaykh Ahmad Efendizada Darwish al-Sayyid `Abd al-Baqi Mayli Efendi, boards with flap, covered in green cloth.
Diwan, or Divancha, by the Khalwati Shaykh `Ali Aqkirmani, using the takhallus Naqshi (d. 1065/1654-1655).

(Ar. 2754)

Or. 6890
Collection of fragments and disparate pieces, in several languages (Arabic, Javanese, Malay, Turkish). A few have been described by P. Voorhoeve, some were later found by Voorhoeve in the desk of C. van Arendonk (d. 1946), without any information about their origin or provenance. Several fragments were apparently found during the restauration of bindings, but the origin of these was not always clearly indicated.
(1) Arabic, paper, 14 ff. Qur'an fragment. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 278. From the Legacy of C. Snouck Hurgronje (1936).
(2) Arabic with Javanese glosses, treebark paper (dluang), 4 ff. Tafsir al-Galalayn, by Galal al-Din al-Mahalli (d. 864/1460), GAL G II, 114, and continuated by Galal al-Din al-Suyuti (d. 911/1505), GAL G II, 145. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 353. Preceded by notes in Arabic on subjects of Islamic law.
¶ Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 353, where the translation erroneously is called Javanese. See now also M.N. Sefercioglu, World Bibliography of Translations of the Holy Qur'an in Manuscript Form. Istanbul 2000, p. 130 (No. 201/10). See also Or. 12.846, below.
(3) Booklet from Aceh, containing 16 ff. Arabic Dhikr in verse. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 458. In the same booklet also Qur'anic fragments: the beginning of guz' `amma and other pieces, and also some text in Malay. From the Legacy of C. Snouck Hurgronje (1936).
(4) Booklet containing two Arabic stories, copied from another Arabic work by Johannes Heyman (1667-1737). Pp. 1-39: Qissat Ashab al-Kahf. Pp. 1-12: Qissat Wafat Maryam. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 275.
(5) 5 ff. Notes in French on the Qur'an, by Dr. Grenier (?), dated Foutarlier (?) (Doubs), 2 November 1925. A number of sura's in Arabic, with their transliteration, translation in French, and interpretation. Also notes on the Arabic alphabet. All of elementary nature, and apparently done by an educated amateur.
(6) ??
The Malay parts not in Iskandar, Catalogue.
For a description of the Turkish materials see Jan Schmidt, Catalogue of Turkish manuscripts in the Library of Leiden University and other collections in the Netherlands. Vol. II. Leiden 2002, pp. 340-343, with illustrations of Nos. 1 and 2 on pp. 341-342.The two letters described by Jan Schmidt are:
- An undated original copy of a letter in Turkish from Laroque (Laruq), 'former dragoman of the king of France', to Ravius (Sebald Rau, 1721-1818), professor of Oriental languages in Utrecht.
- An original copy of a letter of safe conduct for a journey from Amasya to Istanbul issued on behalf of an ambassador of the French king and his servant, issued at Amasya early Rabi` I 962 (23 February – 4 March 1555). This ambassador was probably Michel de Codignac who was received in audience by Sultan Süleyman, then leading his third campaign against the Safawids, at Amasya in the winter of 1554-1555). With Tughra of Sultan Süleyman.

Persian, paper, 1 + 74 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding with traces of coloured ornamentation, outer boards covered with embroidered textile, rebacked.
Kitab Madarig al-Kamal (title on f. 73b). Text possibly lacunous (ff. 24-28 blank) and leaves possibly in disorder. It is tempting to identify the present work as the Madarig al-Kamal by Afdal al-Din al-Kashi, or Baba Afdal Kashi, but the text in the present volume differs too much from the descriptions of that text in the catalogues of London, BL, Rieu, II, pp. 830b, 834b, and London, IOL, Ethé, Nos. 1921 (2), 1922 (14), although these description have considerable differences between themselves as well. Another possibility would be that the lacuna covers the end of a first treatise and the beginning of a second treatise.
[* Ar. 2751]

Persian, paper of several different colours, 126 ff., nasta`liq script, dated 1 Sha`ban 1183, corresponding with year 11 after the accession Shah `Alam [...] Ghazi, in Patna, as requested by William Falk, Sahib Captain [...] (colophon on f. 123a). The Gulus must refer to the Moghul emperor Shah `Alam II (reigned 1173-1221, see Zambaur, p. 300).
Danishnama-yi Gahan, a treatise on physics by Ghiyath al-Din `Ali al-Husayni al-Isfahani (7th cent.?). Identified with MS London Add. 16,829 (Cat. Rieu II, pp. 439b-440a), where it is observed that the author mentions phenomena observed by him personally in Badakhshan, and that he must have lived not very long after al-Razi (d. 606 AH), whom he mentions as a near-contemporary.

Leti'nese.
The manuscript of J.C.G. Jonker (1857-1919) of his study Lettineesche Taalstudiën, (Verhandelingen KBG 69 (1932), and the materials used for that research. See P. Voorhoeve, 'Indonesische handschriften' (1952), p. 215. Received on June 21, 1932 as gift from P. Voorhoeve (1899-1996).
¶ The manuscript was apparently registered twice, which was done by mistake. Under Or. 6324, above, nothing can be found in the stacks.
Provenance: From the estate of J.C.G. Jonker (1857-1919).

Batak manuscripts registered in the course of 1946, but possibly already some time in the library. The is possibly also the case with Or. 6900, of which the origin could be traced back to H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894).

Or. 6900
Batak, treebark, 37 ff., 20.3 x 15 cm.
Or. 3394 (g), pp. 1-16, is a copy. See also Or. 12.322, ff.553-559. The present description is translated from P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici (Leiden 1977), pp. 96-98.
The MS is doubtless a van der Tuuk manuscript, but it was only registered when P. Voorhoeve was a curator of the Oriental collections (1946-1959). Van der Tuuk's label is still in the manuscript. The MS has one original wooden cover, with beautiful sculpture (a lizard). At the other end is a simple wooden cover, apparently a later replacement. According to Mrs. M.T. Mostert-Silitonga, the beginning of the text is near the ornamented cover, although this now seems to be the end.
Also at the beginning of the b side there is a chain of transmission, but this begins with Ama ni Hunda Radja ni adji, a man of the marga Marbun, living in Banuwa Raja, whereas in the chain of transmission on the a side he is preceded by nine names. The first of these would have brought the teaching about Pagar Nai Boru Sinomba from overseas to Sumatra (pulo Morsa on). The second's name is Guru Mangalenggang (see Codices Batacici, p. 13).
According to the information on a 2, the book was written by Ama ni Hunda Radja ni adji. After follow, on a 2 and b 2 another six names, namely Guru So Taromar n.a. (addressed as pupil on b 18; A.n.H.R. is his tunggane); Guru Pamulung n.a. (on b 28 addressed as Guru Pulungan n.a.; A.n.H.R. is his lae); Guru Mangaringkar n.a.; Guru Sanijang Naga n.a., an anggi doli of A.n.H.R.; Guru (or Radja) Ihutan n.a.; and Mangarana n.a., who had the teaching from his father Ama ni Mangarana ni adji. So it seems that Ama ni Hunda Radja ni adji has mentioned in the book written by him the names of six (or five, if Mangarana learned it from one of the five, his father) of his pupils in a way as if the next one had learned it from the preceding one. The order in a and b is not exactly the same. In a Guru Mangaringkar is after Guru Pamulung, but in b he is after Guru So Taromar.

The making of the pagar with the different applications is described extensively. On a 29 are two small amulet drawings. On b 22-27 are several figures, not very well drawn in red and black. On b 26 is a parik si Djonaha, but the name is not mentioned.
Then follow some short texts, that do not seem to have a connection with pagar. These are: sipatondik, a means to make the enemy shiver, and pangalajang ni simbora, which are omens to be observed with the founding of lead bullets. The latter, however, are part of the incantation formulas of the pagar Nai Boru Sinomba. See also MS Kopenhagen BAT. 8.
This is a pustaha from the Legacy of H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894), which entered the Library already in 1896, but which was for some reason never registered. That was done during P. Voorhoeve's curatorship of the collection (1946-1959). See also the relevant remarks under Or. 3573, above.
(Codices Batacici, pp. 96-98).

Mandailing Batak, paper scroll, Batak script.
Historical tradition about an establishment of Mandailing-Bataks in Aek Runding, where they received ground from Datuk Sati as compensation for the death of one of their relatives who had been murdered. Or. 6026, above, is a romanized copy. See Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici (1977), pp. 218, 220-221.
Provenance: Probably originating from the collection of C.A. van Ophuijsen (1854-1917), but registered only much later. See his collection under Or. 5823 - Or. 6122, above. Voorhoeve has at first thought ('Journaal', p. 135) that this MS was presented to the Library by Mr. H.J. Eggink, a missionary and the author of Mandailing-Dutch dictionary (Bandung 1936), but in Codices Batacici, p. 221, he gives C.A. van Ophuijsen as the probable origin. This is, of course, because another van Ophuijsen manuscript, Or. 6026, above, is a romanized copy of the present MS.
A transliteration by Mrs. M.T. Mostert-Silitonga is in Or. 12.322, ff. 560-565.

Or. 6950 a
Hebrew, parchment, fragment of a bifolium, 2 columns, Sefardi (?) square script, fully vocalized and accentuated. No traces of Masora.
Bible. Six fragments of Exodus: 2:16-18 (a few words only); 2:13-14 (a few words only); 9:30-32; 10:3; 10:8; 10:14-15. De Boer, No. 9. See A. van der Heide, Hebrew manuscripts (Leiden 1977), pp. 85-86.
Provenance: Not recorded, possibly coming from the binding of a Hebrew book or manuscript.
(Hebr. 235 I)

Or. 6950 b
Hebrew, parchment, 1 f., Italian mashait script, 15th century.
Fragment of David Kimhi, Commentary on Isaiah 59:15-17. See A. van der Heide, Hebrew manuscripts (Leiden 1977), p. 86.
Provenance: Not precisely recorded, but apparently coming from the binding of a Hebrew book or manuscript. The number 22 is still visible on what must have been the sipne of the book.
(Hebr. 235 II)

Or. 6950 c
Hebrew, parchment, 2 ff.,
See A. van der Heide, Hebrew manuscripts (Leiden 1977), p. 86.
Provenance: Not precisely recorded, but apparently coming from the binding of a Hebrew book or manuscript in the Leiden Library. The former Leiden shelf mark is still visible on f. 2a: VI F 309. This volume, which has now shelf mark 633 A 2, contains several medical texts in Latin, one translated from Arabic, and published in the early decades of the 16th century.
(Hebr. 235 III)

Or. 6951
Photographs of Syriac manuscripts, originating from the papers of A.J. Wensinck (1882-1939). See Janson, Summiere beschrijvingen, p. 7, for a more detailed survey of the contents.
Provenance: Received in 1946.
(Hebr. 236)

Or. 6952 - Or. 6953
Study materials, apparently originating from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909).

Or. 6952
Arabic, paper, c. 400 ff., with blanks, Arabic and Latin scripts, by M.J. de Goeje.
Title-index made by M.J. de Goeje of works mentioned in the Kashf al-Zunun by Haggi Khalifa (Mustafa b. `Abdallah, also known as Katib Celebi, d. 1067/1657), with references to manuscripts catalogues where these works are actually mentioned. De Goeje may have needed such a card index for his work on the CCO and the CCA.
[* Ar. 2770]

Or. 6953 a-d
Arabic, paper, four cardboard boxes with several thousands of paper cards, texts written by M.J. de Goeje.
Card index with Arabic book titles. The cards look like an integrated title-index of Arabic texts, with reference to many different collections. De Goeje may have needed such a card index for his work on the CCO and the CCA.
[* fours small boxes together in one larger box: Ar. 2783 – Ar. 2786]

Or. 6954 - Or. 6956
Three lontar manuscripts from the Legacy of C. Snouck Hurgronje (1857-1936).

Or. 6954
Javanese, palm leaf, severely damaged, many leaves missing, 92 ff., Javanese script.
Yusup romance in verse, East Javanese idiom and script. The two boards are decorated with woodcarving, but not coloured. See Pigeaud II, p. 420.
(Lont. 731)

Or. 6955 a
Javanese, palm leaf, severely damaged, many [leaves missing, 71 ff., Javanese script.
Yusup romance in verse, East Javanese idiom and script, without boards. See Pigeaud II, p. 420.
(in Lont. 732)

Or. 6955 b
Javanese, palm leaf, severely damaged, many leaves are missing, 79 ff., Javanese script.
Johar Manikam romance in verse. East Javanese, Madurese idiom and script. The clusters containing s as second member are written in the Balinese manner (p, with the suku under the first member). See Pigeaud II, p. 421.
(in Lont. 732)

Or. 6956
Javanese, palm leaf, 63 ff., incomplete, Javanese script.
Ahmad Muhammad tale in verse, beginning and end missing. Rustic writing, unblackened. Origin: Sumedang. See Pigeaud II, p. 421.

(Lont. 733)

Or. 6957
Arabic, Persian, parchment and paper.
(1) Paper, 1 f. Letter in Arabic (or Persian?), very cursive writing and virtually impossible to decipher. The letter was found in a collection of simplicia of Akyab (in Birma, on the Bay of Bengal), together with the seed of Wetie (Lathyrus sativus).
(2) Parchment, 2 ff. Pasted on the parchment are labels with botanical names in Persian, and with numbers. The numbers correspond to those in the list in the Catalogue of the Persian section of the International Colonial Exhibition held in Amsterdam in 1883.
Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.
Provenance: Both items were transferred, it seems, at some stage from the State Herbary in Leiden to the University Library.
[* Ar. 2787]

Or. 6958
Javanese, palm leaf, small box with several small fragments.
Fragments of lontar leaf, with text, which were apparently broken off from several manuscripts in the Lombok collection (see Or. 5012, above, and following numbers). Possibly now together with other fragments found in the collection. P. Voorhoeve, when taking over the curatorship from C. van Arendonk in the course of 1946, must have brought these fragments together.
[* Lont. 734]

Or. 6959
Arabic, paper, ff.
Abstracts from the contents of Or. 7095 and Or. 7128, below, made by Otto Spies (* 1901), 'Die Bibliotheken des Hidschas', in ZDMG 90 (1936), pp. 83-120. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 413-414. See now also J.J. Witkam, 'Lists of books in Arabic manuscripts', in MME 5 (1990-1991), pp. 121-136, esp. § 6 'Lists from Medina', on pp. 130-133.
Provenance: Copy by C. van Arendonk (d. 1946) of a manuscript in the collection of C. Snouck Hurgronje (1857-1936).
(Ar. 2823)

Or. 6960
French, of Arabic interest, paper, 118 + 4 pp., typewritten, clasping binding.
An academic thesis about al-Ghazzali and his mysticism. There is no indication of authorship or date of completion. The most recent publication in the bibliography dates from 1909.
Provenance: Uncertain, but probably found by P. Voorhoeve in 1946, and registered.
(Ar. 2817)

Or. 6961
Arabic (?).
A brooch with an unidentified inscription in Arabic writing. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 470.

Or. 6969 - Or. 6976
Acehnese manuscripts, donated by the 'controleur' W.M. Remeeüs to the Legatum Warnerianum in 1930. When the collection was registered by P. Voorhoeve in the course of 1946, it was difficult to determine whether all of these Acehnese manuscripts indeed originated from Remeeüs, and if some of them at least did, which ones. Voorhoeve is certain that at least Or. 6969, Or. 6970 and Or. 6973 were part of the Remeeüs collection.

Or. 6969
Acehnese, lined writing book, 182 pp., the heading of the first page is dated 11 February 1927, with the month spelled in Arabic script.

German, of Turkish interest, paper, ff. 1-145, followed by pp. 146-163, German cursive script, followed by unnumbered blank pages, half-cloth binding, pasted boards.
Über die Millet's im türkischen Reiche. November 1900 bis Januar 1901 (title on label on front board). No author indicated, but he may be the addressee of the letter by Emil Kautsch which was found between pp. 114-115 of the MS.
From the text and lay-out one may assume that this is the author's neat draft of a book on the Millet system in the Ottoman empire. Footnotes have been added at the bottom of the page. Additional text is written on the left-hand pages, and occasionally on paste-ins. It is clear that the author had command of both Greek and Arabic. The dates 'November 1900 bis Januar 1901' may refer to the period during which the text was written.
Added is a letter by E. Kautsch (Emil Kautsch [1841-1910], the orientalist, theologian and Old Testament scholar), dated Halle 23 October 1901, addressed to Pastor (? or Papov?), who may be the author of the work in which the letter was found.

PREFACE TO THE NEW EDITION

With pleasure I present herewith an entirely up-to-date edition of the twelfth volume of the Leiden inventories. The twelfth volume was in fact the first that was published, back in 2001. Since then several more volumes have been published, and all these have gained by being used. This is also the case with the present volume. Numerous inaccuracies which occurred in the 2001 edition have been corrected in the present edition. In a work like the present one inaccuracies can never be fully eliminated, and I will be glad to receive feed-back from the readers whenever they think that correction of improvement is due. In the past five years I have been able to study quite a few more items by autopsy and the result of that study is herewith incorporated. This is an ongoing process, which will be reflected in updated versions of this volume, and in other volumes as well of the inventories.
It may be remembered here that the reason for the compilation of this volume as the first one in a large series was the fact that Mr. Jan Schmidt was, in 2001, working on the second volume of his impressive catalogue of Turkish manuscripts in The Netherlands. For this part of the Leiden collections he had nothing to go by than the handwritten second and third volumes of the Library's inventory, and that was particularly scarce in bibliographical detail. Most Turkish texts had not even been identified as Turkish, let alone that the library's inventory contained a bibliographical identification of those texts. This does not imply criticism on my learned predecessor as manuscript curator, Dr. Roelof Roolvink (1918-1994). As a specialist in Malay studies – for which field he later became a professor in Leiden University – he could hardly be expected to conduct in-depth research on Turkish manuscripts. His merit lies in the fact that decided to acquire the collections described here. Without my work on the Turkish manuscripts in this part of the Leiden collections Jan Schmidt's would have been severely hampered, although I am sure that he would have found 'his' manuscripts in the end. I am glad that I could be of assistance.
When I offered, in the course of 2001, a print of the first edition of this volume to the deputy-director of the Leiden library, Dr. A.J.M. Linmans, his reaction was lukewarm, and after a while he gave the copy back to me with the remark that it was all very interesting what I had done. He saw no use for it, however. This point of view was repeated to me in 2005, though in different wording, by Dr. Linmans' successor, Ms. J.S. Calff. I still praise myself lucky that I did not let myself be influenced nor impressed by their lack of interest. Soundings in the field of professional manuscript bibliographers gave me an entirely different idea on the use of the inventories which I was and still am compiling. It is, of course for them and the general scholarly public, and not for library managers, that I have compiled this and other inventories, which have well proven their use in the past few years.
I end with an important note. Although the inventories which I am publishing here contain descriptions of public and private collections, which will no doubt profit of the existence of electronic versions of my work, none of my inventories has ever been made at the express insistence or by the specific demand of these institutions. The idea to compile such inventories, the invention of their structure, the acquisition of the necessary information from a multitude of primary and secondary sources, the way of publishing, all this is my idea and my work alone. It is therefore my sole property and I assert the moral right of the authorship of form and content of these inventories, with reference, of course, to what I have said elsewhere about the method of compilation. Finally I am glad that I can express my gratitude to Ms. Tsjikke Vlasma for allowing me to publish the index, which she compiled in 2001, in this new edition of volume 12 of the Leiden inventories.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION (2001)

This is not a catalogue, nor a handlist. It is just what is says to be on the title-page, an inventory. The present volume contains the inventory, or in more simple words, the list of all acquisitions of Oriental manuscript materials in the Library of Leiden University, which entered the Library between January 1965 and May 1968. This choice of period is determined by nothing else than the fact that the present volume comprises one thousand items, which are registered as Or. 11.001 till Or. 12.000 in the 'Journaal', the handwritten inventory of the Legatum Warnerianum, which is kept by the curators in the Library. As such it is the twelfth volume of a projected multi-volume inventory of the collections of Oriental manuscripts in Dutch collections. The volumes which have the inventory of the Legatum Warnerianum will each contain information on a thousand manuscripts. As the present volume is the first one to be completed, a word of explanation may be added to this.

For a long while the 'Journaal' of the Legatum Warnerianum was a tool of retrieval for the Oriental collections, mostly for lack of anything better. It contains, with a varying degree of detail, basic bibliographical information about the new acquisitions. The most important elements of such a registration are the (unchangeable) class-mark (in the Or.-series), the shelf-mark (which only serves the purpose of finding the manuscript in the stacks), the language of the manuscript, and some detail about its content. In addition, the provenance of the material was noted, and often also the price paid. Especially these last mentioned elements were deemed to be confidential, at least for some time. The successive directors of the Leiden library were of the opinion that if such trade information were made available to the public it might jeopardize the negotiating position of the Library, which itself is a player of some importance on the antiquarian market. Making the names of the suppliers to the Library public, was their opinion, would attract competitive individuals to those same suppliers, and could make it more difficult for the Library to conclude a deal.

When I advised the University Librarian, in the course of 1977, for precisely these reasons to close the 'Journaal' for the public, it was immediately felt that an alternative tool should be created, as it was feared that an increasing part of the collection would become unavailable for the readers in the Legatum Warnerianum.

Several larger cataloguing projects have been undertaken since then. I only need to refer to the catalogues of manuscripts in Hebrew (1977), Batak (1977), Javanese (1980), Arabic (ongoing since 1982), Balinese (1986-1987), Acehnese (1994), Malay (1998), Turkish (from 2000 onwards), and a few more projects are on the brink of completion. However, all of these catalogues have features that are different, depending on the nature of the materials described and the bibliographical requirements within a specific field of study. And these catalogues are, necessarily, not following the order of acquisition in the Library at a quick pace. For most of the above catalogues the expertise had to be acquired from outside the Library, either on a voluntary basis from the authors who were retired or otherwise employed, or by organizing a project of cataloguing with financial support from outside the University. Irrespective of the arrangement, the catalogues would always be far behind the actual pace of acquisition.

Nor would the catalogues, which are usually organized by language of the manuscripts, cover the whole of the collection. The compilation of a certain type of acquisition lists has been undertaken, for a while, but the results were not very satisfactory. And in the meantime the Oriental collections in the Leiden Library experienced an unprecedented growth, making a solution of this problem only more urgent.
In the course of 1999, I finally decided, after considerable hesitation, to make inventory lists of the Oriental collections in the Leiden Library, and if necessary of those in other Dutch institutions as well. The present list is the first one that is now in a shape that might be useful to the Library's readers. It contains much material, especially from the Middle East, that has never yet been catalogued or made public before. At the time of writing of this preface about half of the entire collection has been treated in this way, and the making available of more such lists of a thousand manuscript is foreseen in the near future. That the present volume is in fact the first one to be completed is more by accident than by design.
The inventory herewith proposed will make the recently acquired manuscripts available for the first time. For the older collections there are two different considerations. First I must say that it has struck me that a renewed view of the manuscripts which are part of the older collections of the Leiden Library (pre-1901, or even pre-1950) often yields an enormous amount of additional nformation that somehow never found its way to the pages of the older catalogues. The other consideration is that the older catalogues were often written in Latin or Dutch, both languages that are, at least not any more, widely known in the world. For the older collections, a translation drive to English has been undertaken, so that the results of bibliographical research of the 19th- and early 20th centuries remain available, but now in English.

I will shortly explain the way in which this inventory was compiled. As the Oriental manuscript collections in Leiden and the Netherlands contain materials in more than a hundred languages, it is evident that there is no person on earth who is able to compile such an inventory by first-hand knowledge. I do have a long-standing knowledge of Arabic and Persian, and I combine this with some working knowledge of Turkish, Urdu and Malay. That is a lot, but it is not enough by far. So for a considerable number of manuscripts I have had to rely on data made available by others more competent in their own fields than I. Digital scans have been made of some of the older and newer catalogues, and the information contained therein was often checked against the originals and then cast into the fixed format of this inventory. I do not, of course, claim authorship of such information, as I am only the compiler of the present inventory, using numerous sources. Claiming anything else would be preposterous. I cannot but advise the user of the inventory to always consult the sources to which reference is made in the entries. These may be fuller and more detailed than the entry in the present inventory. When somehow text by others is incorporated in the present inventory, I do not, of course, monopolize authorship of it. Whenever text by others is quoted, I have mentioned source and origin. On the other hand, I should not be too modest. Innumerable bibliographical details were remarked by myself for the first time in the manuscripts here listed.

Not all manuscripts mentioned in the present volume were viewed by autopsy. The sheer number of manuscripts makes this impossible. At a later stage this may be achieved, but trying to achieve this at the present stage of inventorizing would seriously hamper the progress of the project. When a manuscript was not inspected this can be seen from a simple typographical device. Whenever the indication of the shelf-mark is put between round brackets, I have not, or not extensively, inspected the manuscript, and its entry in the inventory is based mostly or entirely on secondary sources, be they published or not. When the shelf-mark is put between square brackets and preceded by an asterisk, this means that I have had the manuscript in my hands, at least once but probably more often, and that the description contains elements that can only be seen in the original manuscript. Such autopsy does not mean that I am, automatically, the author of all information given under that particular class-mark.
The basic elements for each entry of the present inventory are: 1. class-mark, 2. language(s), 3. details of physical description, 4. survey of the contents, 5. provenance, 6. location on the shelf. Depending on the nature of the material, exceptions and divergences are made from this strict arrangement. The collective provenance of a series of manuscripts may be concentrated into a short text, preceding that series, without being repeated under each class-mark.

The present inventory is not a publication in the old-fashioned sense that it is an unchangeable monolith, just as the earlier catalogues are. Books of this sort need no longer be written in such a way. It is nothing more than a reflection of the state of research of today on the Oriental manuscripts which it contains. In the electronic version of the inventory the information is kept up-to-date. As said above, the stage of completion of the descriptions in this volume make it possible to come with a first print, which is hereby offered to the public, and copies of which are deposited in a few institutions which have a mission similar to that of the Leiden Library. Having said that, I once more need to stress the point that this is not a publication in the traditional sense. It is but a temporary and preliminary means of access to the Oriental manuscripts collection, in the trial stage of a large project. At best it can be considered as a sort of pre-print, a way of unofficial but fast distribution of information which exists in some fields of science. The user will miss detailed indexes of all sorts, and rightly so, but then the 'Journaal', the handwritten inventory, of which the present one is a replacement and successor, did not have those either. However, to each volume a few basic indexes will be added. The index to the present volume was prepared by hand by Ms. Tsjikke Vlasma, a librarian in the Legatum Warnerianum in the Leiden Library. Later indexes will, of course, be generated in other ways.
On the longer term I see the development of this inventory as follows. When all descriptions and entries are completed, and after a basic editorial activity on it has been performed, a search engine will be designed which will enable the user to quickly find an answer to his or her bibliographical queries, with all the advanced possibilities of an electronic tool. At that stage the by then electronic inventory and the search engine will be made available to the public, possibly in a constantly updated version in the Library's website, and/or by a regular update on CD-Rom, or on whatever medium is available and more suitable by that time. Obvious advantages of linking, imaging and the like, which are now still in development, will not be avoided. In addition, it is probable that such an electronic inventory will stimulate the publication of in-depth catalogues of part of the collections. The mass of bibliographical information which is herewith provided will, I hope, also give a stimulus to cataloguers ofr manuscript collections outside Leiden or the Netherlands.

It is hoped that this preliminary edition of part of the Inventory of the Oriental manuscripts in the Legatum Warnerianum in the Library of the University of Leiden will be the beginning of a modern and cost-effective way of making manuscript catalogues and inventories available to the scholarly world.

Acehnese anthology by Tgk. Muhamat Noerdin. In all 21 texts, numbered I - XXI (fully mentioned by P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (1994), pp. 256-257.
(2) Putroe Lam Keuleumbu Kaca ngon si Pucok Paku. A free reworking of Or. 8128 (1) d, No. 2, above. Putroe Lam Keuleumbu Kaca in Si Kaca Puri changes clothes and jewellery with her servant si Pucok Paku. The genuine princess has better taste than her substitute. When the king remarks on this si Pucok Paku becomes jealous and bans Putroe Bungong (as she is now called) to an uninhabited place. She clears a ladang; God gives her a palace. The king dreams of her, goes to look for her, finds her in her palace, and takes her away. She revenges herself on si Pucok Paku by cutting her in pieces, which she sends in a pot to Pucok, Paku's parents. Noerdin heard this from his mother. Also in Or. 8183 (25), above. See also P. Voorhoeve, Overzicht van de volksverhalen der Bataks. Vlissingen 1927, No. 150; J. de Vries, Volksverhalen uit Oost-Indië. Zutphen 1925-1928, I, p. 28; II, p. 162.
(3) Haba Raja Lam Kipaih ngon put roe tujoh. A free reworking of Or. 8128 (1) d, No. 3, above. Seven sisters would like to marry the king of France, etc.; the youngest asks Raja Lam Kipaih, who has the form of a fan. She is ridiculed, but her husband turns out to be a celestial prince. Also in Or. 8183 (26), above.
(4) Haba asay jeuet cicem tek-tek wang. Also in Or. 8182 (2) and Or. 8183 (2), above. Printed in Mohamad Noerdin, Kitab Boengong Sitoenkoj. Batavia 1930, no. VI.
(5) Aneuk miet le akay. Also in Or. 8182 (27), Or. 8183 (12), above. Printed in Mohamad Noerdin, Kitab Boengong Sitoenkoj. Batavia 1930, No. I. The original is Or. 8144 (2), above.
(6) Nyak Agam Cut. Also in Or. 8182 (35), Or. 8183 (14), above. Printed in Mohamad Noerdin, Kitab Boengong Sitoenkoj. Batavia 1930, No. IV.
(7) Wa'siet raja. Also in Or. 8182 (37), Or. 8183 (16). Published in Mohamad Noerdin, Kitab Boengong Sitoenkoj. Batavia 1930, No. II.

(8) Ureueng jak peuramien. Concerning the custom that an uleebalang's wife would go for a picnic to the beach during the period of her pregnancy. The same as Or. 8182 (8), above. See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (1994), p. 29.
(15) 23. Pak Pande. The original is Or. 8128 (1) b, No. 6. Also in Or. 8183 (23), above.
(17) Putroe Beutong. Also in Or. 8182 (36) and Or. 8183 (15), above. A poor orphan in Gumpang Aceh wounds an elephant with his father's chisel, a family heirloom; he follows the track and finds the chisel in the body of the princess of Java, whom he cures and marries. He returns with her to Sumatra in order to visit his mother, destroys the magic bridge with which they crossed over and rests, although it had been forbidden by his father-in-law, under a trieng beutong, whereupon his wife and her retinue are transformed into elephants. Some days later he and his mother find his baby daughter in the bamboo. With the chisel he makes a stone chessboard and pieces, which can be seen today. Putroe Beutong marries the sultan of Aceh. Her descendants may not eat reubong. Of the wild elephants one can distinguish Po Meurah, Gajah Bugam and Gajah K'eng, the first descended from royalty, the second from the nobility, and the third from slaves. Noerdin heard this story from a leper called Po Doraman. Raja Bambe in Alaih and Keujruen Muda in Teumieng consider themselves descendants of Putroe Beutong and do not eat reubong. See also P. Voorhoeve, Overzicht van de volksverhalen der Bataks. Vlissingen 1927, No. 110. Concerning stone chess pieces see G.L. Tichelman & P. Voorhoeve, Steenplastiek in Simaloengoen. Inventaris van steenen beelden, reliefs, steenen kisten en dergelijke. Medan 1938, No. 44.

Or. 11.079
Persian, paper, 41 ff., nasta`liq script, illustrations and illuminations, dated beginning Muharram 1012/1603 (f. 39a), full-leather Islamic binding with coloured ornaments (medallions). The book is probably of Iranian provenance.
Futuh al-Haramayn, an illustrated guide to the Holy Places, composed in 911 (1515-1516) by Muhyi al-Din Lari (d. 933/1526-1527), cf. H. Ethé, Nos. 1417-1420.
The present volume is in fact a reconstruction of an older manuscript, the leaves of which have been pasted to pages, as an album. It cannot be ascertained if the leaves are in order, or if the text is incomplete. The text is illustrated by number of colourful illustrations depicting the holy places in and around Mekka and Medina, and also the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem. The illustrations show the buildings as seen from above, but set in a flat projection. Numerous human beings are depicted, performing their prayers or simply standing and looking by.
A title is given in the text, on f. 10a, penultimate line. The author (Muhyi) is mentioned in the text on f. 4b, line 7. The prayers that have to be pronounced by the pilgrims are written in Arabic, in red ink. After the end of the text (f. 39a) there are still four full-page illustrations, which cannot all be identified (ff. 39b-41a). These illustration were apparently unidentifiable when the book was restored into its present shape and could not therefore be put at their appropriate place in the volume.

Illustrations and illuminations:
f. 2b. Il1uminated sarlawh.
f. 27b. Full-page illustration of the Haram of Mekka and the smaller edifices on the courtyard, with legends. Various gates with their names. A1so with humans depicted, in ihram-clothing.
f. 28a. Gabal `Arafat. Full-page illustration of the mountain, the tents, the *mahmal*s from Syria, Yemen and Egypt, the candelabra of the amir al-hagg, the al-Namira mosque on the right foreground, and other detai1s including humans, with legends.
f. 29b. Gamrat al-`Aqaba. Full-page illustration of the three places of stoning. Also the market place of Mina, the Masgid al-Khayf, the Makan Khadiga with praying believers, the candelabra of the amir al-hagg.
f. 31b. The way back from Muzdalifa to Mina, the stoning and the slaughtering. Two small illustrations, the upper one showing a number of people, the lower one showing a well, two sets of candelabras and several tents.
f. 32b. On the road from Mekka to Medina, the Gabal Mifrah. Small illustration showing a mountain, a well in a building, several tents, a human standing, everything in a rocky landscape.
f. 35b. The mosque of the Prophet in Medina, shown as a large courtyard. Full-page illustration. The grave of the Prophet and of several others under the cupola, the minbar, the Qubba-yi Khizana, the palms of Fatima, several people standing and praying, and other details.
f. 36b. A map of the graveyard near the Prophet’s mosque, Baqï` al-Gharqad. Full-page illustration showing numerous graves often with small constructions on top. One section contains the graves of members of the Prophet’s family and several of these have legends. Several people standing and praying.
f. 37a. The mosque of Quba’. Small illustration showing the interior of the mosque, the minaret, a weIl, a small qubba and a palmtree.
f. 38a. The Arba` mosque. Small illustration showing the four separate buildings, of the Prophet, of `Ali, of Abu Bakr and of Umar. Also the mosque Dhu al-Qiblatayn, the grotto of `Uthman, the well of Paradise (with a woman standing nearby).
f. 38b. The mountain Uhud. Small illustration showing the mountain, with a banner, also with the graves of the martyrs, and a small mosque with a weIl next to it.
f. 39b. A large mosque, probably the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem. Full-page illustration. Four minarets, several architectural details, a courtyard, the mihrab, the minbar, a well, the mizan, the sirat, niches. People standing.
f. 40a. Two unidentified cupoled edifices. Pull-page illustration. Apparently two different smaller mosques, each with detached minarets. Several people are standing.
f. 40b. Six unidentified cupoled edifices. Pull-page illustration. All have a niche with a lamp hanging in it, suggesting these are smaller places of worship. One edifice has a detached minaret-like structure. People are praying and standing.

f. 41a. Six unidentified cupoled edifices. Full-page illustration. All have a niche with a lamp hanging in it, suggesting these are smaller places of worship. People are praying and standing.

Javanese, paper, 235 pp., Latin script.
Babad Cerbon, legendary tales without dates, in macapat verse, 40 cantos, beginning with Sultan Hut (Hud) of Banisrail, and Pajajaran, containing tales of the ancient prophets (Anbiya) and the Javanese *wali*s (canto 8), the spread of Islam in many districts of West-Java, in particular in Cerbon Girang (Ratu Cangkuwang, canto 10), mentioning Sunan Pabuwaran and his son Pucuk Umun of Pakuwan (canto 13), the Chinese, being cursed by nabi Sis, do not become Muslims (canto 14), the Chinese princess Anyontin is restored to health by Maolana Gunung Jati (canto 15), further tales about Pajajaran (Prabu Gerebeng Herang) and other districts won for Islam (Raja Lahut, Jaketra, canto 17), Banten (canto 18), genealogies of the *wali*s (cantos 20, 21), Maolana Gunung Jati married as his fourth wife Rara Tepasan, who was born in the Majapahit realm. She spread Javanese culture in Cerbon. The Sundanese culture was superseded, and the Maolana took the title Sunan Pakung Wati and built the mosque directed by Sunan Kadi (sic) Jaga (canto 25), fall of Majapahit, rise of Demak (cantos 26, 27), Sultan Demak Sabrang Lor married a daughter of Sunan Jati, and therefore the kraton of Cerbon was embellished (canto 29), descendants of the rulers of Demak and Cerbon (canto 30), the sultanate of Pajang (canto 32), the death of Sunan Lemaban, executed in Cerbon (cantos 37, 38), the princess with the flaming womb, Tanduran Gagang, bought by the Dutch for three pieces of ordnance: cannon Sapu Jangat, Amuk and Setomi (canto 39).

According to the colophon (canto 40), the original text, written in Arabic script, was copied in a village in the district Ci Limus (Cerbon) in 1884. The idiom and the metres are West Javanese. The romanized copy was made for professor Drewes in Batavia, about 1930. He referred to an episode of the text in his treatise on Shamsi Tabriz (in Java called Samsu Tabarit) in TBG vol. 70, 1930, p. 319 note. See also J. Soegiarto, Notes, Or. 10.866 A, above. Javanese, treebark paper (dluang), folded, severely damaged, ff., Javanese script.

Catechism, question and answers on Muslim theology and mysticism, mainly concurrent with the contents of Or. 1928, above (see the editions of that MS by B.J.O. Schrieke, Het boek van Bonang, Utrecht 1916, and G.W.J. Drewes, The admonitions of Seh Bari. A 16th-century Javanese Muslim text attributed to the Saint of Bonan, The Hague 1969), followed by some notes on related subjects. The script is of an ancient perpendicular type, probably of North Coast origin. The manuscript is written on treebark paper, folded in the manner of a concertina balloon, like Batak books (see Or. 8657, above). The four lines of each page run parallel with the folds. On the margins remnants of decorations are visible. This kind of book is rare in Java. Probable origin: Central or East Pasisir, 16th or early 17th century. A thin black board with engraved divination tables (pawukon), called tika, was added for protection. Acquired by professor Drewes in Batavia, about 1930, from the district of Bagelen. See Pigeaud II, p. 709.

Or. 11.517 – Or. 11.527
Collection of Middle Eastern manuscripts, purchased on October 27, 1966, from Messrs. Otto Harrassowitz, Oriental booksellers and publishers in Wiesbaden. All manuscripts were previously described in Katalog 500 of Messrs. Harrassowitz, Orientalische Handschriften. Türkische, Persische und Arabische MSS. des XIV. bis XIX. Jahrhunderts (Wiesbaden 1966 [OosHss A 7]). It is obvious that most of these originate from Turkey and Egypt.

Or. 11.517
Arabic, paper, 103 ff., naskh script, European style full-leather binding, coloured green and red, with richly gilded ornamentation.
al-Haqa'iq fi Kashf Asrar al-Daqa'iq, gloss by Mustafa Nur al-Dinzada of Sharh al-Waridat, or Kashf al-Waridat li-Talib al-Kamalat, commentary by `Abdallah al-Simawi al-Ilahi (d. 896/1490), cf. F. Babinger, Geschichtsschreiber, 105, on al-Waridat, or Waridat al-Haqq, by Mahmud b. Isra'il Ibn Qadi Simawna (819/1416), GAL S II, 314-315. See also Leiden Or. 919, above.
Harrassowitz, Katalog 500, p. 44, No. 136.
[* Ar. 3330]

Or. 11.518
Arabic, paper, 407 ff., nasta`liq-like script, dated a Wednesday in Safar 867, copied by ... b. Hamza b. Hassan (colophon on f. 407b), remarkable full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallion), possibly contemporary.

Fusul al-Ihkam fi Usul al-Ahkam, by `Abd al-Rahim b. Abi Bakr al-Marghinani (c. 670/1271), GAL G I, 382. Short title: Fusul-i `Imadi.
- On f. 1a owner's notes and a few Masa'il.
Harrassowitz, Katalog 500, p. 44, No. 137.
[* Ar. 3331]

Or. 11.519
Arabic, paper, 100 ff., naskh script, full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled (borders, medallion).
Kitab Latif fi Hall Rumuz al-Tathlith fi `Ilm al-Nugum wal-Sun`a, or Hall al-Mushkilat al-Shudhuriyyat, commentary by `Ali b. Musa Ibn Arfa` Ra'sahu al-Andalusi (d. 593/1197), GAL G I, 496, on his own Diwan Shudhur al-Dhahab fi Fann al-Salamat. The commentary has the same of a conversation in which the author's pupil Abu al-Qasim Muhammad b. `Abdallah al-Ansari puts questions, which are then answered by the master. The present MS has considerable textual differences with MSS Berlin WE. 88 (Ahlwardt 4181) and Lbg. 96 (1), Ahlwardt 4182, which make an identification difficult.
- On f. 99b is a Fa'ida li-Daf` al-Sumum al-Qawatil wa-li-Daf` al-Hawamm. It is recipe.
Harrassowitz, Katalog 500, p. 45, No. 140.

Or. 11.539
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Turkish, paper, 138 ff. (ff. 59-65 with ornamented margins), naskh and nasta`liq script, many different hands, full-leather Islamic binding, blind tooled ornaments (medallion).
The volume contains a great number of notes and quotations, and a number of smaller texts (distinguished by an asterisk), apparently brought together by a scholar for his private use. As there are numerous hands, it may be assumed that the owner of the booklet obtained these, either in an educational situation, or, more likely, during travelling. That latter assumption is the more plausible, because several signatories have added place names and dates to their signatures. It is obvious that the collector of the text was a Hanafi legal scholar. He may well be the `Abdallah, known as Imamzada, who writes his name on top of f. 1a, and whose name is also occurring elsewhere in the volume.
ff. 1b-8a. Shorter notes, quotations, etc.
ff. 8b-10b. Fatwa's, notes, etc., written down by a Hanafi scholar, Muhammad al-Kawakibi, Mufti in Aleppo (f. 9a), and a few by others.

ff. 11a-39b. Notes, also in Turkish, including fatwa's. A few signatures can be seen: Ahmad b. Muhammad al-Hanafi al-Hamawi (f. 20a), `Abd al-Hayy al-Shurunbulali al-Hanafi (f. 20a), `Abd al-Rahman, mufti in Manastir (?), dated 1142 AH (ff. 21a, 30b), Yahya Minqarizada (ff. 23b, 26b), Abu Bakr, mufti in ?? (f. 32a), Muhammad, mufti in Aleppo (ff. 35b-38b).
f. 40a. A list of notarial formulae, to be used by officials.
ff. 40b-45b. A collection of quotations, mostly written in one, typically upright, hand, from a multitude of sources which are indicated. More in the same hand on ff. 46b ff. 45b-46a. Poetry, in Arabic and Turkish. Includes Munagat of al-Shaykh Gunayd al-Baghdadi (f. 45b).
ff. 46b-53a. Notes, quotations, fatwa's, etc.
ff. 53b-54b. A quotation of chapter 53 of al-Futuhat al-Makkiyya by Muhyi al-Din Ibn al-`Arabi (d. 638/1240), GAL G I, 446, on the duties of the Murid. Copied by the copyist of No. 9, below.
ff. 55a-56a. Fatwa's by `Abdallah Efendi Yenishehri, in Arabic and Turkish, signed by him. And quotations.
ff. 56b-69a. Notes, quotations, fatwa's, etc. Several in Turkish. Also signed by Muhammad al-Faqir, in Aleppo. There are some geographical notes in which Amasia and Siwas are mentioned (ff. 59b-61a). Also poetry, by Ahli (f. 62a), Munla `Awad (f. 62a).
ff. 69b-72a. Qanun-i Hukm-i Aradi-yi Miriyya, notes on public land, by the late Shaykh al-Islam Yahya Efendi.
ff. 72a-79a. Notes of varied contents, calculations (f. 78a), a list of the periods of the khilafa of the early caliphs (f. 78b), and other notes, in prose and poetry.
ff. 79b-86a. A great number of juridical Masa'il, in Turkish, in one and the same hand.
ff. 86b-88a. Quotations in Arabic and Turkish, in prose and poetry. Including *dubayt*s by al-Shakuri al-Tarabulsi.
ff. 88b-. Kitab fi Bayan al-Madhahib, quoted from the Tafsir by Nagm al-Din Abu Hafs `Umar b. Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Nasafi (d. 537/1142), GAL G I, 427. Probably his work entitled Kitab al-Taysir fil-Tafsir is meant here. Dated 1096 AH, copied by `Abdallah, known as Imamzada (f. 89b).
ff. 89b-90b. Notes from religious works in Arabic.
f. 91a. Copies of, or models for letters, in Turkish.
* ff. 91b-92a. Risalat Tabaqat al-Masa'il, by `Ali by `Ali Chelebi Qinalizada (d. 979/1572), GAL G II, 433. - The volume is fully interleaved, but only a relatively small number of the paste-ins has actually been used for glosses. The lay-out of the main text is such that there too is sufficient space for notes. The notes on the paste-ins and in the margins are of the same sort, and are written by the same glossator. A quotation from al-Dawwani's text is written in red (Qawluhu) and then commented upon.
- On f. 83b the Hadith on the 73 firqa. Ff. 84a-b blank.

Or. 11.557
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, 208 pp., and some blanks between the texts, naskh script, one copyist, who names himself in several of the colophons, and who also writes his name as copyist and reader, with his owner's stamp, on p. 1: kataba wa-qara'a hadha al-Kitab al-Sharif al-Latif Ahmad b. al-Hagg Muhammad al-Wa`iz bi-Ladiq al-Nahif, half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards.
(1) pp. 2-55. Kitab Qara Hashiya li-Mas`ud min al-Adab, or, as in the Berlin MS: Kitab `Imad Sharh `ala Mas`ud al-Rumi. A gloss on the art of disputation, identified with MS Berlin Spr. 1794 (5), Ahlwardt 5277. The author of the gloss may be, according to Ahlwardt: Yahya b. Ahmad al-Kashi `Imad al-Din (fl. 880/1475, not independently mentioned in GAL), or Mir Abu al-Fath Muhammad b. Amin Abu Sa`id Tag al-Sa`idi (fl. 850/1446, GAL S II, 287. If the latter guess is correct we may follow Brockelmann who identifies this work as a gloss by Abu al-Fath Muhammad b. Amin al-Sa`idi al-Ardabili (lived under Ulugh Beg, c. 875/1470, on al-Risala al-Hanafiyya, commentary by Muhammad al-Tibrizi al-Hanafi (d. 900/1494) on Adab al-Bahth, or al-Risala al-`Adudiyya by `Adud al-Din `Abd al-Rahman b. Ahmad al-Igi (d. after 680/1281), GAL G II, 208; S II, 287. See, however, Or. 11.558 (1), below, which is a different text, and which would be against Brockelmann's identification. Dated Sunday 18 (no month) 1093, copied by Ahmad b. al-Hagg Muhammad in the Madrasat Husayn Agha in the Qasba of Suna (colophon on p. 55). Structure: Qawluhu.

(2) pp. 56-107. Kitab Mas`ud min al-Adab (short title on p. 55), a commentary on al-Samarqandiyya, a treatise on Adab al-Bath wal-Munazara by Shams al-Din Muhammad al-Samarqandi (c. 600/1203). This is, to judhe from the information in the table of contents on p. 1, and the short title on p. 55, the commentary on which No. 1, above, is the gloss. Identified with MS Berlin WE. 85 (1), Ahlwardt 5275, where the author of the commentary is given as Mas`ud b. Husayn al-Shirwani al-Rumi (fl. 840/1436), and the author of the Matn Shams al-Din al-Samarqandi. Matn distinguished by overlining. Possibly incomplete at the end (abrupt ending on p. 107). After p. 107 are three unnumbered blank pages.
(3) pp. 108-115. Sharh al-Risala al-`Adudiyya, commentary by Mulla Muhammad al-Tibrizi al-Hanafi (d. 900/1494) on Adab al-Bahth, or al-Risala al-`Adudiyya, by `Adud al-Din `Abd al-Rahman b. Ahmad al-Igi (d. after 680/1281), GAL G II, 208; S II, 287. Identified with MS Berlin Mo. 205 (7), Ahlwardt 5296. Extensive glossing. Dated 1093 AH (p. 115).
(4) p. 116. Adab al-Bahth, or al-Risala al-`Adudiyya, by `Adud al-Din `Abd al-Rahman b. Ahmad al-Igi (d. after 680/1281), GAL G II, 208; S II, 287. Follows one unnumbered page.
(5) pp. 117-123. Kitab Tashköprü min al-Adab, or Sharh Tashkubri, commentary by Abu al-Khayr Ahmad b. Muslih al-Din Tashköprüzada (d. 968/1560), GAL G II, 426, No. 13, on his own Risala fi `Ilm Adab al-Bahth, a short treatise on the art of disputation. Identified with both the matn and the sharh with MS Berlin Spr. 1797, Ahlwardt 5323. Dated 1093 AH (MS: 1903), copied by Ahmad b. al-Haggi Muhammad b. al-... (?) al-Ladiqi, in the Qasba of Suna, in the Madrasat Husayn Agha (colophon on p. 123).
(6) pp. 123-124. al-Risala al-Kamaliyya, no auhor indicated. A treatise on Adab al-Bahth wal-Munazara. Beginning: al-Hamdu liman hafiza al-Mu'minin min al-Khata'. Dated 1093 AH.
(7) pp. 126-208. Kitab Shah Husayn min al-Adab. Gloss by Shah Husayn al-`Agam (with Qawluhu) on the gloss by Mir Abu al-Fath, on a work on Adab al-Bahth wal-Munazara. Identified with MS Berlin Spr. 1794 (4), Ahlwardt 5279. It seems that Ahlwardt and Brockelmann have become confused about this work. Dated 29 Shawwal 1093, copied by Ahmad b. al-Haggi Muhammad al-Ladiqi in the Qasba of Suna, in the Madrasat Husayn Agha (colophon on p. 208).

(5) ff. 212b-232a. Sharh al-Qasida al-Mansuba ila Abi al-Fath al-Busti, commentary by `Ali b. Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Nuqrakar (d. 776/1374), GAL S II, 21, on Qasidat al-Busti al-Nuniyya, or `Unwan al-Hilm, the famous Qasida by Abu al-Fath `Ali b. Muhammad al-Busti (d. 401/1010), GAL G I, 251. Identified with MS Berlin We. 285 (Ahlwardt 7594).

(6) ff. 232b-237a. al-Fatwa fi Bayt `Allama Muhammad Busiri ... Copy of a question and answer concerning a certain distich (quoted in the heading of f. 232b) in the Qasidat al-Burda by Muhammad b. Sa`id al-Busiri (d. 694/1294), GAL G I, 264. Followed by other, related remarks on the question and answer. The answer seems to be given by Muhammad al-Higazi. Then follow remarks by Muhibb al-Din al-Hanafi, Tag al-Din Abu `Abd al-Rahman, `Abd al-Hayy (f. 235a), `Abd al-Hayy al-`Alawani, Ahmad b. Yunus b. `Abd al-Wahhab b. Ahmad b. Abi Bakr al-`Aythyawi (f. 235b), Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Andalusi al-Maliki (f. 236b) and `Abd al-Latif b. `Abd al-Mun`im al-Shafi`i (f. 237a).
(7) ff. 237b-238a. Qasida, rhyming in –ati, by `Abd al-Qadir al-Gilani, or al-Gili (d. 561/1161), GAL G I, 435.
(8) f. 238b. Mas'ala in Turkish on the Ma`rifa which comes from God and the Ma`rifa which comes from the Prophet.
- Loosely added (between ff. 88-89) one leaf from a collection of prayers in Turkish.
[* Ar. 3399]

Or. 11.594
Arabic, paper, 2 ff + ff. 3-368, nasta`liq and naskh scripts, several hands, full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallion).
Incomplete (beginning and end missing, beginning of chapter 1 and end of chapter 48 lacking) and lacunous (ff. 105-106, 269-270) copy of Mishkat al-Anwar fi Lata'if al-Akhbar by Abu Hamid Muhammad b. Muhammad al-Ghazzali (d. 505/111), GAL G I, 423, No. 34. Identified with MS Berlin Spr. 765 (Ahlwardt 8745). Short title Mishkat al-Anwar also on lower edge.
- Preceding the text is a table of contents with reference to folio numbers.
- Added 1 leaf from an unrelated work, a commentary.
[* Ar. 3400]

Or. 11.595
Arabic, paper, 4 + 132 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallion).
Incomplete copy (last sentences of the last chapter missing) of Mukhtasar al-Quduri by Ahmad b. Muhammad al-Quduri (d. 428/1037), GAL G I, 175. Identified with Or. 11.605, below.
- On 2 pp preceding the text a table of contents, with reference to folio numbers.
- On f. [4]a is a question and answer about whether the Iman leaves the body together with the Ruh, when a human being dies.
- On ff. 133a-b. Questions and answers on various juridical questions.
[* Ar. 3401]

Or. 11.596
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, 2 + 38 ff., naskh script, without binding.
(1) ff. 1a-24b. Incomplete copy (beginning missing, apparently an abrupt end) of an unidentified treatise on ethics. On f. 16a Abu al-Hasan al-Busti is quoted

(2) ff. 25a-35a. Mafatih al-Tagalli wal-Nuzul wa-Salalim al-Wusul (title on f. 25b, short title on f. 35a), by Abu Hamid Muhammad b. Muhammad al-Ghazzali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 420 (where no mention of this title), apparently a treatise on ethics, divided into 10 sections (fasl). The beginning of the text seems to be missing.
[* Ar. 3402]

Or. 11.597
Arabic, paper, 42 ff., naskh script, half-leather Islamic binding, pasted boards.
Daqa'iq al-Akhbar (f. 1b), here without mention of author, but by Ahlward ascribed to Hamza b. Yusuf b. Khalifa (c. 800/1397), of the text identified with the version of that work which is preserved in MS Berlin Lbg. 807 (6), Ahlwardt 2778. See also the discussion on this matter in GAL S I, 346.
[* Ar. 3403]

Or. 11.598
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Turkish, paper, 120 ff (f. 113 numbered twice), simple naskh script, mostly one and the same copyist, full-leather Islamic binding, blind tooling (lines).
(1) ff. 1b-8a. al-Fiqh al-Akbar ascribed to Abu Hanifa al-Nu`man b. Thabit (d. 150/767), GAL S I, 285. Dated Rabi` II 1120, copied by (?) `Umar b. Mustafa, who is also the owner of the book (f. 8a).
(2) ff. 9a-17b. Turkish. Incomplete copy (beginning missing) of an unidentified theological treatise.
(3) ff. 17b-32a. Turkish. Unidentified theological treatise. In the beginning `Ali b. Abi Talib and Fatima are mentioned.
(4) ff. 32b-40b. Turkish. Unidentified theological treatise. In the beginning Ibn Salam is mentioned, possibly `Abdallah b. Salam, the Jewish interlocutor of the Prophet Muhammad, well-known from popular literature in Arabic and Malay. See also GAS I, 304.
(5) ff. 41a-46b. Lacunous copy (lacunae between ff. 42-42bis, 43-44) of Bab Shurut al-Salat, an anonymous treatise on ritual prayer. Possibly part of a larger text, since there are more chapters (bab). Ff. 47a-48a, 49a blank. On f. 48b two Mas'ala, on `idda and on talaq. On f. 49b a list in Turkish, mentioning goods and prices.
(6) ff. 50b-57b. Turkish. Religious treatise, unidentified. Fully vocalized.
(7) ff. 57b-63b. Incomplete (end missing) copy of an unidentified religious treatise, beginning with sayings by the Prophet Muhammad on the making of images (Suwar) being forbidden. See also Nos. 10 and 12, below.
(8) ff. 65a-64a (upside down). The introductory part only of al-Muqaddima fi al-Salat, by al-Imam Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi (d. c. 373/983), GAL G I, 196. Dated 1003 AH (written in reverse), and probably incorrect as the MS makes a much younger impression. See also the date at the end of No. 1, above.
(9) ff. 65b-77b. Turkish and Arabic. Incomplete copy (end missing) of a work entitled Subhat al-`Ushshaq (f. 65b). After an introduction in Turkish comes a bilingual series of sayings of the Prophet Muhammad, Arabic text in red, Turkish translation and explanation in black ink. This is followed, on f. 77a, by Munagat, in Turkish. Ahlwardt in the Berlin catalogue, under No. 8652 (2), mentions a text by this name, where the Turkish poet Latifi (d. 990/1582) would be the author. The judge from the quotations given by Ahlwardt that text seems different from the present one, but the idea seems to be the same. It is not clear whether the entirely vocalized Turkish text on ff. 78a-b belongs to this text, or that it is a disparate fragment of another text.

(10) ff. 79a-80b. Ahadith Sharifa. A question asked by Mu`adh b. Gabal to the Prophet Muhammad in images (Suwar), here answered by a description of the 15 waves (Fawg) in which the believers will emerge on the Youngest Day. See also No. 7, above and No. 12, below. Copied by al-Sayyid Ya`qub al-Mar`ashi (f. 80b), who did not copy the other texts in this volume.
(11) ff. 81a-82a. Arabic and Turkish. Khutbat Nikah.
(12) ff. 82b-86a. Masa'il Mu`adh b. Gabal `an al-Nabi. Again starting with the matter of the making of images (Suwar) and the punishment on the Youngest Day for those who have indulged in that. See also Nos. 7 and 10 above.
(13) ff. 86a-87b. A prayer based on the 99 names of God, al-Asma' al-Husna.
(14) ff. 87b-88a. An Arabic and a Turkish prayer.
(15) ff. 88a-91b. Incomplete copy (end missing) of Bab Shurut al-Salat, the Mukhtasar al-Salat, the treatise on ritual prayer by Ibn Kamal Pasha (d. 940/1533), GAL G II, 449. Identified with the Matn in Or. 12.54 (1), below.
(16) ff. 92b-101b. Incomplete copy (end missing) of Sirag al-Musalli wa-Badr al-Mubtadi' wal-Muntahi. Anonymous treatise on the rules of ritual prayer (Salat). Identified with Or. 11.776, below.
(17) ff. 102b-119b. Arba`un Hadithan. This is the title written over the beginning of the text, but the text is certainly not a collection of Forty Hadith. It treatise does contain a considerable number of Hadith, however, on a variety of subjects. No title, nor indication of author. Beginning: al-Suhba Awwal yaqulu Allah tabaraka wa-ta`ala shahidtu Nafsi ... The first Hadith is about the question of fasting in the first fifth of the month of Ragab.
(18) f. 120b (upside-down). Prayer.
[* Ar. 3404]

Or. 11.599
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, paper, 140 ff (including paste-ins, excluding loose inserts), naskh and nasta`liq scripts, different hands, half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards.
(1) ff. 1b-10a. Anonymous treatise on `Ilm al-Adab, the art of disputation. Beginning: yaqulu al-Faqir ... lamma kana Mutun `Ilm al-Adab lam tashtamil `ala Tafsil Amthilat al-Bahth li-Gami` al-Abwab ... Glossing throughout, mostly from a work or remarks by Hasan Pasha. Ff. 10b-11a blank.
(2) ff. 11b-84b. `Aqa'id-i Galali, commentary by Galal al-Din Muhammad b. As`ad al-Dawwani (d. 907/1501) on al-`Aqa'id al-`Adudiyya by `Adud al-Din `Abd al-Rahman b. Ahmad al-Igi (d. 756/1355), GAL G II, 209. Identified with Leiden Or. 997 (8), above. Matn distinguished by red overlining. Ff. 85a-87a blank.

(3) ff. 87b-139a. al-Shafiya fil-Tasrif by Abu `Amr `Uthman b. `Umar Ibn al-Hagib (d. 646/1249), GAL G I, 305. Identified with MS Berlin Glas. 15 (1), Ahlwardt 6600. Heavy glossing, several paste-ins and inserts. Ff. 139b-140b blank.
[* Ar. 3405]

Or. 11.600
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Turkish, paper, 59 ff., naskh script, several hands, full leather Islamic binding with blind tooled ornamentation (borders, fields).

(2) ff. 55a-b. List of words, and how to spell these according to the different Qur'an readers.
(3) ff. 56a-58a. Turkish treatise on the basic tenets of Islam, with reference to Abu Hanifa (d. 150/767), GAL S I, 287. Sifat-i Iman, Sifat-i Islam, notes on ritual prayer, etc. At the end Du`a' Salat, in Arabic, and other Arabic prayers. Arabic and Turkish fully vocalized.
(4) f. 58b. List of abbreviations used to refer to the readers of the Qur'an. On f. 59a a short prayer.
[* Ar. 3406]

Or. 11.601
Arabic, paper, 363 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding, rebacked.
Incomplete copy (beginning lacking) of Mukhtar al-Sahah (f. 1a), or Mukhtasar al-Sahah (f. 363a), shortened version by Muhammad b. Abi Bakr b. `Abd al-Qadir al-Razi (fl. 635 AH, cf. author's colophon on f. 363a) of al-Sahah by Abu Nasr Isma`il b. Hammad al-Gawhari (d. 393/1003), GAL G I, 128. Identified with the editions Cairo (`Isa al-Babi al-Halabi, n.d. [8177 E 34] and the rearranged edition by Mahmud Khatir (Cairo 1987 [8249 C 7/8128 C 25]. Ahlwardt (6944) assumes that the author was alive around 720/1320. If the date in the present MS is correct, he lived almost a century earlier. Numerous marginal collation marks (with nuskha, sahha).
- On ff. 1-2, 363b notes of all sorts.
[* Ar. 3407]

Or. 11.602
Arabic, paper, 2 + 171 ff., naskh script, dated Dhu al-Qa`da 790 (f. 170b), half-leather Islamic binding with flap (recent).
Revision by Husam al-Din `Umar b. `Abd al-`Aziz b. Maza al-Sadr al-Shahid al-Bukhari (d. 536/1141) of the commentary by `Ali b. Muhammad al-Pazdawi (d. 482/1089), GAL G I, 373, on al-Gami` al-Saghir by Muhammad b. al-Hasan al-Shaybani (d. 189/804), GAL G I, 171. Identified with MS Berlin Pet. 229 (Ahlwardt 4437), and with Leiden Or. 329, above. The work is also known as Gami` al-Sadr al-Shahid. On f. [2]a the title-page of the Matn,

Or. 11.618 – Or. 11.681
Collection of Malay and Javanese study notes and manuscripts from the archive of Hendrik Kraemer (1888-1965) mostly dating from his stay in Java (c. 1922-1932). The main Kraemer collection (Or. 10.814 – Or. 10.850) was transferred in March 1963 from the Library of the Zendingshogeschool in Oegstgeest. The present collection came in February 1967 in the Library, just after Kraemer's death. Later additions (also with materials in languages other than Javanese) from Kraemer's collection have been registered in the Library as Or. 18.009 – Or. 18.032. See Pigeaud III, pp. 121-130. A list of the present collection, made for the purpose of the transfer of the manuscripts is registered as Or. 11.681a, below. A few more Kraemer manuscripts came into the Library indirectly (Or. 12.320, Or. 12.321, Or. 12.332).

Or. 11.618 a-b
Malay and Arabic, paper, pp., 2 exercise books.
Romanized transcript by Hendrik Kraemer (1888-1965) of MS Leiden Or. 3291, above, being Tibyan fi Ma`rifat al-Adyan, by Nuruddin al-Raniri, written against the opinions of Shams al-Din al-Samatra'i (Syamsuddin of Pasai) during the rule of Sultan Iskandar II `Ala' al-Din Mughayat Syah. The Tibyan is followed by the two other short texts in the volume, namely Answers by Nuruddin al-Raniri on questions about the origins of the world, and a Treatise on Panca indera (the five senses) and Nafas, possibly also by Nuruddin al-Raniri.
H.N. van der Tuuk, the former owner of Or. 3291, refers to the original manuscript in his own collection in BKI 13 (1866), pp. 463-464.
The transcript is written on the right pages, Kraemer's notes, remarks, etc. are written on the opposite, left, pages. The page-numbers of the original MS are retained.

[* Mal. 6670]

Or. 11.670
Collective volume with texts in Javanese, paper, 57 pp., Latin script, exercise-book.
Notes by Hendrik Kraemer (1888-1965) on Javanese texts:
(1) pp. 1-3. Jiljalaha, called 'Satan's Sermon' (see J. Brandes, 'De Preek van den Duivel', TBG 37 (1894), pseudo lessons in immorality given by Jajal Lanat to his sons, written by raden riya Ranadiningrat, of Yogyakarta, meant to be a warning against temptation. Published in Almanac Buning, Yogyakarta, 1918, 6 cantos. Kraemer suggests that the name Jiljalaha is a Javanese corruption of the last words of Qur'an 99, Arabic: zilzala, referring to the quaking of the earth, a sign of the End. The Javanese explanation of Jiljalaha is: Jajil (h)ala: bad Daggal (Antichrist).
(2) pp. 4-36. Gato Loco, edition Sapa Nana, Blitar, 1922, collated with a summary by C. Poensen (Mededelingen Ned. Zendings Gen. vol. 17, p. 227) and marginal notes on the meaning of words. Poensen's text was shorter.

(3) pp. 38-57. Darma Gandul, see the edition by Tan Khoen Swie, Kadiri, 1921, 6 cantos, extensive Dutch summary. Kraemer was told by Jayadipura, of Yogyakarta, that the Darma Gandul text was written by panji Nata Rata, of Ngijon, in 1870 or thereabout. It seems likely that the original text was conceived in Kadiri. See G.W.J. Drewes, BKI 122, 1966.

[* Ar. 3450]

Or. 11.709
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, with some Turkish and Persian, paper, 81 ff., nasta`liq script, several hands, half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards.
(1) ff. 1-3a. Notes, quotations, scribbling, also in Turkish.
(2) ff. 3b-52b. Anonymous commentary on Awraq li-I`rab Dibagat al-Misbah min Fawa'id Ghara'ib al-Miftah (title on ff. 1b-2a), commentary by (?) Mas`ud b. `Umar al-Taftazani (d. 792/1390), GAL G II, 215, on the introductory part of al-Misbah fil-Nahw by Abu al-Makarim Nasir b. `Abd al-Sayyid al-Mutarrizi (d. 610/1213), GAL G I, 293. Identified with MS Berlin Lbg. 841 (Ahlwardt 6547). Dated 4 Shawwal 998 (colophon on f. 52b).
(3) ff. 52b-53a. Risala li-Abyat Sharh Dibagat al-Misbah, the beginning only of a text related to the previously described one. Followed, on f. 53a, of a table of contents of a work on Arabic grammar. No authors indicated. Ff. 53b-58a blank.
(4) ff. 58b-68b. Tadhkirat Gami` al-Adawat, a grammatical treatise by Muhammad b. Mahmud (not in GAL?, title and author on f. 58b). Dated 991 AH (f. 68b).
(5) ff. 69a-71b. Risala fil-I`rab. Short anonymous treatise on I`rab.
(6) ff. 72a-75b. As'ila wa-Agwiba fil-Qur'an `ala Tartib al-Su'al, or al-As'ila wal-Agwiba, or indicated with a generic name as Risala Latifa. Anonymous collection of questions and answers on peculiarities of the language and spelling of the Qur'an.
(7) f 76b. The beginning only of Risala Halla l-Abyat al-Daw'. A considerable number of leaves has been removed from the volume between ff. 76-77. With al-Daw' is meant the commentary by Tag al-Din Muhammad b. Muhammad al-Isfara'ini (d. 684/1285) on al-Misbah fil-Nahw by Nasir b. `Abd al-Sayyid al-Mutarrizi (d. 610/1213), GAL G I, 293. The present fragment is not identical with the two commentaries mentioned by Ahlwardt (6534, 6535). On f. 77a are notes, quotations, etc, in a different hand. Abyat indicated by red overlining.
(8) ff. 77b-81a. Kitab al-As'ila wal-Agwiba `ala al-Maqsud fil-Sarf. Anonymous collection of questions and answers concerning the content of al-Maqsud fil-Tasrif, an anonymous work on Arabic grammar, sometimes ascribed to Abu Hanifa al-Nu`man b. Thabit (d. 150/767), GAL S I, 287. Dated 19 Rabi` II 995 in the town of Siruz (colophon on f. 81a. On f. 81b a chronogram in Persian for the year of demise of Shaykh Badr al-Din, apparently a local saint of Siruz, namely 818 AH. Also a list with the numerical value of the letters of the Arabic alphabet. And a note in Turkish on Arabic grammar.
[* Ar. 3451]

Or. 11.710 – Or. 11.803

- On ff. 258a-259b. Several quotations, with indication of the source.
[* Ar. 3457]

Or. 11.716
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, with some Turkish, paper, 146 ff., naskh script, dated 1165 AH (f. 77b), half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards.
The main subject of the volume is Tafsir and several larger fragments were taken from al-Baydawi's Tafsir.
(1) ff. 1-8a. Several paste-ins, with notes, quotations, also in Turkish, from several sources, which are often indicated. On ff. 2a-b the table of contents of Guz' 30 of the Qur'an, apparently as a prelude to the Tafsir Qadi (No. 2, below). Also Hadith (ff. 2 bis-ter), prayer (Du`a'), in Turkish (ff. 3a-b), min Surat Al `Imran (ff. 4a-b), fi Fadilat al-Salat `ala al-Nabi (ff. 5a-b), Fadl Ummat Muhammad (ff. 6a-b). Ff. 7b-8a blank.
(2) ff. 8b-77b. Tafsir Qadi (f. 8b), which is in fact Anwar al-Tanzil wa-Asrar al-Ta'wil by `Abdallah b. `Umar al-Baydawi (d. 716/1316?), GAL G I, 417. Here only the Tafsir on Guz' 30 of the Qur'an is given (from sura 78 onwards till the end). There are extensive glosses, with a system of reference marks. Sometimes the glosses are so extensive that they must be continued on paste-ins. Usually they are provided with an indication of source. The Qur'anic text is distinguished by overlining. The Tafsir is set within a frame. See also No. 6, below.
(3) ff. 77 bis a – 78b. Quotations from several works, several on Ramadan.
(4) ff. 79a-82b. Anonymous treatise on Shahr Ramadan, or a quotation from a Tafsir with passages on Ramadan (in Sura 3).
(5) ff. 83a-90a. Quotations, from Tafsir and Hadith, often with indication of the source.

(6) ff. 90b-130b. Tafsir Surat Yusuf. Tafsir of sura 12 of the Qur'an, taken from Anwar al-Tanzil wa-Asrar al-Ta'wil by `Abdallah b. `Umar al-Baydawi (d. 716/1316?), GAL G I, 417. Same copyist as No. 2, above, and similarly provided with glosses, but without the frame.
(7) ff. 131a-b. Notes and quotations on exegetical subjects. Fadilat Qira'at al-Fatiha (f. 131a), Hikaya `an Wahb b. Munabbih (f. 131a), Khutbat Wa`z (f. 131b), Asas (f. 131b).
(8) ff. 132a-143b. Quotations, mostly from Anwar al-Tanzil wa-Asrar al-Ta'wil by `Abdallah b. `Umar al-Baydawi (d. 716/1316?), GAL G I, 417, from several different sura's.
(9) ff. 144a-146b. Notes, also in Turkish. One dated Friday 6 Ramadan 1244 (f. 144a). Another titled fil-Talqin `ala al-Qabr (f. 145a). Also a Khutbat Nikah (f. 146a). Also several shorter fragments on Tafsir. And a prayer, Kardak Du`asi (f. 146a).
[* Ar. 3458]

Or. 11.717
Arabic, with some Persian, paper, 260 ff., naskh script, copied by Muhammad b. Ahmad b. `Abd al-Rahim, known as Badr al-Dinzada (colophon on f. 258b, affected by water and badly legible), full leather Islamic binding, with blind tooled ornaments (borders, lines, elements).
Magalis Mutafarriqa, ascribed on the title-page (f. [2]a) to al-Imam al-Waqidi. He cannot be the same as the author of early historical texts (Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. `Uthman al-Waqidi, d. 207/823, GAS I, 294-297). This name has been wiped out by an owner who must have found the ascription spurious. It is in fact a post-classical work, divided into 77 sessions (maglis), which use a quotation from the Qur'an as a starting point for an edifying piece of text. Many sources are quoted by title. On f. 2a also from the Mathnawi by Mawlana, in Persian.
The 1st maglis: al-Maglis al-Awwal fi Qawlihi ta`ala ya ayyuha al-Nas u`budu Rabbakum alladhi khalqakum ... (f. [2]b).
The 77th maglis: al-Maglis al-Sabi` wal-Sab`un fi Qawlihi ta`ala fi Surat al-Hugurat ya ayyuha alladhina amanu igtanabu Kathiran min al-Zann ... (f. 257a).
- f. 236 is a paste-in with fragments of Persian poetry quoted from Pand (=? the Pandnama by Farid al-Din `Attar) , Gulistan, Hadrat-i Mawlana.
[* Ar. 3459]

Or. 11.718
Arabic, with some Turkish, paper, 176 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornamentation (borders, medallion).
Sharh al-Shafiya, commentary by al-Sayyid `Abdallah b. Muhammad b. Ahmad Nuqrakar (d. c. 776/1374) on al-Shafiya fil-Tasrif, or al-Muqaddima fil-Tasrif, the textbook on Arabic morphology by Gamal al-Din Abu `Amr `Uthman b. `Uthman b. Abi Bakr Ibn al-Hagib (d. 646/1249), GAL G I, 305. Identified with Or. 11.790, below. Matn distinguished by red overlining.
- On inner fly-leaf and f. 1a notes in Turkish, including Turkish poetry.
[* Ar. 3460]

Or. 11.719

Mafatih al-Ginan wa-Masabig al-Ganan, commentary by Ya`qub b. Sayyid `Ali al-Rumi `Alizada al-Banbani (d. 931/1524, title and name on f. 349a), on Kitab Shari`at al-Islam ila Dar al-Salam (also: Shir`at), by Rukn al-Islam Sadid al-Din Muhammad b. Abi Bakr al-Bukhari Imamzada al-Sharghi (d. 573/1177), GAL S I, 642. At the end (ff. 349a-b) a list of the books used. Matn is distinguished by red overlining. At the begin notes of different sorts, and a table of contents for the book. Identified with MS Berlin Pet. 570 (Ahlwardt 1734).
Another copy of this text is Or. 11.927, below.
[* Ar. 3461]

Or. 11.720
Collective volume with texts in Arabic, with some Turkish, paper, 205 ff., naskh script, one copyist, dated 7 Rabi` I 1164, copied by `Abbad Allah b. Hasan b. Muhammad b. Mahmud (colophons on ff. 149b, 204a with copyist verse in Arabic and Turkish on f. 204a), cloth binding.
(1) ff. 2b-149b. Fawa'id al-Fuqaha', possibly identical with the work on Hanafi fiqh of the same title by Mahmud b. Muhammad b. Sulayman Efendi, of which GAL S II, 953, No. 56, quotes only one other copy, dated 1157 AH (Rampur I, p. 235, No. 448). Ff. 150a-155b blank.
(2) ff. 156b-204a. An untitled and anonymous work on slaughter according to Islamic law, preceded by a table of contents (fihrist) on f. 156a.
[* Ar. 3462]

Or. 11.721
Arabic, paper, 199 ff., nasta`liq script (faded text often redrawn), dated Ramadan / Haziran 1034, in the reign of Sultan Muhammad Giray Khan b. Sa`adat Giray Khan (of the Crimea, see E. de Zambaur, Manuel, p. 247), copied by `Ali b. Anaq al-Hagg b. Qunli Sufi (?, colophon on f. 199a, only readable with ultraviolet light), full leather Islamic binding.
al-Sharh al-Mutawwal, the larger commentary by Mas`ud b. `Umar al-Taftazani (d. 792/1390), GAL G II, 215, on Miftah al-`Ulum, by Yusuf b. Abi Bakr al-Sakkaki (d. 626/1229), GAL G I, 294. Identified with MS Berlin Spr. 1084 (Ahlwardt 7191). Matn is distinguished by red overlining. Considerable glossing throughout. Author's colophon on 198b gives Wednesday 11 Sha`ban 748 as the date of completion and Herat as the place where this was done.
[* Ar. 3463]

Or. 11.722
Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Turkish, paper, 39 ff., naskh script, several hands, half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards (marbled).

(1) ff. 2b-4b. al-Qasida al-Lamiyya fil-Tawhid (or: Bad' al-Amali), by `Ali b. `Uthman al-Ushi (c. 569/1173), GAL G I, 429. Arabic text in large script, with Turkish translation in the margin, in small script.
(2) f. 5a. 8 lines of poetry in Turkish.
(3) ff. 6b-38b. Commentary, completed in the middle of Shawwal 1010, by `Ali b. Sultan Muhammad al-Qari al-Harawi (d. 1014/1605), GAL G II, 395, on al-Qasida al-Lamiyya fil-Tawhid by `Ali b. `Uthman al-Ushi (c. 569/1173), GAL G I, 429. Identified with Or. 11.945, below. Matn is distinguished by red overlining. Glossing throughout, especially in the beginning. Dated end Dhu al-Qa`da 1166, copied by Khalil b. Wali al-Din (colophons on f. 38b). Ff. 39a-b blank.
[* Ar. 3464]

Or. 11.723
Arabic, with some Turkish, paper, 1 + 91 ff., nasta`liq script, dated a Sunday in Safar 1240, copied in Madrasat Uzun Abaqa Qarsan (?) and Madrasat Aqa Buri Efendi (?) (colophon on f. 91b, with copyist verse in Turkish).
Hashiya by al-Sayyid al-Sharif al-Gurgani (d. 816/1413), GAL G II, 216, on al-Sharh al-Mutawwal, the larger commentary by Mas`ud b. `Umar al-Taftazani (d. 792/1390), GAL G II, 215, on Miftah al-`Ulum, by Yusuf b. Abi Bakr al-Sakkaki (d. 626/1229), GAL G I, 294. Identified with Leiden, Or. 11.929 (1), below.
[* Ar. 3465]

Or. 11.724
Arabic, paper, 281 ff., naskh script, dated 10 Sha`ban 1244, copied by al-Sayyid Muhammad Shakir al-Sham`i (colophon on f. 282b), half-leather Islamic binding with flap, pasted boards.
Gami`a `ala Qisas Ba`d al-Anbiya' wal-Mursalin, or Qisas al-Anbiya', a work on the histories of the Prophets and Messengers, including the Prophet Muhammad, the four Rashidun and the Sahaba. No indication of author, and as yet unidentified. It does not seem to be the collection by al-Kisa'i (see Or. 14.027 (1), above).
The structure of the book becomes clear from the table of contents on ff. 2a-3b:

It should be observed that the sections at the beginning are often very short, hardly more than a page. Later on, they are much longer and often written as short treatises, with basmala's, and with a colophon-like end for each Fasl or Qissa. It can also be observed that the order given in this table of contents is not always the order of the sections in the manuscript. The order of the leaves in the manuscript is well organized with a system of repeated catchwords. The discrepancy between text and table of contents could be explained as merely accidental, or as done on purpose, so that the table of contents would correct the book. The table of contents has often short titles for the sections, whereas the titles in the text itself are longer, more explicit and more explicative. The errors against Arabic grammar in the titles, subscripts, etc., are conspicuous.
